Mrs. Lena Gresham, of Clinton, Miss., Has a Few Facts to Tell Our Readers About Cardui.

Clinton, Miss.—"Thanks to Cardui," writes Mrs. Lena Gresham, of this place, "I have been greatly relieved."

"I suffered for three years from female inflammation, and had taken medicine from four different physicians without much benefit."

"I have received more benefit from seven bottles of Cardui, than from all the physicians."

Just try Cardui. That's all we ask. It speaks for itself. It has helped so many thousands, it must be able to help you.

Trying Cardui won't hurt you. It is safe, harmless, gentle in action, and purely vegetable.

If you are weak, tired, down and out, try Cardui.

If you are sick, miserable, and suffer from womanly pains, like headache, backache, dragging feelings; pains in side, arms, legs, etc.—try Cardui.

It is the medicine for all women. It is the tonic for you.

The Barium Orphanage in Great Need.

Greensboro Correspondence of Raleigh News and Observer.

At the First Presbyterian church Sunday morning, after the sermon from Rev. Sam Rankin, Mr. S. Clay Williams made an eloquent and instructive address on the pressing needs of the Barium Springs orphanage. He stated that besides a considerable debt, the institution was in absolute need of funds to provide food for the children. On the last Sunday in July all the Presbyterian churches in this Synod will take a special collection for the orphanage, and so great was the need for aid, Mr. Williams said that in case the response from the various congregations was not liberal, the large Presbyterian church had resolved to postpone setting a date for its annual picnic until after July 31st. If, he said, the contributions were not sufficient to tide the orphanage over its embarrassment, the Sunday school would contribute every dollar in its treasury for the orphans and abandon its annual picnic.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL.

Lesson IV.—Third Quarter, For July 24, 1910.

THE INTERNATIONAL SERIES.

Text of the Lesson, Matt. xvii, 1-8, 14-20—Memory Verses, 1, 2—Golden Text, Matt. xvii, 5—Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Starns.

We have but one lesson in this great chapter which tells us of the transfiguration, the conflict and victory following; His death and resurrection again foretold and the little fish which brought the tribute money. The transfiguration, like the lesson of last week, is recorded by Matthew, Mark and Luke and in some respects the most remarkable event in the humiliation of our Lord. The glory which here shines forth for a little moment was always in Him, but, like the glory over the mercy seat between the cherubim in the holy of holies, was concealed by the veil which was typical of His body and which was rent in twain when He died on the cross (Heb. x, 20; Matt. xxvii, 50, 51). As He spoke of His sufferings in last week's lesson, He said that some of those present would see the glory of His kingdom before they died. I think I am safe in saying that, while both in the Old and New Testaments the glory is sometimes spoken of without mentioning the suffering, we never find the sufferings without the glory to encourage us in the sufferings. This word about seeing the kingdom before they died has been unnecessarily perplexing to many, because they have not noticed its connection with the account of the transfiguration which immediately follows in each of the gospels and in Mark and Luke in close connection. That Peter, one of the favored three, so understood it seems very clear from II Pet. i, 16-18. Dr. Scofield's note upon this is so simple and yet so full and conclusive that I quote it here: "The transfiguration scene contains in miniature all the elements of the future kingdom in manifestation—(1) The Lord, not in humiliation, but in glory (verse 2). (2) Moses, glorified, representative of the redeemed who have passed through death into the kingdom (Matt. xiii, 43; c. i. Luke ix, 30, 31). (3) Elijah, glorified, representative of the redeemed who have entered the kingdom by translation (I Cor. xv, 50-53; I Thess. iv, 14-17). (4) Peter, James and John, not glorified, representatives (for the moment) of Israel in the flesh in the future kingdom (Ezek. xxxvii, 21-27). (5) The multitude at the foot of the mountain (verse 20), representative of the nations, who are to be brought into the kingdom after it is established over Israel (Isa. xi, 10-12), etc.

Six or eight days after the saying of Matt. xvi, 28, Jesus took these three men, who were also with Him when He raised to life the ruler's daughter, and in Gethsemane and, as Luke tells us, went up into a mountain to pray, and it was as He prayed that He was transfigured. The eight days of Luke certainly include the six of Matthew and Mark and give the extreme limit of the time intervening. His appearance reminds us of Rev. i, 13-16, and of the assurance of I John iii, 2, that we shall be like Him. The more we consider this the more we shall be like Him now, and it is so necessary, for the world needs some manifestation of His life in these mortal bodies (II Cor. iv, 10, 11). It is most interesting to notice that the word translated "transfigured" is used only in this incident in Matthew and Mark and in two other places, Rom. xii, 2; II Cor. iii, 18, in the former being translated "transformed" and in the latter "are changed" and both bearing upon this very point of likeness to Him now. A sight of Moses and Elijah, who had been absent from the earth, one about 1,500 years and the other about 900, gives us a glimpse of the reality of the unseen world. The topic of their conversation (Luke ix, 31) shows us how great is the importance of the death of Christ, the benefits of which they had been in a measure enjoying, as on a promissory note, for so many centuries and by virtue of which alone any one from earth can enter heaven. The disciples were afraid, they were also heavy with sleep, and Peter talked, not knowing what He said, and suggested making tabernacles for the Lord Jesus and for Moses and Elijah. Then came the bright cloud and overshadowed them, and when it was past Jesus was found alone (Luke ix, 32-36). Out of the cloud came the voice of the Father, saying for the second time, "This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased," but now He added, "Hear ye Him." The disciples, being afraid, fell on their faces, but Jesus touched them and said, "Arise and be not afraid." In the sleep and fear and foolish talk of the disciples see with what human weakness our Lord has always to deal, but in His "Be not afraid" see the loving, compassionate favour with whom we have to do. May we ever remember the words of Mark ix, 8. "They saw no man any more save Jesus only with themselves." How very necessary it is that we should always see and hear no one but "Jesus only."

In verses 11-13 our Lord plainly says that the prediction of Malachi concerning Elijah must be fulfilled. John the Baptist, who came in the spirit and power of Elijah, being rejected, as was also the Lord Jesus, Elijah must come as the herald of Christ at His second coming in glory. From every mount of privilege we come down to some fresh mountain with the great adversary of the devil.

NEEDFUL KNOWLEDGE.

Concord People Should Learn to Detect the Approach of Kidney Disease.

The symptoms of kidney trouble are so unmistakable that they leave no ground for doubt. Sick kidneys excrete a thick, cloudy, offensive urine, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding. The back aches constantly, headaches and dizzy spells may occur and the victim is often weighed down by a feeling of languor and fatigue. Neglect these warnings and there is danger of dropsy, Bright's Disease or diabetes. Any one of these symptoms is warning enough to begin treating the kidneys. Delay often proves fatal.

You can use no better remedy than Doan's Kidney Pills. Here's Concord proof:

Mrs. L. M. Moser, 240 N. Spring street, Concord, N. C., says: "I used Doan's Kidney Pills with such good results that I am glad to recommend them. I had symptoms of kidney trouble for a long time and when Doan's Kidney Pills were brought to my attention, I procured a supply at Gibson Drug Store. They soon relieved me and thus encouraged, I continued their use until I was cured. I advise similarly afflicted to give Doan's Kidney Pills a trial."

Boy Killed by a Fish.

Death in an almost unheard-of form waited for Laurence S. Baker, an eleven-year-old Jacksonville lad, when he dived from a boat while in Lake Worth Wednesday.

A stingaree—a huge, flat-bodied and gruesome species of warmwater fish—was lurking just under the boat. One of the barbed spines which the fish carries on its whip-like tail, pierced the boy's neck cutting into the jugular vein. He rose to the surface crying for help and bled to death within four minutes.

Every man who raises one coil, or many should realize the great importance of early education.

"Foley's Kidney Pills Have Cured Me."

The above is a quotation from a letter written by H. M. Walker, Evansville, Ind. "I contracted a severe case of kidney trouble. My back gave out and pained me. I seemed to have lost all strength and ambition; was bothered with dizzy spells, my head would swim and speak float before my eyes. I took Foley's Kidney Pills regularly like a new man. Cabarrus Drug Co."

No man is fitted to train horses who is not thoroughly sympathetic and brimful of horse-sense.

The Wadesboro Ansonian gives this recipe for the next Legislature to make itself immortal by doing a wise thing: if the next Legislature would make the Torrens system of land registration the law in this State, it could afford to then sojour, confident that its name would go down with the immortals.

What a noisy world this would be if we all preached what we practice.

Is Life Worth Living?

Mrs. Mollie Melaney, Prentiss, Miss., writes that she had a severe case of kidney and bladder trouble, and that four bottles of Foley's Kidney Pills cured her sound and well. She closes her letter by saying: "I heartily recommend Foley's Kidney Pills to any sufferer of kidney disease. It gave my life." Cabarrus Drug Co.

Must Be Above Suspicion

Kidney and bladder ailments are so serious in their consequences, and if unchecked so often fatal that any remedy offered for their cure must be above suspicion. Foley's Kidney Pills contain no harmful drugs, and have successfully cured a long and thorough test. Cabarrus Drug Co.
