LIKE THEIR AD.

Schloss Bros. & Co., of Baltimore, Give Our Paper Highest Praise for Setting Attractively Displayed Advertisements.

On yesterday we received the following complimentary letter from Schloss Bros. & Co., the biggest clothing manufacturers, of Baltimore, whose line is handled here by the Cannon & Fetzer Co.:

Concord, N. C.
Gentlemen:—We wish to congratulate you upon the splendid ad for the Cannon & Fetzer Co. in the issue of your paper of recent date, copy of which we herewith enclose. Of the thousands of papers that we receive each week none of them show more beautiful in display than those you set up for the Cannon & Fetzer Co.

If you have any extra copies of this paper we can use nine thousand (9,000) of them. We use them over our mailing list, from which The Tribune might also derive some benefit.

If you can furnish this page printed on both sides with the name of paper and date line at top, we will be glad to buy these papers from you, and will be glad to have you let us know by return mail whether or not you can furnish them.

With best wishes, we are,
Yours very truly,
SCHLOSS BROS. & CO.

Dr. Rush Shull's Success.

Charlotte Observer.

The many friends in this section of Dr. J. Rush Shull, of Shelby, will be interested to know of his success in Philadelphia. Dr. Shull will be graduated from the University of Pennsylvania in June. A few days ago he received a decided compliment in his election to the position of resident physician at St. Agnes hospital, one of the most desirable of such positions. He took a competitive examination with 36 other applicants, being chosen over all the others. He also stood a similar examination at the Allegheny general hospital at Pittsburgh, Pa., and received that appointment also. He goes to Pittsburgh August 1. Dr. Shull was a student at the State University at Chapel Hill before going to Philadelphia. He is a young man of much promise.

Says Have Had no Floods in Texas.

Editor Tribune:—In your paper dated the 14th of April, I see a short sketch about floods in Texas and rivers out of banks. I could not help laughing just a little bit when I read it, for I have been out here since the first of the year and I have failed to see any of those rains since I have been out here. The river is overflowing here today but it is sand and dirt and we call them west Texas showers out here.

Respectfully,
N. B. T.
Wichita Falls, Texas, April 21, 1910.

Sixty Acres of Corn in One Row.

H. H. Parks, president of the Big Pasture Settlers' Association of Grandfield, Ok., has one row of corn that covers sixty acres. It is circular and resembles a clock spring ending in the center of the field. Thirty years ago he adopted this system of farming and assigns reasons for it. First, it prevents erosion, and, second, it is time saved. Mr. Parks will put in another row of cotton soon covering forty acres.

Entertainment Postponed.

The musical entertainment at the Cannonville Presbyterian church, which was to be given tonight has been postponed on account of the weather.

We are glad to note that the condition of Rev. T. A. Boone, who had a severe attack of asthma at Mt. Gilead, some days ago, is now much improved.

Mr. Emmett Cruse, of Salisbury, spent yesterday in the city.

OFF TO THE GULF.

Professor Ingram Starts for the Magnolia Trees.

Sunday night Professor Ingram left for the Gulf ports, via the Seaboard Air Line. He will visit Atlanta, Birmingham, Montgomery, Mobile and New Orleans, and arouse an interest in his Cotton Experiment Station proposition. His last article on the subject appeared in the April issue of Cotton, a textile magazine published at Atlanta. He decided to carry the matter into the heart of the cotton producing country, and endeavor to get the lint growers in the different cotton yielding States to instruct their Congressmen at Washington to support the measure, and advocate the establishment by the National government of such an institution, under the auspices of the Federal Agricultural Department.

The Professor also expects to drop in at the Confederate Veterans Reunion at Mobile, and deliver a course of lectures in Florida on his return through Florida.

Forest Hill News.

Mr. J. S. Joyner spent Sunday in Salisbury.

Messrs. C. W. Wright and John Stratford, of Kannapolis, spent Saturday and Sunday in the city with relatives.

Mrs. M. A. Gay, of Charlotte, is spending a few days in Concord with her daughter, Mr. D. W. McLemore, who is very sick.

Mr. W. B. Bruton and family spent a few hours in Kannapolis yesterday.

Mr. M. A. Goldston, who has been working in Charlotte for several months, has accepted work here and will now make this his home.

Mr. D. W. McLemore spent a few hours in Charlotte last Saturday.

Miss Cordie Bruton, of Kannapolis, spent Saturday and Sunday in the city with home folks.

Rev. D. F. Helms and family are spending a few days in Charlotte.

Miss Minnie Linker, of Mt. Pleasant, spent a few days in the city last week with Miss Hallie Calloway.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fowler spent Sunday in Salisbury with friends.

Mr. Geo. Fisher has moved his house to Church street and is now having it remodeled. He will begin work on his new home on Union street at an early date.

Mr. Will Rogers arrived in the city last week from Clifton, Ga., and will spend some time visiting his brother, Mr. Alonzo Rogers. It has been nearly eight years since Mr. Rogers last visited here.

Mrs. D. M. Little is spending a few days in Salisbury with her husband.

Young Southerner's Oratory a Startling Novelty.

In what is declared the supreme effort in oratory in Pawling School, at Pawling, N. Y., a declamation that stirred his Northern hearers as they had never been stirred by Northern eloquence, Thomas Dixon, Jr., son of the famous Southern author, won the first prize for oratory in an unprecedented manner last week. His subject was a condensed version of Charles Gaston's speech before the Democratic convention, taken from "The Leopard's Spots," and some sentences from "The Clansman." Young Dixon is 18 years of age. His speech was a startling novelty to a Yankee audience and swept the judges off their feet. Dixon threw himself into it with fire and passion and his Northern judges forgot to grade him on the technical points of oratory. When he sat down in a whirlwind of applause they had not made a mark. They just gave him a hundred, awarded the medal without discussion and devoted their time to figuring out the fellow who was entitled to the second prize.

Motorman Killed and Conductor Shot in Back.

At the end of the Druid Hills street car line, a lonely spot in the outlying section of one of Atlanta's residential suburbs, three negro highwaymen Saturday night shot and killed Motorman S. T. Brown and after robbing Conductor W. H. Bryson of $35, fatally shot him in the back and made their escape into the nearby woods.

Twenty minutes later the crime was discovered and Atlanta's entire police reserve was rushed to the scene.

There were no passengers on the car. The car had just reached the end of the line and the motorman was reversing his trolley when the attack came from the negroes, who had concealed themselves behind a clump of bushes.

There is an interesting rumor afloat, says the Chronicle, to the effect that Mr. Paul Chestnut will have an elegant hotel erected on the Bynum property on West Trade street, in Charlotte, which he recently purchased for $3,000 and that Mr. J. E. Kavanaugh, of Winston-Salem, will take charge of the hotel and manage it.

UNVEILING OF MONUMENTS TO DECEASED WOODMEN.

Appropriate Exercises Held Yesterday in Memory of Dead Members of this Order.

The unveiling of the monuments of the deceased sovereigns of the Elm Camp W. O. W. was held yesterday afternoon at Elmwood cemetery. Monuments were unveiled to the following deceased sovereigns: W. P. White, J. B. Caldwell, H. M. Barrow and W. A. Caldwell. After the impressive exercises were concluded a most fitting and appropriate address was delivered by Mr. J. C. Fink. One hundred and thirty members of the Camp met at the lodge room and marched from there to the cemetery, many of them carrying large bouquets of flowers to be placed upon the graves of their departed brothers as a tribute of love and respect to the memory of the departed sovereigns. Hundreds of visitors were also present to witness the impressive ceremonies and to pay their respects to this band of men in their noble endeavor toward keeping alive and perpetuating the memory of their departed brothers.

Arrangements are being made by Elm Camp with the camp at Gaffney, S. C., to hold the unveiling exercises at the monument of the late H. L. Parks, who is buried in that city.

The Chronicle's Marathon Race.

The Marathon race from Newells to Charlotte, gotten up by the Charlotte Chronicle which took place last Saturday, created more interest in Charlotte and vicinity than anything which has occurred there lately. The distance was 81-3 miles, and the winner, Emory P. Enzor, made it in 56 minutes and 8 seconds. The second was Archie Templeton, who covered the distance in 57 minutes and 53 seconds. There were 13 runners in all, and the time taken by the slowest one was 76 minutes and 38 seconds.

Enzor, the winner of the first prize, is quite an experienced runner. Last year he won the inter-city race between Washington and Baltimore, a distance of 26 miles. Enzor, however, is purely an amateur and hence entirely eligible to this race. He is book-keeper for Swift & Co.

Concord a Well Lighted City.

The electrical arch at the Allison corner has been completed. This makes four of these arches on Union street, each of them containing 44 lights of 666 candle power. With these four arches and the 3000 candle power flaming arc light at the square, burning regularly, which superintendent Fisher, of the electric light department, states will be done, the business section of Concord will be the best lighted of any in the State. It will be impossible to go anywhere in the main section of the city without being directly under the effulgent rays of some powerful electric light. The city will pay the expense of these extra lights.

Tuberculosis Sunday.

Three of the ministers of the city on yesterday preached sermons on tuberculosis or sanitation and health, in response to a request from the State Board of Health and the National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis. In the pulpits all over the United States of all denominations sermons were preached to aid in the fight on tuberculosis. In every church of Washington clergymen and laymen both spoke in support of this great battle. This is another milestone in the campaign that is being waged against the great white plague.

Real Estate Transfers.

Mr. H. P. Deaton has sold his house and lot and other real estate in Fairview. Prof. J. W. B. Long purchased the residence and lot. Mr. W. L. Bell purchased the lot in the rear of the residence and Mr. James C. Wilford purchased the lot in the rear of his home.

Mr. E. J. Braswell has purchased the handsome residence of Mr. W. R. Harris on North Union street.

Mr. Claude Ramsaur has purchased the residence of Mr. Jno. M. Craven at the corner of Spring street and Franklin avenue.

Pleading guilty to the robbery of the Richmond postoffice on the night of March 27, when $5,000 was taken, Eddie Fay and "Little Dick" Harris were Friday sentenced to ten years in the Atlanta penitentiary and fined $5,000 each.

Miss Rosa Lee Smith, of Mt. Pleasant, spent yesterday in the city, the guest of Mrs. R. L. Dick.

Mr. E. C. Lentz, of Denton, N. C., spent Saturday night in the city on business.

Miss Marjorie Ritch, of Salisbury, spent yesterday in the city, the guest of Miss Oza May Murr.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. G. Robinson, spent yesterday in China Grove.

COLLECTOR BROWN WILL PUT UP FIGHT.

Bids Defiance to Cowles and Duncan—More Secret Methods.

Mr. Thos. J. Pence, Washington correspondent of the Raleigh News and Observer, sends the following interesting stuff to that paper of Saturday:

George H. Brown will not relinquish his job as collector for internal revenue for the Western North Carolina district without a fight, notwithstanding the fact that the Republican bosses in the State have arranged with President Taft for his retirement to private life. Mr. Brown is game, and has bid defiance to Congressman Cowles and National Committeeman Duncan, who made the recommendation that resulted in the appointment of Henry Reynolds, of Wilkes, by the President. Today Senators Simmons and Overman received letters from the collector asking that the appointment be held up until he can present his case at the White House. Mr. Brown complained that he had been denied a hearing by Congressman Cowles, and he also takes offense at the secret methods that were used to bring about his removal. Of course, the North Carolina senators will see that Mr. Brown is given a hearing, and his request that the nomination be held up went into effect today. The nomination will not be acted upon for some days.

Congressman Cowles is not having the most restful sort of days. He is threatened with defeat for renomination by Frank Linney, according to report here. While Collector Brown is not strong politically, he has a son-in-law who is a big Ike in Republican politics in the Eighth district. Reference is made to Clint Wagner. Today Congressman Cowles telegraphed for Wagner to come to Washington. It is said that Cowles is alarmed as the result of the protest resulting from the decapitation of Collector Brown, and has determined to make peace with the family by offering Wagner the postoffice at Statesville. The job is held by J. W. C. Long, who can also cause trouble if put to the test.

There is a story here to the effect that while Cowles is trying for a renomination, he is without hope and anticipating defeat, he has arranged to grab the collectorship for his own immediate use. According to this report Reynolds is only to serve a few months after the retirement of Brown, and that the appointment of Cowles will be announced along about the fourth of March next, when he will be out of a job.

Assault With Deadly Weapon.

Garfield Pless, colored, was tried in the Recorder's court this morning charged with an assault with a deadly weapon upon Britton Hall, a member of his own race, Saturday night. The two negroes were over in Smith's grove about 11 o'clock and a dispute arose between them. Pless attacked Hall with a rock and a knife, hammering his head in many places with the rock, besides giving him a number of severe gashes with the knife. Pless was fined $30 or sentenced to ninety days on the road. He was given until tomorrow morning to raise the amount of his fine.

Bingham vs. Collegiate Institute.

The baseball team of Bingham School, of Mebane, spent Saturday night in the city and left yesterday afternoon for Mt. Pleasant, where they have a game scheduled with Mt. Pleasant Collegiate Institute today. The team is composed of the following young men: Jones, Taylor, Joseph, Floyd, Haekney, Belue, Maxwell, Doak and Sharp. The team is accompanied by Coach D. B. Privett, who has charge of the men on the men on the trip.

STATE NEWS.

The final hearing in the Whitney case will take place before Special Master A. H. Price and in Salisbury on Thursday, April 28. Immediately the final decree of sale will be framed and submitted to United States Circuit Judge Pritchard and the sale of these great properties will take place on or about June 15.

The trial of F. C. Watkins, charged with killing John Hill Bunting at the Gladstone hotel, Black Mountain, last summer, is set for trial in Buncombe Superior Court Monday, May 2. When the case first came up in court there was a mistrial and the second time it was called it was continued on account of the illness of an important witness.

Chairman Adams, of the Republican State executive committee has issued a call for a meeting of the Republican State executive committee at Greensboro May 27 to fix the time and place for holding the State convention to nominate candidates for State officers, to select a State chairman and transact such other party business as may be necessary.

Mr. James Hess, while clipping the tail of a mule late Friday afternoon, at Foreman's Salisbury, wa. State Library lower abdo-

Mr. Hess was so severely injured that the ambulance was called out and he was taken to the Whitehead-Stokes sanatorium for treatment. It is not thought, however, that his injuries will prove serious.

J. A. Hawkins, formerly foreman of the Southern roundhouse at Spencer, who was reported murdered at a small station in Florida two weeks ago, has turned up alive. It develops that the reported murder was all a fake story started by unknown parties to excite the friends of the railroad who is well known at all the shops on the Southern system from Lynchburg, Va., to Selma, Ala.

Solomon Shepard, the desperate negro convict serving 30 years for the murder of Engineer Holt, of the Southern Railway, at Durham, made a murderous assault on Lewis Harris, a fellow-convict in the barber shop of the penitentiary Saturday afternoon, cutting Harris' throat almost from ear to ear and barely missing the jugular vein. Only the fact that a guard leaped from the top of a nearby cell and felled him with his billet prevented murder.
