CONCORD, N. C., JULY 5, 1910

Gen. Julian S. Carr has been nominated for the House by the Democrats of Durham county and, of course, will be elected. It is well that men of such ability and high character as Gen. Carr can be prevailed upon to go as lawmakers, for the State needs just such men in its council halls at Raleigh. We learn that Gen. Carr's friends will push him for speaker of the House, and if he is a candidate his opponents may be assured of a "foeman worthy of their steel."

Mr. R. Lee Wright, of Salisbury, who has been a candidate for the nomination for judge in his district, has withdrawn, leaving the field open to Judge Long. Mr. Wright is a gentleman and a lawyer of ability but there was no reason whatever why Judge Long should be retired, and the Democrats of his district have sustained this view by instructing for him almost unanimously.

The Congressional convention to nominate a Democratic candidate for Congress in this district, will meet in Statesville Friday, July 15, at 11:30 a. m. As the State convention will meet in Charlotte the day before, it is evident that it is not expected that the latter will be as long drawn out as it was two years ago.

THE CONE PICNIC AT GREENSBORO.

The Sixth Annual Outing Given by the Messrs. Cone to Their Employees at Greensboro Saturday.

Sunday morning's Greensboro News gives the following account of the big Cone picnic held in that city last Saturday:

In a shady oak grove, far enough removed from the roads to escape the clouds of dust that floated with every breeze, and yet so situated that every breeze which stirred cooled hot and tired faces, the employees of Proximity, Revolution and White Oak Cotton Mills, and their numerous friends enjoyed their sixth annual outing yesterday at the expense of their employer, Caesar Cone.

The crowd was a happy one, and while a general enthusiasm filled them all, signs of boisterousness were absent. They had gone there for a good dinner, for good music and for good speaking, and they got all they went for. They felt welcome, and indeed they were for the word "Welcome," printed on United States flags, were strung up over the entrance, and over different parts of the grounds.

And Mr. Cone told them in his speech that he hoped he was facing his friends, their friends, and their friends' friends. People from many parts of the State were there.

The arrangements for the outing were most excellently carried out, and to J. J. Phoenix, who had matters in charge, goes the credit for this. He was instructed by Mr. Cone to make the picnic as good and better, if possible, than all previous ones. Nothing that could be done was left undone.

An artesian well had been sunk in the upper part of the grove, and from this cold water was pumped all over the grounds. A large tent, for the mothers and their babies who might become tired during the day, had been raised in a quiet place and in the tent swinging cribs were placed, and for the special benefit of the children ice cold milk and confectionery were provided there. To serve the dinner Mr. Phoenix had provided 150 waiters, all of whom were dressed in white. The decorations were profuse, small flags being strung over the grounds, and the many stands unwrapped with red, white and blue bunting. Every child was given a small United States flag, and everyone received a souvenir tea.

The menu was elaborate and consisted of an immense amount of food, as follows:

1,000 pounds of Frankfurter sausage, 15,000 sandwiches of chicken and ham, 20,000 eggs, 20,000 sweet and sour pickles, a solid car load of watermelons weighing on an average of 40 pounds each, 100 bushels of peaches, 2,000 cantaloupes, 2,000 pineapples which were sliced and buried in sugar Friday, a solid car load of bananas, 5,000 bags of hot roasted peanuts, 12,000 lemons squeezed into lemonade (and it was pure lemonade too) and 450 gallons of ice cream. This was all the cream that could be found in the cities of Charlotte, Salisbury and Greensboro. An express car was required to haul it in. The expense of the feast was $4,000.

A serious accident occurred at the works of the North Carolina Electric Power Company, two miles below Marshall Friday morning when two men, a negro and a white man, were killed by a premature blast. The negro was entirely covered with rock and dirt being killed outright, while the white man lived for a short time.

Deputy Sheriff Frank M. Jordan, serving for the past twelve or thirteen months as a deputy under Sheriff T. F. Hunter, was Saturday summarily dismissed by the high sheriff of Buncombe county. The dismissal of Mr. Jordan, who, together with Sheriff Hunter, Deputy Sheriff E. M. Mitchell and Deputy Sheriff C. F. Williams, were candidates before the Democratic primary last Saturday for the sheriffly nomination, came as a surprise and explanations were sought.

There is more catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address:

FARMER'S WIFE HAD HEAP TO DO

Mrs. Shepherd Was in Bad Shape When She Could Not Stand on Her Feet.

Durham, N. C.—"I am a farmer's wife," writes Mrs. J. M. Shepherd, of this city, "and have a heap to do."

"Four months ago I could not stand on my feet, to do anything much, but at this time I do the most of my work. I took Cardui and it did me more good than all the doctors.

"You don't know half how I thank you for the Cardui Home Treatment. I wish that all women who suffer from womanly trouble would treat themselves as I have."

Ladies can easily treat themselves at home, with Cardui, the woman's tonic. It is easy to take, and so gentle in its action, that it cannot do anything but good.

Being composed exclusively of vegetable ingredients, Cardui cannot lay up trouble in your system, as mineral drugs often do. Its ingredients having no harsh, medicinal effects, and being non-poisonous and perfectly harmless, Cardui is absolutely safe for young and old.

The Important Problem

confronting anyone in need of a laxative is not a question of a single action only, but of permanently beneficial effects, which will follow proper efforts to live in a healthful way, with the assistance of Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna, whenever it is required, as it cleanses the system gently yet promptly, without irritation and will therefore always have the preference of all who wish the best of family laxatives.

The combination has the approval of physicians because it is known to be truly beneficial, and because it has given satisfaction to the millions of well-informed families who have used it for many years past.

To get its beneficial effects, always buy the genuine manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only.
