The people here are too well acquainted with the life of this efficient

SUPERIOR COURT HAS CONCURRENT JURISDICTION.

May Now Assume Jurisdiction if Police Justice's Court Does Not Act Within Sixty Days.

Under the city charter as passed by the Legislature of 1907, the Police Justice's Court had original exclusive jurisdiction in all cases that could be tried in that court, and the Superior Court could not take cognizance of them. The last Legislature amended this section of the charter as follows:

Sec. 2.—That paragraph (e) of section twenty-five of chapter three hundred and forty-four, private laws of nineteen hundred and seven be amended by striking out the period at the end of said paragraph and substituting therefor a colon, followed by the following: "Provided, that nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to prevent the Superior Court of Cabarrus County from assuming concurrent jurisdiction of all the offenses of which said Superior Court would have had jurisdiction but for this act, whereof, exclusive jurisdiction is now given to the Police Justice's Court, within sixty days after the commission of the offense, shall not have proceeded to take official cognizance of the same: Provided, further, that said Police Justice shall furnish to the Clerk of the Superior Court of said county on the first Monday of each term for the information of the solicitor and grand jury a list of all offenses disposed of by said Police Justice, with the dates thereof, except the violation of the ordinances of the City of Concord.

New Design of Postal Card.

A new postal card in lieu of the one now in use has been approved by Postmaster General Hitchcock. The new card will be of cream color printed in red ink, making a much more attractive appearance than that now in use. The first supply of the new card is ready shortly. The new cards will cost approximately $65,000 a year more than the cards now in use. Seeing that Mr. Hitchcock is all the time trying to cut expenses the wonder is that he would recommend a new design of postal card at increased cost.

Cowhides a Negro Woman.

Spencer, April 28.—Considerable excitement was caused in Spencer this afternoon by L. L. Crawford, a Spencer merchant, who cowhided a negro woman for some petty offense. It is stated he became enraged at a son of the woman who worked for him and failed to obey some order. The woman took the part of her son and sustained a severe whipping from a buggy whip which is said to have been worn to a frazzle. Crawford was cited to trial and paid a fine for the offense.

THE BABY CONTEST.

BABIES! BABIES! THEY KEEP COMING

Phone 138 Keeps Jangling All Day And Part of the Night—Is Your Favorite Yet In?

All contest records for North Carolina are being smashed to smithereens by the mammoth newspaper Times and Tribune contest now being conducted by the Joyce Syndicate for The Times and The Tribune. There have been contests of many character for the different "grown-ups," piano contests, trip contests, etc., but never before has there been a contest for the rulers of the household. And what is a home without a baby?

The list is growing and keeps growing, but there is room for all and plenty of them are not yet in the swim—get in now so as to start with the crowd, for the votes change every day and will be published probably every few days if not every day—best of all, your babe may get the gold and glory.

They are the queens and kings, the princesses and the world of loveliness. Some little fairy needs your assistance. Vote for your favorite lad or lassie now. Hustle in the coupons.

And by the same token, never before has any contest plan or idea so captured the public fancy as the present one. It was plainly evident at the outset that the baby contest inaugurated by The Times and The Tribune would arouse an unusual amount of interest in Concord and surrounding country.

It has been said on all sides that the list of nominations in this great race is thoroughly representative of the first and finest families in Concord and vicinity and that any baby in the list may have a just cause to feel proud of the company in which it finds itself.

This is exceedingly gratifying to the manager and speaks volumes for the excellent standing this newspaper enjoys in this community. With so many distinguished families interested it is not to be wondered at that interest in the event became intense.

The voting all week has been exceedingly brisk and will probably culminate tonight in a veritable avalanche of votes for many of the little favorites. Of course these are only a few of the babies in the race, comparatively speaking, and is by no means certain that among them appear the name of the final winner. The mothers, fathers and friends of the little darlings are interested in seeing their babies come to the top and it behooves the parents and friends of the babies who are not in the race to get them in as soon as possible as there is not a chance like this every day. Don't be the only one who has a pretty to be left out of the contest.

You have just as good a chance to win as any one. Come in at once and get a subscription book. You will find the work interesting and congenial and you will be surprised at the success you will meet with if you enter this race with a determination to win. Everybody loves a dear little baby and every one is going to help you all they can.

The contest manager, Mr. Joyce, is in the office every evening and invites the parents to call and talk the matter over. Do not forget if the baby is nominated IMMEDIATELY he or she will receive a thousand free votes.

Remember all business connected with this contest is transacted at the headquarters opposite the St. Cloud-Normandy, and not at The Times and Tribune office. Telephone No. 138.

THE DISTRICTS WILL BE AS FOLLOWS:

District No. 1—The City of Concord.

District No. 2—All Rural Routes and Towns Outside of Concord.

BALL GAME YESTERDAY.

Concord Athletics Defeat the Charlotte Defenders by a Score of 4 to 0.

The snappy little ball team of the Concord Athletic Club put a crimp into the championship aspirations of the Defenders of Charlotte yesterday afternoon at the graded school grounds by the score of 4 to 0. The game was easy picking for the juvenile diamond artists of the capital of Cabarrus and not a solitary lad from the commonwealth of Mecklenburg denied the pan.

Fitz Sappenfeld did the hurling act for the locals and the little fellow kept the visitors guessing throughout the contest, receiving classy support from his teammates. Both teams went into the fray with a determination to win, this being the third game of the series, and the little fellows are jubilant over their victory. The two teams lined up as follows:

Powell 3b, Seawall c, Pharr ss, Clanton p, Evans 1b, Smith lf, Pharr 2b, Little cf, Ward rf. Wadsworth, C. 2b, Wood ss, Patterson c, Sappenfeld p, Wadsworth, J. 1b, Bost lf, Correll rf, Smoot cf, Durham 3b.

DR. ROGERS TO MOVE TO GALVESTON MAY 5.

Residence There May Be Only Temporary—Regret at His Leaving Concord.

Dr. F. O. Rogers, one of the best known physicians of the city, will move to Galveston, Texas, May 5. This announcement will be received with no little surprise and great interest by the people here, although it has been known by those intimately associated with Dr. Rogers that he contemplated such a move for some time. Mrs. Rogers will not go to Galveston until later. Dr. Rogers finds that business affairs in Texas will require his entire time for at least several months and probably longer. It is probable that he will return to Concord to live at the expiration of that time.

Dr. Rogers was born and reared in Concord and has been practicing medicine here for several years, having built up a large and lucrative practice, and it is to be hoped that he will again return to Concord to live.

Suicide Near New London.

New London, April 28.—Miss Lela Barringer committed suicide at the home of her father, who lives one mile west of this place, this morning at 9:30 o'clock. Miss Barringer and her sister were in the room together and she was as jolly as ever. A few moments after her sister left the report of a 22 rifle was heard, and, rushing to the room, the parents found their daughter on the floor dead, with a bullet hole in her right temple. She left a note stating that she was tired of living and wanted to die.

Mr. Tice Barringer, the father of Miss Lela, is a well-to-do farmer, and is well thought of in this section. The funeral will take place at Kendall's church some time tomorrow.

The Newton Enterprise says that Catawba farmers, who sell large quantities of sweet potatoes over the country, are now getting $1 per bushel, the highest price in some years, which makes the crop very profitable.
