LOCAL AND OTHERWISE.

Mr. J. F. Newell, of Charlotte, is a Concord visitor today.

Mr. Jno. Propst is visiting his daughter, Mrs. J. D. Chambers, in No. 3 township.

Prof. A. S. Webb tells us that he had home-raised tomatoes for breakfast this morning.

The Ladies Aid Society of Epworth church will give a lawn party in Wagner's grove next Saturday night.

Prof. J. O. Barnhardt, son of Mr. J. R. Barnhardt, of No. 8, has been elected principal of the Arendia High School, in Davidson county.

There will be a dime concert tonight in the old chapel opposite the Forest Hill Methodist church, given by the Ladies Aid Society of the Church. An interesting program has been arranged.

A very heavy rain fell here yesterday afternoon, but it seems that it was not general. Just above the city it was heaviest, while at Cook's store and vicinity barely enough fell to lay the dust, and at Glass there was another downpour.

Mr. A. P. Williams, who has been working here at the Cannon Mill for several years has resigned his position here and accepted a position with the Highland Park Mill in Charlotte. Mr. Williams' family left this morning for their new home.

You may forget to list your taxes, but the list taker will not forget that it was not general. Just above the city it was heaviest, while at Cook's store and vicinity barely enough fell to lay the dust, and at Glass there was another downpour.

Master Randall Harris, the live and energetic young fellow, who sells the Saturday Evening Post, has received another cash prize of $2.00 for leading the sales in North Carolina during the past month. This prize makes a total of $14.00 prize money he has won since he began selling the Post.

Mr. S. A. Schloss, who leases the Concord opera house, is now arranging for next season's attractions. He will also attend a meeting of the Klaw-Erlanger combination which at present is in a big mix up as to theatrical trusts, etc. The opera house, with Mr. Schloss as lessee, is in the Klaw-Erlanger Syndicate.

Mrs. H. M. Barrow, who left here early last Sunday morning with the body of her father, Mr. J. J. Garrett, was delayed by a wreck near Raleigh. She missed the connection at Selma, and had to go to Goldsboro and stay all night. She reached Rocky Mount with the body Monday, and the body was interred near there that afternoon.

Mr. J. S. Stroud, of Apex, has accepted a position at the Locke Cotton mill and arrived in the city yesterday afternoon to begin his new work. Mr. Stroud graduated at the A. & M. College in the class of 1909 and spent last year there taking a special course in the textile department. While in college Mr. Stroud made quite a reputation as an athlete as A. & M.'s star fullback on the football team.

NO. 7 TOWNSHIP.
Mr. Frank Wagoner is having a dwelling erected for himself. That is not a very good sign.

Mrs. Bessie Hurlocker spent Sunday with her brother, Mr. Geo. Isenhour, of Misenheimer Springs.

Quite a number of young gentlemen of No. 7 spent Sunday at Misenheimer Springs, Stanly county.

Mr. W. D. Melchor was in Mt. Pleasant Sunday.

Misses Agnes Plyler and Exa. Barringer, of Western Stanly, spent Sunday with Miss Lucy Culp.

Mr. M. J. Misenheimer left Saturday on a business trip to Tampa, Fla., and also Port Tampa. He will spend some time before returning home.

Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Honeycutt spent Sunday with Mrs. Honeycutt's grandmother, Mrs. Reid Misenheimer.

Some of the farmers have been making good time with their harvesters. They run them all day and till 10 o'clock at night.

With best wishes to The Concord Times and the editor. U. N. I. X.

Two Mighty Attractive Things About BROWNS-CANNON CO. CLOTHES.

The first is the price.

You get an exquisitely tailored product at a reasonable self-respecting price.

The next attractive thing is the suit itself. Its style, drape and hang and exclusiveness of design are there in every line.

These qualities discriminate Browns-Cannon Co. Clothes wearers from the crowd.

We are selling for these warm days a Blue Serge Coat and Pants for the special price of $18.50. It's a peach. Come in and try it on, you do not have to buy. Others at $15.00 and up.
