JOHN M. OGLESBY, City Editor.
CONCORD, N. C., JUNE 30, 1910

While the hat, coat and shirt of the masses are taxed almost 71 per cent. to build $11,000,000 battleships and keep an extravagant government in spending money, Messrs. Rockefeller, Morgan et al., are not asked by the federal government to pay any tax whatever on their swollen fortunes. Wealth escapes hearing its just share of the burden of taxation because of the absence of a federal income or inheritance tax, such as was long ago adopted by Great Britain, Germany, France, Japan, Holland, Austria, Denmark, Switzerland, Australia and New Zealand. A majority of both branches of Congress were in favor of tacking an income tax clause to the new tariff law. Such legislation would now be upon the statute books had not President Taft and Senator Aldrich defeated the object by substituting a corporation tax. That the necessary three-fourths of the state legislatures will not vote to amend the constitution is now practically certain, which means that an income tax can only be secured at the hands of a Democratic administration.

It is estimated that in 1908 the cost of living was nearly 12 per cent higher than it would have been without a tariff. Hence, calculating that the average family consumed $941 worth of supplies per annum, its increased payment on account of the tariff was $111. Of this $111, $16.50 went to the government in collections, and $94.50 went to the trusts in higher prices. Of this $94.50, $9.25 was on woollens, more than $17 on other clothing, $6.25 on furniture, $4.25 on beef and mutton and pork, $10.25 on building materials and so on. In 1910, the cost of living being 15 per cent higher than it was in 1908, the average family pays $1080, of which 10 per cent, or $108 is tribute to the trusts and other protected industries.

The Cade Type-Setting Machine.

Shelby Aurora.
Mr. Quinn, of Shelby, told the brethren at Wrightsville, somewhat of the progress being made on the turning out of Baylus Cade's typesetting machine. It is being constructed from a model in a Philadelphia factory under the personal supervision of the inventor. The Chronicle has not lost faith in it. The fact that Mr. Cade has found a factory willing to construct his machine argues that it is a workable proposition. If the Cade machine turns out according to expectations, it is going to be a great thing, not only for the small papers of the country but for the big dailies of two cities.—Charlotte Chronicle.
Mr. Cade has recently returned from Philadelphia, where he has been directing work on his printing machine. He is unable to state definitely when the machine will be ready for exhibition but he thinks it will not be more than a very few months at most. He says the construction of the machine is entirely satisfactory to him, it having gone far enough to enable him and mechanical experts to know that it will certainly do all that he has ever claimed for it. After its exhibition in Philadelphia, Mr. Cade intends to bring the machine to Shelby to be used on one of the papers here. We are glad the success of the machine is now assured.

AN APPEAL TO PARENTS.

Mr. J. P. Cook's Timely Message at the Press Convention.

Christian Sun.
Down at the Press Association at Wrightsville Beach week before last there was a man who dared to speak to the supposedly indifferent quill-drivers from the depths of his great heart. He was talking on his favorite theme, "The Child." And, brother, believe me, it was an utterance. Put it down now that all the great sermons are not preached from the pulpit. J. P. Cook, a layman, a business man, evermore delivered a truly great sermon to the North Carolina editors in this year of grace A. D. 1910, June 9th thereof. Because Bro. Cook is a layman and not accustomed to the platform, a nervousness that he could not conquer shook and twitched his manly frame, but, in very truth, that same nervousness served only to mellow and make more tender and more appealing a voice already tremulous with deep emotion, burdened in fact with a great heart's message. Cook is chairman of the board of trustees of the Jackson Training School at Concord, our North Carolina Reformatory for youthful criminals, if you wish to know, and he was speaking of the causes that filled institutions like his. "During the past year," the speaker declared, "I have kept a record of thirty-one towns I have visited and whose principal streets I have traversed between the hours of eleven and twelve at night. By actual count I have found on these streets at this late hour from eight to fifty-two boys under sixteen years of age. What can the parents in our towns be thinking of to let their boys of twelve and fourteen years old be found on the streets, with no errand on earth to carry them there, away in the deep hours of the night? Of the boys in the Jackson Training School, nineteen-twentytwo are from the towns, although the towns represent only eighteen per cent. of the State's population."

"Brethren of the press," the speaker continued, in pathetic and eloquent preacher-manner, "I am not a pessimist—I am an optimist. I have only brought you the message from the life I have come in contact with and studied for two years. We have sixty boys; had the room been available we would now have three hundred—and these boys are with us because the agencies of parental function have not done full duty." The speaker declared that parents were derelict in their duty of exercising parental authority, often losing all control of the child, and left him to do as he pleased, ere he was twelve years old. "The greatest agencies for the proper rearing of children are the home and parental discipline." And this discipline is sadly lacking in very many instances. Hence the youthful criminal. Hence the mother's broken heart over her wayward boy. Hence the three hundred applications for admittance of bad and unmanageable boys to the Jackson Training School.

Bro. Cook, as he is doing, gratis, and, we understand, at actual personal expense, a great work for the wayward and the erring, did in public speech make a mighty appeal to the brethren of the press to help in the great work of putting the blame of the fallen child upon the ones who deserve the blame, and who alone can correct the evil, namely, the over-indulgent, the careless, the unconcerned parents of the child, the ones who alone have it within their power to keep the child from falling.

Times Have Changed.

Charity and Children.
When the hot weather did hit us, it hit us hard, and the trains are crowded with people running to the shade who in their younger days were glad to find shelter under a persimmon tree. But the times have changed and our folks have made money and have also learned how to spend it.

NOVEL MASSAGE CREAM.

Perfect Skin Food That Removes Wrinkles and Clears Complexion.

The most delicate skin will quickly respond to the soothing and tonic effect of Hokara, and when this pure skin food is used, pimples are soon a thing of the past.
As a massage cream or after shaving it is unequalled, removing all irritations, and making the skin soft and velvety.
Apply a little to the hands or face after washing and surprise yourself with the dead skin that comes off.
Hokara is the only massage cream that is an antiseptic, and pimples, eczema, and all skin blemishes soon disappear when it is used.
Although far superior to the ordinary massage creams and sold on a guarantee of "beet you ever used or money back," yet the price is a trifle only 25c for a liberal jar; larger size 50c. Gibson Drug Store.

The more a boy's education costs the less he seems to be able to cash in on it.

WHY SALVES FAIL TO CURE ECZEMA.

Scientists are now agreed that the eczema germs are lodged not in the outer skin or epidermis, but in the inner skin. Hence, a penetrating liquid is required, not an outward salve that clogs the pores.
We recommend to all eczema patients the standard prescription Oil of Wintergreen as compounded in liquid form known as D. D. D. Prescription. A trial bottle of the D. D. D. Prescription, at only 25 cents will instantly relieve the itch. We have sold and recommended this remedy for years, and know of wonderful cures from its use. We recommend it to our patrons. Scared into Sound Health.

Mr. B. F. Kelley, Springfield, Ill., writes: "A year ago I began to be troubled with my kidneys and bladder which grew worse until I became alarmed at my condition. I suffered also with dull heavy headaches and the action of my bladder was annoying and painful. I read of Foley's Kidney Pills and after taking them a few weeks the headaches left me, the action of my bladder was again normal, and I was free from all distress." Cabarrus Drug Co.

Sweet charity exists because it does not stand still long enough to turn sour.

What a Summer Cold May Do.

A summer cold if neglected is just as apt to develop into bronchitis or pneumonia as at any other season. Do not neglect it. Take Foley's Honey and Tar promptly. It loosens the cough, soothes and heals the inflamed air passages, and expels the cold in the system. Cabarrus Drug Co.

Good Advice to Young Men.

Wadesboro Ansonian.
To indulge in the drink habit to even a small degree, one must be almost independent in this world. The time has come when a young man with the smell of so harmless a thing as near beer on his breath need not seek employment. He is practically handicapped, for even a saloon keeper doesn't want him. That shows what the business world is doing to solve the whiskey question and the way the traffic is being forced to its proper level. Better cut it out, young man.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.
We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O.

Became Insane and Tried to Kill Her Children.

Mrs. Chas. Harrell, of Blewitt's Fall, went violently insane Saturday and attempted to kill several persons and also made an attempt to do away with her three little children, one of which is only six months old. She was arrested and taken to Wadesboro and placed in jail and will be kept there until she can be taken to the State hospital for the insane. It is a very sad case. Mrs. Harrell has separated from her husband and is now suing him for divorce.

A WEAK WOMAN AND HER STORY

In Floral, Ark., Lives a Lady Who Feels That Her Strength Was Restored by Cardui.

Floral, Ark.—"I must speak a good word for Cardui," writes Mrs. Viola Baker, of this place.

"About a month ago I was in very bad health. I was so weak and nervous that I was not able to do my housework."

"My husband bought me one bottle of Cardui, the woman's tonic. I took it according to directions and now I am in good health."

"I think Cardui is a fine tonic for weak women."

"And you are not the only lady who thinks so, Mrs. Baker. Thousands, like you, have written to tell of the wonderful benefit Cardui has been to them."

Cardui contains no minerals, or other powerful drugs. It contains no glycerin or other unwholesome ingredients. It is just a pure, natural extract, of natural vegetable herbs, that have been found to regulate the womanly functions and strengthen the female system. All druggists sell Cardui. See yours about it.

Rat Sought Sweet Morsel.

Awakened from sound sleep by a stinging sensation on her arm, Miss Pearl Pittenger, of Trenton, N. J., scratched the irritated spot and made a sleepy remark about a supposed mosquito. A few minutes later she was again awakened by the same cause and rose hurriedly from the bed and turned up the light. To her horror she found a huge rat occupying her bed.

The rodent had bitten Miss Pittenger twice on the arm, causing it to swell alarmingly. Medical aid was summoned and the wounds were treated.

The Conservation of Nature's Resources.

Applies as well to our physical state as to material things. C. J. Budlong, Washington, R. I. realized his condition, and took warning before it was too late. He says: "I suffered severely from kidney trouble, the disease being hereditary in our family. I have taken four bottles of Foley's Kidney Remedy, and now consider myself thoroughly cured. This should be a warning to all not to neglect taking Foley's Kidney Remedy until it is too late." Cabarrus Drug Co. Concord.
