Is Life Worth Living?

Mrs. Mollie McRaney, Prentiss, Miss., writes that she had a severe case of kidney and bladder trouble, and that four bottles of Foley's Kidney Remedy cured her sound and well. She closes her letter by saying: "I heartily recommend Foley's Kidney to any sufferer of kidney disease. It save my life." Cabarrus Drug Co.

Like all other fruit, there is an abundant blackberry crop this year. While, for some reason or other, the blackberry does not enjoy the social advantage of its nearest relatives in variety, the dewberry and strawberry, it nevertheless fills a place far from obscure housekeepers.

Mrs. C. L. Stevens, of New Berne, has been elected superintendent of the graded school at Beaufort. Mrs. Stevens enjoys the distinction of being the first woman in the State to be elected to a position of this character. She is the wife of the editor of the Newbern Journal.

A. E. Pickett, a Douglass county, Kansas, farmer, found raising strawberries to be a profitable occupation this spring. From one and one-fifth acres he gathered 357 crates of berries which yielded him $967.50.

A Few Short Weeks.
Mr. J. S. Bartell, Edwardsville, Ill., writes: "A few months ago my kidneys became congested. I had severe backache and pain across the kidneys and hips. Foley's Kidney Pills rected the action of my kidneys. This was brought about after my using them only a few short weeks. I can cheerfully recommend them." Cabarrus Drug Co.

Children Who are Sickly.
Mothers who value their own comfort and the welfare of their children, should never be without a box of Mother Gray's Sweet Powders for Children, for use throughout the season. They break up Colds, Cure Fevers, Headaches and Stomach Troubles. These Powders never fail. Sold by all drug stores, 25c. Don't accept any substitute. A trial package will be sent free to any mother who will address Allen S. Olmsted, Le Roy, N. Y.

Must Be Above Suspicion.
Kidney and bladder ailments are so serious in their consequences, and if unchecked so often fatal that any remedy offered for their cure must be above suspicion. Foley's Kidney Pills contain no harmful drugs, and have successfully stood a long and thorough test. Cabarrus Drug Co.

Gen. J. S. Carr Nominated for the House of Representatives.

Durham Sun.
General Julian S. Carr for the House! And his nomination came like a thunderbolt from a clear sky. As one man, the assembled democrats turned to General Carr as the man of the hour and nominated him by acclamation.

The task of selecting a standard bearer has been a perplexing one. Some of the people wanted a business man. Others thought Durham county's representative ought to be a farmer this time and still others had picked a lawyer for the place. The delegates came to the convention Saturday instructed by their people at home to select the best available man. They did it. When Colonel Benehan Cameron placed General Carr in nomination Saturday the convention went wild with enthusiasm. It was a stampede—a walkover. Every man in the convention recognized the fact that in General Carr they had the man they wanted—the man their people at home wanted—and despite his vigorous protests he was made the party's nominee by an unanimous vote.

As Colonel Cameron described him General Carr is a "business man of well known ability. He is one of the most progressive farmers in the State and is close to the working man. He is a man of state-wide fame and will make Durham a representative of whom she will be proud."

"Foley's Kidney Pills Have Cured Me."

The above is a quotation from a letter written by H. M. Walker, Evansville, Ind. "I contracted a severe case of kidney trouble. My back gave out and pained me. I seemed to have lost all strength and ambition; was bothered with dizzy spells, my head would swim and specks float before my eyes. I took Foley's Kidney Pills regularly like a new man. Cabarrus Drug Co.
