THE RECEPTION YESTERDAY.

The Virginia Dare Book Club at Home to Many Delighted Guests.

The home of Mrs. J. L. Hartsell, on North Spring street, was the scene of one of the prettiest and most delightful social affairs of the season on Wednesday afternoon, when, from four to six, the members of the Virginia Dare Book Club entertained with Mrs. W. R. Harris as guest of honor. This reception was given as a farewell tribute to Mrs. Harris, who has been secretary of the club since its organization, (with the exception of a few months) and who will leave in a few weeks for her new home in Asheville.

This beautiful home, which seems especially fashioned for such an occasion, was made more attractive by the tasteful arrangement of the many flowers used in the decoration.

In the hall were seen vases of the beautiful nasturtiums and here the guests were greeted by Mesdames R. E. Ridenhour and J. M. Cook and were ushered into the parlor, where they were welcomed by the receiving party consisting of Mrs. J. L. Hartsell, Mrs. W. R. Harris, Mrs. W. D. Pemberton and Mrs. R. A. Brown. Exquisite pink roses formed the decoration here and were most pleasing and effective.

Under the guidance of Mrs. J. B. Sherrill the guests were conducted into the dining room, where they were served cream, strawberries, cake and stuffed dates by Mrs. J. E. Smoot, Mrs. M. B. Stickle, Misses Maude and Grace Brown. The room was exquisite in every detail, the table having for a centerpiece a basket filled with sweet peas, which was placed upon a square mirror, bordered with this dainty flower. From the chandelier to the four corners of the table were ribbons of tulle festooned with jasmine, while four tall crystal candelabras were effectively arranged here and there.

From the dining room Mrs. Geo. H. Rutledge led the way into the library where punch was served by Mrs. H. M. Propst, Miss Josephine Smith and Miss Anna Douglass Sherrill. This room was especially lovely in its decoration of old field daisies, so beautiful in their colors of gold and white, and pink fringed gentians.

This occasion will live long in the memory of all who were present.

Cabarrus County Democratic Convention.

At a meeting of the Democratic Executive Committee of Cabarrus County, held on the 16th day of April, 1910, it was ordered that the primaries be held on Saturday, June 25th, 1910, at 3 o'clock p. m.; in all townships except No. 12, and in respective wards of No. 12 township at 8 o'clock p. m.

It was further ordered that the County Democratic Convention be held in Concord on Saturday, July 2nd, 1910, at 1 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of electing delegates to the Judicial, Congressional and State Conventions, and for the purpose of nominating candidates for the Legislatures and the various County offices.

JNO. L. MILLER, Chairman.
Cabarrus County Democratic Executive Committee.

Young Nero Won Bout.

Young Nero, of Washington, is now the champion lightweight wrestler of America, having won the honors in an interesting bout in Salisbury last Monday night from Young Beel, of Atlanta, who has won the same for two years or more. The match, which was the first ever witnessed in Salisbury, was artistic from start to finish, and the young Swede, who is exceptionally agile and powerfully muscled, was overpowered by the superior weight of the sturdy German, who was some 40 pounds heavier. The first fall under the rules of catch as catch can was won by Nero in 15 minutes, and the second in 12 minutes. The work of both men was exceptionally fine.

Ignore Rockefeller Money.

Not one cent of the Rockefeller million dollars for the investigation of the hookworm will be spent in Texas. State Health Officer Brumby announced Tuesday that the Rockefeller Hookworm Committee will do no work in Texas.

When asked for the reason Dr. Brumby said: "There are several hitches we don't care to discuss. Suffice it to say there will be no hookworm investigation. I saw impossible worm investigation. It was impossible for the State Board of Health and the Hookworm Committee to get together."

All the Fools Not Dead.

A movement has been started in Vance county to organize antiprobibition, or local option clubs, and the men behind it declare that if the nominee of the convention doesn't pledge himself to work for the repeal of the prohibition law, he will be defeated, and a local optionist sent to the legislature.

Champ Clark is Confident.

"I would rather be speaker of the House for two years than be United States senator for 18 years," said Champ Clark, the democratic house leader.

"Of course, there is nothing certain but death and taxes; but the democrats will control the next House as sure as you are living, and I think I have a good show for the speakership," he went on. Mr. Clark thus disposed of a report that he would be a candidate for the Senate to succeed Senator Warner, republican.

Continuing, Mr. Clark said: "Speaker Cannon will be the republican nominee for speaker next time. It is too early to predict majorities."

Dr. Chreitsberg Uses a Little Soft Soap.

When Dr. Chreitsberg arose to begin his sermon Sunday morning just after a finely rendered selection by the choir, he said:

"I want to say here that on last Sunday I had the pleasure of worshipping in one of the fashionable churches of Boston, the city famous for literature, music and culture, and I heard no such soul thrilling, life giving music as we have right here in Monroe."

KANNAPOLIS NEWS.

Latest Happenings in the Hustling Town North of Us.

Last Friday night the Kannapolis string band went out in the country to Mr. Yates' and played. A number of young ladies, accompanied by their escorts went long and all report a good time. Mr. R. E. Moore also contributed to the entertainment of the company by his mimical singing and playing on the organ, which was enjoyed by all present. The string band has not been organized long, but is improving and will no doubt grow under the leadership of Mr. J. A. Speak.

Kannapolis will soon have a baseball league of her own. The Cannon weave room team was organized Monday night at the Y. M. C. A. and the Patterson mill boys and the bleachers boys each expect to organize, and the fourth team will be organized a little later. We hope to see good clean sport this summer, as the boys are subscribing to the principles of the "Clean Sports League of the Carolinas" which among other things prohibits the use of profane language on the field. Mr. Robt. Hatch, secretary of the Y. M. C. A. here, does all he can to provide good clean, healthful sports here, and the organization of the league is due to his efforts.

There was an ice cream supper in the Patterson mill grove Saturday evening, given under the auspices of the string band, at the close of which there was a voting contest for the prettiest girl present. Quite a number of young ladies' names were voted on but the contest finally narrowed down to two young ladies, Misses Pansy Reece and Maud Richardson, resulting in a victory for Miss Richardson, and as each vote represented five cents the proceeds amounted to $13.35 and the cake became the property of the victorious young lady. Miss Beulah Demarcus got the prize for selling the most cream, the prize being a nice pair of vases.

The noblest thing in town is Mr. Parks Lafferty's new automobile which is admired by all who see it.

Rev. J. Walter Simpson preached to a very appreciative audience here Sunday morning. Mr. Willie Haithcock came over with Mr. Simpson.

There will be special services in the Y. M. C. A. hall Sunday evening at 8 o'clock. Rev. J. A. J. Farrington will preach to the Jr. O. U. A. M. Everybody is invited to attend.

Mr. B. W. Durham, of the clerical force of White-Morrison-Flowe Co., is visiting in Raleigh this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Service, of Bessemer City, are visiting Mrs. Service's sister, Mrs. Marvin Hasting, this week. Miss Lula Shimpoek, of Mooresville, was a visitor at Mr. J. M. Richardson's Sunday.

Mr. J. N. Parker, whom we mentioned as being on the sick list last week, is still confined to his home but we hope to see him out again in a short while.

Little Inez Ballard, who lives with her mother on Juniper street, will be taken to the hospital in Salisbury in a day or two to undergo an operation for tonsillitis.

The amateur gardeners are beginning to eat their own vegetables. The first we have heard of getting beans of their own raising are Mr. H. G. Price, who had them yesterday and Mr. R. L. Phillips, who is eating beans today.

Davidson Fund is Complete.

The $300,000 endowment for Davidson college is no longer a cherished desire, but an actual reality. From the general education board the college is to receive $75,000, provided the sum of $225,000 is raised by the college and its friends. Of this amount $30,000 was apportioned to Charlotte, and up until Wednesday $25,000 had been secured. The remaining amount was guaranteed yesterday afternoon and last night. The time limit for raising the money expired last night.

A mass meeting was held at the Second Presbyterian church and a committee appointed to visit Charlotte people and raise the amount lacking. The committee held a meeting at 1:30 and reported that the money would be more than raised before the time limit expired. And their calculations were correct.

Lexington Dispatch: Mrs. W. H. Hiller and children have been spending several days with Mrs. C. W. Trice, her aunt, and her uncle, Mr. Henry L. Propst. Rev. Mr. Hiller, who is pastor of several churches in Columbia, S. C., arrived Saturday night and Sunday night filled the pulpit at the Lutheran church here delivering a sermon that has been highly spoken of. He returned yesterday.

Mr. J. P. McNeil has resigned his position as superintendent of the Brander mill to accept a similar position at the Locke Mill. Mr. J. E. Wright has been made assistant superintendent of the same mill. These men have already assumed the duties of their new positions.

Mrs. W. M. Gordon left this morning for Hamlet to visit for some time.

TWENTY-FIFTH ANNIVERSARY.

Reception This Evening by the Woman's Missionary Society of St. James Lutheran Church.

Two hundred and fifty invitations reading as follows have been issued in the city:

College Boys at Work for the Summer.

A car load of college boys left last week from North Carolina and East Tennessee for Indiana, Illinois and Missouri, to represent The Home Educational Company, of this city. In this number of boys were college men who won high honors in scholarship at their various colleges during the past year and were also leaders in the different spheres of college life. President Umberger, of the company, says that he has every reason to believe that these young men will land $50,000.00 worth of business during the summer months.

Selling Some Strawberries.

Mr. Star Johnson, of No. 2 township, one of Cabarrus county's most progressive farmers, was in the city at an early hour this morning making deliveries of his famous strawberries. Mr. Johnson has been growing strawberries for several years and has a large number of customers here who are always ready to buy his berries. Mr. Johnson stated that he had sold 100 crates of berries this season from an acre and a quarter of ground. The berries sell for $3.00 a crate making $300.00 dollars Mr. Johnson has derived from this small acreage of ground.

Farmers' Union Saturday.

Dr. H. Q. Alexander, president of the State Farmers' Union, and Mr. J. Z. Green, State organizer and lecturer, will attend the meeting of the Cabarrus County Division of the Farmers' Union to be held in Concord next Saturday, June 4. Both these gentlemen are well and favorably known here, and it is hoped the Union will have a good attendance out to hear them.

The young people of Westford church, near the Young-Hartsell mill, will give a play, "Parson Poor's Donation," Saturday night for the benefit of the church. The public is cordially invited.

Shall we Rejoice

Gladness comes with a better understanding of the transient nature of the many physical ills which vanish before proper efforts—gentle efforts—pleasant efforts—rightly directed and assisted by the pleasant laxative remedy Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna. Its beneficial effects are due to the fact that it is the one remedy which promotes internal cleanliness without debilitating the organs on which it acts. To get its beneficial effects always buy the genuine manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co.
