

THE JOURNAL GUARANTEES THE LARGEST CIRCULATION OF ANY PAPER CIRCULATED IN WINSTON-SALEM. SUBSCRIPTION BOOKS OPEN TO ALL FOR INSPECTION

HOLIDAY GIFTS
In fine leather goods, in combination pocketbooks, tablets and pads. Our stock of albums, and handsomely bound and illustrated books, juvenile books make gifts that the cultivated appreciate as Xmas souvenirs.

D. H. Browder,
Successor to Justice & Browder.

Wachovia
National Bank,
Winston, N. C.

Capital $150,000
Surplus and Profits $150,000

W. A. LEMLY, President.
JAS. A. GRAY, Cashier.

H. Montague, Att'y,
LAND & LOAN AGENT,
WINSTON, N. C.

We have now in stock a number of

Desirable Books

in sets—some in good binding at moderate cost, others with the best binding and paper, at the most reasonable price our careful buying can quote you.

We Call Your Attention

for instance to two sets of Dickens,
in fifteen volumes each:
Bound in Silk, $10.00,
Bound in Library Sheep, $18.00.

HOWELL.

AT McNair's,
Sweeping Reduction
Of 10 Per Cent. on All Goods.
Commencing on WEDNESDAY, November 30.

The entire stock, comprising all the latest styles in Silks, Crepons, Covert Cloth, Ladies' Cloths, Broadcloths, Henriettas, all grades, Serge, Cashmere, Cheviots, Outing Calicoes, Gingham, &c., Ladies' Dress and Underskirts, from the cheapest to the best silk; Ladies' Cloaks, all styles and prices, in both jackets and capes; Ladies' Muslin Underwear, this line is complete and would ask your careful inspection of it.

Ladies' and Children's Underwear, Wools and Cottons. Don't fail to look at the children's sleeping suits, something new. Hosiery—one of the most complete lines ever brought to the city. Reduction applies to them also. Ladies' Neckwear—This line is complete and all the latest up-to-date styles in ties and bows are to be found. Be sure and see this line. Window Shades, Lace Curtains, Portiers, Curtain Poles, in beautiful designs. Would call your special attention to these. A job lot of Ladies' Kid Gloves, slightly damaged, 50 cents per pair. These are regular $1.00 gloves. Remember I am sole agent for the P. Centennial Kid gloves, the best glove made. Remember this reduction applies to entire stock of goods.

Will open December 10th a beautiful line of Xmas goods. Don't buy till you see my stock.

M. MCNAIR,
CORNER LIBERTY AND THIRD STS.
BELL, 26, INTERSTATE

Gentlemen,
A Cordial Invitation!

We cordially invite those who contemplate changing their old UNDERWEAR for new to call at our store at once. You will appreciate the goods and price. See our Hats and Furnishings. None better.

Ladies

Will please examine our Xmas presents for their fathers, brothers, husbands and friends: Gloves, Mittens, Umbrellas, Neck Ties, Handkerchiefs, Suspenders, &c. Things useful and not expensive.

J. M. WOODRUFF & CO.,
Hats and Men's Furnishings.

GROWTH OF THE Wachovia Loan
and Trust Company.
Winston, N. C.,
Since Organization, June 15, 1893.

	DEPOSITS	LOANS
June 15, 1893	$ 88,095.80	$ 98,126.10
June 15, 1894	286,078.80	388,071.03
June 15, 1895	490,945.95	597,042.17
Sept. 1, 1898	518,306.22	641,155.85

Wachovia Loan and Trust Company,
WINSTON, N. C.

Acts as Executor, Administrator, Guardian.

The Best and Most Reliable Trust Company in the State.
Does a General Banking Business.

Pays Interest on Deposits.
Solicits Your Business.

WINSTON-SALEM
Building and Loan Association.
FOURTH SERIES NOW OPEN.

First Payment Called for Dec. 1.

This Association offers first class facilities to borrowers at very low rates of interest, and to investors an absolutely safe and profitable investment. To salaried men and wage earners who desire to lay up a few dollars each month for the inevitable "rainy day," its advantages are unequalled.

A home institution managed by home people. G. A. FOLLIN, Sec. and Treas.

DIRECTORS—J. C. Buxton, Dr. J. F. Shaffer, J. W. Shipley, W. A. Whitaker, S. E. Allen, Joe Jacobs, W. T. Vogler, G. A. Follin.

IMPOSING CEREMONIES

Held Yesterday Over the Remains of Colonel A. B. Gorrell.

THOUSANDS ATTEND THE FUNERAL

A Beautiful Tribute Paid to the Life of Deceased by Rev. Caldwell.

The funeral services of Mayor Albert B. Gorrell, which took place at 2:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon at the First Presbyterian church, were the most impressive that have ever occurred within the history of Winston-Salem. It seemed as if every citizen, regardless of class, desired to pay this last homage to the departure of their beloved friend and benefactor.

The funeral procession was formed at the residence and arranged as follows: First, carriages containing Messrs E. E. Gray, J. W. Hanes, J. S. Scales, T. A. Wilson, M. A. Walker, J. P. Taylor, W. N. Reynolds and T. J. Brown, pallbearers, followed by Revs. R. E. Caldwell and W. S. Cressy, who immediately preceded the funeral car, followed by ten deacons of the First Presbyterian church, after which came the immediate family, relatives and friends in carriages numbering at least fifty. The organizations on foot, headed by the Winston and Salem aldermen and the Winston police and other city officers, were Confederate Veterans, Tobacco Board of Trade, Knights of Honor, Winston Fire companies, Nos. 1 and 2, Winston Hook and Ladder Company, Salem Fire Company, Salem Hose company, and the Forsyth White Man's Club, besides a large number of friends not identified with any of the above named organizations.

At the church, impressive services were conducted by the pastor, Rev. R. E. Caldwell, assisted by Revs. H. A. Brown and W. S. Cressy, who made use of the text found in II Samuel, 3rd chapter, 8th verse: "And the king said unto his servants, know ye not that there is a prince and a great man fallen this day in Israel?"

Rev. Caldwell paid a most beautiful and deserving tribute to the deceased. He likened him unto a giant oak of the forest, yet as gentle as the tenderest branch thereof.

He was a prince among men, always gentle, tender, unobtrusive, and modest. He loved the town and community, maybe others as much, but none more than he. The speaker referred to the early citizenship here of the deceased and how zealously he had labored for the upbuilding of every legitimate business enterprise of the city and how his labors have been and are now being appreciated by the people in general.

Became a member of the First Presbyterian church in 1870 and has ever since been one of its most substantial pillars, having served as deacon since 1874. The speaker referred to the strong support received from the deceased by him since the beginning of his pastoral here and how sadly it will now be missed.

He closed his sermon with strong words of consolation to the family and sorrowing friends.

The service being concluded the former funeral procession arrangement was resumed, which was met at the Salem cemetery gate entrance by the Salem Cornet Band, which played both soft and sweetly funeral dirges from there to the final resting place of the remains.

At the grave the last obsequies were conducted by Revs. Caldwell, Cressy and Bishop Roudthaler.

The church was appropriately draped in mourning and the Gorrell veil was also both heavily draped and closed.

It is estimated that at least 5,000 people joined in paying their last homage to the deceased.

The flower bearers were Colonel G. E. Webb, Mr. T. L. Vaughn, Major John G. Young, Prof. J. J. Blair, Mr. J. H. Foote, Jr., and Ex-Mayor Crutchfield.

The floral offerings were large and wreathed in many emblematical shapes.

Board of Aldermen.

The board of aldermen met in full session on this the 11th day of December, 1898. A formal notice was given by Mr. J. F. Griffith, mayor pro tempore, announcing the death of Col. Albert B. Gorrell, the mayor of the city, and on motion a committee of three was appointed, consisting of W. B. Pollard, J. B. Vaughn and C. M. Thomas, to prepare resolutions of the board expressing its sentiments of sorrow at the sudden and untimely loss of the chief magistrate of the city.

A GOOD MAN GONE

Dr. Samuel Martin Died Yesterday At His Home in This City.

FUNERAL HELD THIS AFTERNOON

Deceased Was One of the Most Prominent Dentists of this Section.

Dr. Samuel Martin was born near East Bend, Jackson county, North Carolina, Jan. 15, 1824, and died in this city at 5.15 a. m.; Dec. 11, 1898, in the seventy fifth year of his age. His parents and people were Scotch, and first settled on James river above Richmond, Va., from which place they moved to what was then Surry county, N. C. Dr. Martin was one of a large family who were all prominent in their respective neighborhoods. Three sisters, Mrs. Davis, Mrs. Welfare, and Mrs. Bohannon survive him, all of whom live at Huntsville, N. C.

Dr. Martin was educated at old Trinity under the late Dr. Craven. In his class were Rev. Zebedee Kish and the late Judge R. E. Armfield. Dr. Martin read medicine under Wilson of Bethania, N. C., and graduated at Castleton, Vt., afterward took a post graduate course at Philadelphia, Pa. After practicing for a short time he studied dentistry, graduating at Philadelphia, after which he successfully practiced his profession, for many years, being resident dentist to the Salem Female Academy. As a dentist he was acknowledged to be without a peer in this section of the state and many of the most valuable dental instruments were invented by him. As a physician he was regarded up to the time of his death as one of the best anatomists in this section of country.

In 1857 Dr. Martin was married to Miss Verilinda Miller of this city, who died the 21st day of August, 1898. To them were born five daughters and three sons. The three oldest daughters died suddenly with diphtheria during the civil war, while Dr. Martin was absent from home, having accumulated considerable property in the way of money, bonds, slaves and western lands.

Soon after the civil war he moved to Knobnoster, Mo., with the hope of saving at least part of his western property. While living in Missouri he practiced his profession and turned his attention to mechanics and made a number of inventions, some of which, notably the binders of wheat harvesters are now in general use. He was the first man who applied the roller process instead of the hydraulic pressure to the manufacture of brick and invented the brick machine which not only attracted attention in this country but in many countries.

While living in Missouri the question of discarding the Bible from the public schools was agitated all over the West and the movement was led in Missouri by Professor Johnson, superintendent of Warrentsburg normal school and at a time when he expected to consummate his purpose at a meeting of the board of regents who controlled the public school system of the state, he died at Warrentsburg, Mo., in 1876. Dr. Martin who was chairman of the board of regents present stood up amidst a vast audience and made one of the most earnest and eloquent speeches ever heard in favor of retaining the Bible, which so wrought up and enthused the audience and board of regents that Professor Johnson was removed from his position.

Afterwards the brother of the superintendent of public instruction of Illinois told the writer that Dr. Martin was largely due to the honor of retaining public schools in all the country west of the Mississippi river.

Dr. Martin was one of the best educated and best informed men in this section of the state, was kind, affectionate, a man of strong convictions and a friend who could always be relied upon.

Since the death of his wife he has resided with his daughter, Mrs. J. C. Goodman in this city. Two daughters, Mrs. Charles D. Melver, of Greensboro, N. C., and J. C. Goodman of this city, and three sons, Thomas H. Martin and Samuel H. Martin of Indian Territory and James P. Martin, of Greensboro, N. C., survive him.

In 1872 while living in Missouri Dr. Martin joined the Christian church but since his return to North Carolina in 1876, he has not connected himself with any church but has lived a consistent Christian life.

Rev. W. S. Cressy conducted the funeral services at the residence at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon, and the remains were interred in the Salem cemetery.

Acetylene Gas.
Messrs. W. T. Vogler & Son have had placed in their establishment an acetylene gas generator and all at-

A GOOD MAN GONE

Dr. Samuel Martin Died Yesterday At His Home in This City.

FUNERAL HELD THIS AFTERNOON

Deceased Was One of the Most Prominent Dentists of this Section.

Dr. Samuel Martin was born near East Bend, Jackson county, North Carolina, Jan. 15, 1824, and died in this city at 5.15 a. m.; Dec. 11, 1898, in the seventy fifth year of his age. His parents and people were Scotch, and first settled on James river above Richmond, Va., from which place they moved to what was then Surry county, N. C. Dr. Martin was one of a large family who were all prominent in their respective neighborhoods. Three sisters, Mrs. Davis, Mrs. Welfare, and Mrs. Bohannon survive him, all of whom live at Huntsville, N. C.

Dr. Martin was educated at old Trinity under the late Dr. Craven. In his class were Rev. Zebedee Kish and the late Judge R. E. Armfield. Dr. Martin read medicine under Wilson of Bethania, N. C., and graduated at Castleton, Vt., afterward took a post graduate course at Philadelphia, Pa. After practicing for a short time he studied dentistry, graduating at Philadelphia, after which he successfully practiced his profession, for many years, being resident dentist to the Salem Female Academy. As a dentist he was acknowledged to be without a peer in this section of the state and many of the most valuable dental instruments were invented by him. As a physician he was regarded up to the time of his death as one of the best anatomists in this section of country.

In 1857 Dr. Martin was married to Miss Verilinda Miller of this city, who died the 21st day of August, 1898. To them were born five daughters and three sons. The three oldest daughters died suddenly with diphtheria during the civil war, while Dr. Martin was absent from home, having accumulated considerable property in the way of money, bonds, slaves and western lands.

Soon after the civil war he moved to Knobnoster, Mo., with the hope of saving at least part of his western property. While living in Missouri he practiced his profession and turned his attention to mechanics and made a number of inventions, some of which, notably the binders of wheat harvesters are now in general use. He was the first man who applied the roller process instead of the hydraulic pressure to the manufacture of brick and invented the brick machine which not only attracted attention in this country but in many countries.

While living in Missouri the question of discarding the Bible from the public schools was agitated all over the West and the movement was led in Missouri by Professor Johnson, superintendent of Warrentsburg normal school and at a time when he expected to consummate his purpose at a meeting of the board of regents who controlled the public school system of the state, he died at Warrentsburg, Mo., in 1876. Dr. Martin who was chairman of the board of regents present stood up amidst a vast audience and made one of the most earnest and eloquent speeches ever heard in favor of retaining the Bible, which so wrought up and enthused the audience and board of regents that Professor Johnson was removed from his position.

Afterwards the brother of the superintendent of public instruction of Illinois told the writer that Dr. Martin was largely due to the honor of retaining public schools in all the country west of the Mississippi river.

Dr. Martin was one of the best educated and best informed men in this section of the state, was kind, affectionate, a man of strong convictions and a friend who could always be relied upon.

Since the death of his wife he has resided with his daughter, Mrs. J. C. Goodman in this city. Two daughters, Mrs. Charles D. Melver, of Greensboro, N. C., and J. C. Goodman of this city, and three sons, Thomas H. Martin and Samuel H. Martin of Indian Territory and James P. Martin, of Greensboro, N. C., survive him.

In 1872 while living in Missouri Dr. Martin joined the Christian church but since his return to North Carolina in 1876, he has not connected himself with any church but has lived a consistent Christian life.

Rev. W. S. Cressy conducted the funeral services at the residence at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon, and the remains were interred in the Salem cemetery.

Acetylene Gas.
Messrs. W. T. Vogler & Son have had placed in their establishment an acetylene gas generator and all at-

IMPRESSIVE SERVICES

Celebrating the 21st Anniversary of Dr. Brown's Pastorate.

The anniversary exercises at the First Baptist church yesterday marked the close of the twenty-first year of Dr. Brown's pastorate, were attended by large congregations.

The opening service was the Sunday school at 9:30 a. m. The program consisted of songs, prayer, and a short address by the beloved pastor, after which the pupils formed in line and cordially shaking his hand and wishing for him a continuance of God's kindness and blessings. At this service a collection amounting to $294.20 was gathered for the benefit of the new church.

At the opening of the 11 o'clock service, Dr. Brown read the 23rd psalm, and Rev. J. H. Clewell invoked God's blessings upon the congregation and the pastor by a strong and fervent prayer. After brief remarks made by the pastor, Bishop Roudthaler delivered a most excellent anniversary sermon from the text found in Nehemiah 4:3, "So built we the wall," etc. His line of thoughts was directed to the erection of the new church building. Referred to the grand work that had been done by Dr. Brown and said that the erection of the new building showed that the Lord had still more work for this good man.

An informal service was held at night, at which he gave some very interesting reminiscences in regard to the work of the church during his pastorate.

The total collections at all of the services amounted to $435.

A Ministerial Tea Party.
Rev. Dr. Brown gave a most elegant social party at his residence Saturday evening in celebration of his 22nd pastorate of the First Baptist church of Winston.

In addition to many of the reverend doctor's intimate church friends, an invitation was extended to every minister in the city and everyone accepted and testified by his presence the esteem in which Dr. Brown is held by those of the cloth.

A most elaborate and sumptuous dinner was served, the menu included everything that preachers dare touch or taste.

The evening was passed most delightfully, the ministers of course, loading the floor a good portion of the time. Many reminiscences and anecdotes were indulged in the prize for the best jokes being awarded Rev. Dr. Cressy, with Bishop Roudthaler a close second.

The impossibility of getting an accurate report of this occasion precludes the reporter from giving a better account of it.

SUDDEN DEATH

OF Mr. William Peterson, One of Salem's Oldest Citizens.

At 8 o'clock Sunday morning Mr. William Peterson, 87, aged 81 years, died suddenly of heart disease at his home in Salem.

The deceased was one of Salem's oldest citizens. For many years he was the senior member of the firm of William and Edward Peterson, cabinet makers and undertakers, but retired a few years ago and the business was continued by his brother. The deceased always took an active part in music, being a member of the first band of his town. He is remembered as an aviculturist, and his garden was a model one.

Two children, William and Samuel, and an aged sister and brother, Miss Theresa and Edward, survive him. Bishop Roudthaler, his pastor, conducted the funeral services at 3 o'clock this afternoon at the residence and the remains were laid to rest in the Moravian graveyard. The services were attended by a large concourse of warm friends.

Rev. A. McLees Will Leave.
I will leave tomorrow for Lincoln to attend conference. My congregation made me a present of a suit of clothes, overcoat, beaver, and shoes. The church raised over $1,000 this year for the various purposes. The pastor's salary and communion silver set, and church clock.

The pastor had an overflowing congregation last night to hear his farewell sermon. The congregation is more than pleased with this year's administration and unanimously ask for the pastor's return.

The pastor will give tonight a lecture entitled an "Old Man Cannot." All ministers are especially invited.

Thanks.
Our hearts go out in love and gratitude to the people of Winston-Salem, for their kindness to our family, in the hour of our bereavement and sorrow. We are grateful to the people of our beloved city for the loyalty and respect to our father, and we sincerely thank the citizens of both towns, for their expressions of sympathy, in so many ways yesterday.

May He, who doeth all things well, bless and prosper our people, for that was the daily prayer of him, who was tenderly laid to rest yesterday by his people.
R. W. GORRELL,
For the Family.

CHRISTMAS 1898.

You are cordially invited to call and see my beautiful stock of Holiday Goods. We will take pleasure in showing them to you, whether you wish to buy or not. My prices are right and I have received about all of my stock. Come early before the stock is picked over.

FRED N. DAY JEWELER.
Corner Main and Third Streets.

JOB LOT OF MEN'S SHOES

33 1-3 to 50 Per Cent Off
Our Regular Prices.

Another Lot WOMEN'S SHOES at $1.48. These shoes will go quick. Lot of Boys' and Ladies' Shoes cheaper than they can be had at other places for same goods.

Clothing

We have bought a big drive in this line. If you want a first class suit cheaper than you have seen them, come to us.

L. E. DARDEN,
No. 7 4th Street.

High Quality

In your flour for your Christmas baking is necessary to make your pastry, cakes, etc., what the housewife most desires for her Christmas dinner. We have everything in the line of table delicacies, raisins, nuts, olives, fruits, spices, &c., that will make your plum pudding and your Christmas feast a success.

H. A. Giersh
Main Street, SALEM, N. C.

FOR SALE.

SOUTHSIDE REAL ESTATE.
Desirable residence, 2 story, 7 room with stable, within one block of street cars, at low price and easy terms. Biggest bargain in centrally located lot, in residence section, on car line, ever offered to a quick buyer.
Opportunities to please: safe loans; first mortgage on improved and unimproved real estate. Phone, Interstate, 154 and 264, or call upon
ELLIOTT WARREN,
Piedmont Farm Exchange,
Rooms 3 and 4, Lenoxy Block, city.