REVOLUTION IN PORTUGAL.

King Manuel Put to Rest by the Revolutionists.

Dispatches from Lisbon say that King Manuel was deposed from the throne of Portugal Tuesday night by a great force of revolutionists. The whereabouts of the King is unknown and it is feared he has been killed.

According to late reports the revolutionists are in complete control of the government.

King Manuel, with the Queen Mother Amelia and his grandmother, the Queen Dowager Maria Pia, has taken refuge at Mafra, 23 miles from Lisbon.

The outburst of revolution which a large part of Europe has been expecting for several weeks, has broken out, not in Spain, where it was most expected, but in Portugal. The smaller country seems less ripe for the outbreak on an extensive plan than was Spain, but Portugal is undermined with anarchism even more than Spain and the whole nation has long been in unrest over the clerical question on the one hand and on the other a lack of affection, even respect, for the young King.

It was remarked by everybody when King Manuel rode in the funeral procession of King Edward VII, that he looked inexpressibly miserable, even terrified. He has never for an instant been permitted to forget the terrible tragedy of Feb. 1, 1908, when his father, King Carlos, and his elder brother were assassinated and he himself nearly suffered their fate.

The capital is now completely in the hands of the Republicans who have formed a provisional government with Theophile Braga as president. A new national flag of red and green is flying over all the public buildings, including the Town Hall.

The marvellous Fayssoux, the youthful psychic wonder, who has upset the ancient theories of the old time hypnotists and mind readers and whose demonstrations have been secured for an engagement of three nights, October 13, 14 and 15. His performances are wholly different from the exhibitions heretofore given in America by any hypnotist.

STATE NEWS.

There were shipped out of Alexander county during September 227,417 pounds of dried fruit, 20,344 pounds of green apples, 41,147 pounds of peach seed, 14,213 pounds of chickens, 4,080 dozen of eggs, 2,893 pounds of butter, six car loads of tan bark, 44 solid cars of hardwood.

The Charlotte Cotton Mills property which includes about eight acres of land situated on North Graham street, was sold at public auction Tuesday. The part of the plot lying west of the railroad was bid in by Mr. L. R. Stewart for $10,975. The Southern Real Estate, Loan and Trust Company bid in the rest of the property containing the buildings for $53,000.

A strange relationship exists between the city of Charlotte and Mecklenburg county. The Observer says there is a sentiment in favor of a change in methods of distribution of taxes in the city and is developing among leaders in affairs of the county. The city is suffering because it fails to get a just and equitable proportion of money derived from taxation and the only hope of future development lies in some change along this line.

Following the announcement of Charles U. Harris that he will not make the race for the State Senate from Wake county on the independent Democratic ticket there comes the declaration from J. W. Blalock that he declines the nomination for the lower house given him in the independent mass meeting Saturday. He says he is a regular Democrat, that he voted in the primaries and proposed to abide by its results.

Mr. E. J. Justice, ex-Speaker of the House of Representatives, is billed for a speech in Greensboro on the evening of October 11. As soon as it was learned that Mr. Justice would speak under the auspices of the Democratic executive committee, Mr. E. G. Sherrill, chairman of the county committee, sent a formal challenge to United States District Attorney A. E. Holton to be present and divide time.

Miss Clara Russell, of Richmond, Va., will arrive tonight to visit friends in the city.

GENERAL NEWS.

This country has more men than Germany and Japan combined, even than England and France together, but in the matter of a merchant marine we are below nearly every nation except China.

In Aiken county, S. C., a $20,000 damage suit against a railroad was thrown out of court because it was shown that the victim of the accident had trespassed on the company's right of way in the face of posted warnings.

Contrary to the wishes of Clarence J. Shearn, one of W. R. Hearst's chief lieutenants, the Independence League in State convention at New York Wednesday voted to put a straight ticket in the field and not to endorse the Republican ticket as had been proposed. The vote was 212 in favor of a straight, as against 34 for an endorsement of the Republicans.

Senator Klutz to Deliver Address at Elk Memorial Meeting Here.

Senator Whitehead Klutz, of Salisbury, has accepted an invitation to deliver the address at the memorial exercises of the Concord Lodge of Elks, December 4th. Summers, Box W, Notre Dame, Ind., will send free to any mother her successful home treatment, with full instructions. Send no money, but write her today if your children trouble you in this way. Don't blame the child, the chaises are that it can't help it. This treatment also cures adults and aged people troubled with urine difficulties by day or night.
