SUNDAY SCHOOL.
Lesson VI.—Second Quarter, For May 7, 1911.
THE INTERNATIONAL SERIES.
 Text of the Lesson, II Chron. xxvi, 2-21.
 Memory Verses, 15, 20—Golden Text, Prov. xvi, 18—Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.
 As we consider the lives of these kings of Judah we must remember that the throne at Jerusalem is called the throne of the Lord, and those who reigned there were kings for the Lord their God (I Chron. xix, 23; II Chron. ix, 8). There were eight kings of whom it is written that they "did right in the sight of the Lord," and this Uzziah, or Azariah, was one of the eight (II Kings xv, 1-3). But they only did right in some measure, some more, some less, and all failed in many things. The time is still future when the twelve tribes shall be one kingdom and a king sitting on the throne of David at Jerusalem who shall reign in righteousness, bringing peace, quietness and assurance to all His people and to all the world (Ezek. xxxvii, 21, 22; Isa. xxxiii, 1, 17).
 But it shall be, for the mouth of the Lord hath spoken it. "They shall call Jerusalem the throne of the Lord, and all the nations shall be gathered unto it, to the name of the Lord, to Jerusalem" (Jer. iii, 17). At that day it shall be said "The King of Israel, even Jehorah, is in the midst of thee; thou shalt not see evil any more" (Zeph. iii, 15). "And Jehorah shall be king over all the earth" (Zech. xiv, 9). In those days the kingdom and nation that will not serve Israel shall perish and be utterly wasted (Isa. lx, 12). Although Uzziah reigned fifty-two years, his whole story is found in this lesson chapter and in the first seven verses of II Kings xv. In his days Isaiah and Amos were the prophets, the full of rebuke for sin, but also of prediction of a glorious future for Israel when she shall receive her Messiah. Every good king should turn our thoughts to the Son of God, the King of Israel (John 1, 49), and their failures set Him forth more brightly as the one who will never fall nor be discouraged.
 Uzziah seems to have been greatly helped by a prophet named Zechariah, who had visions of God (verse 5)—not the one who wrote "the book bearing his name, for he lived after the captivity, nor the one of II Chron. xxiv, 20, 21, who was stoned to death for his faithfulness. It is a great thing to see God, and this we can do in Jesus Christ, who said "He that hath seen Me hath seen the Father" (John xiv, 9). We can by the Spirit behold the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ (II Cor. iv, 6), and thus we shall be enabled to help others to see Him, too, and know Him. While this prophet helped him he sought the Lord, and God made him to prosper (verse 5).
 He seems to have been prospered through most of his reign. God helped him against his enemies, other nations brought gifts to him, and his name spread abroad (verses 7, 8). This God honors those who honor Him. It was so during part of the reign of Solomon when the queen of Sheba and all kings of the earth sought him and brought him gifts (II Chron. ix, 8, 9, 22-24). So it shall be in an unprecedented degree when Jesus Christ shall be King in Jerusalem. Then shall all nations, like the wise men from the east, bring their treasures unto Him (Isa. lx, 9-11).
 Uzziah was so greatly blessed that he became self sufficient, strong in himself instead of in the Lord, and then he fell. He presumed to take upon him the office of a priest and to burn incense in the house of God, and the Lord smote him with leprosy, and he became a leper unto the day of his death and had to live in a separate house. The only King of Israel who will be a priest upon his throne will be the man whose name is the Branch (Zech. vi, 12, 13). He will be a priest forever after the order of Melchizedek, who was both priest and king (Gen. xiv, 18; Ps. cx, 4; Heb. vii, 1, 17).
 If we are redeemed we are kings and priests unto God and shall reign with Christ when He reigns (Rev. i, 6; v, 9, 10). Back of this sin of Uzziah it is not difficult to see the great adversary who said "I will be like the Most High" and who said to Eve, "Ye shall be as gods" (Isa. xiv, 14; Gen. iii, 5). Humility, not pride, is the characteristic of a true child of God, realizing that we are not sufficient of ourselves to think anything as of ourselves, but our sufficiency is of God (II Cor. iii, 5). The only way for us to be "strong in the Lord and in the power of His might," having no confidence in ourselves, for in us—that is, in our flesh—dwelleth no good thing (Eph. vi, 10; Phil. iii, 3; Rom. vii, 18). We have a great High Priest who is touched with a feeling of our infirmities and who is able to save to the uttermost all of those who come unto God by Him.
 Let us rejoice in Him and serve Him with all humility, remembering to do justly, love mercy and walk humbly with our God. All self righteousness, self sufficiency, pride and ambition to be somebody or something apart from Jesus Christ we must shut as we would the devil himself.
 It is written of Uzziah that "as long as he sought the Lord, God made him to prosper" (verse 5). This is in accord with Job. i, 7, 8; Ps. l, 1-3. True seeking is always according to Jer. xxxii, 11, and the exhortations therein are very plain in Isa. lv, 9; Zeph. i, 8. Consider Melchizedek in II Chron. xxiii, 20, 21, and also see Heb. vii, 30.

FARMER SHOULD KEEP BOOKS.
The Business Farmer Will Be Placed on More Satisfactory Basis Thereby.
 How many farmers in Cabarrus county "keep books"?
 The matter of farm accounting has received almost as much attention during the past few years at the agricultural colleges and farm institutes as most of the important crops and farm activities have. And the work is beginning to bear fruit. While few farmers of this section have anything like a regular set of office books it is a fact that many do keep accurate tab on all expenses and receipts and all of them are paying more attention to the little details that were once neglected.
 Any business may be placed on a better and more satisfactory basis when there is a regular accounting of profit and loss. The farmers by this method may determine what are his best paying crops and then pay more attention to these crops. The keeping of such accounts tends to increase a man's interest in his business as well as to teach him how to make it successful. Intelligent, business-like methods of doing business are chief attractions which move ambitious young men and women to the cities and towns. If more up-to-date methods are adopted generally on the farms it will accomplish much toward reducing this migration from the farms; it will create new interest among the old as well as the young and make farm life more attractive to the real live and ambitious citizen.

Chicago Rat Famine.
 Chicago, May 3.—The demand for rats in Chicago is great and the supply is far too small. Prices threaten to go up rapidly.
 Deputy United States Marshall Edward Marsales made efforts to day to obtain 20 live rats to fill an order from Frank Ebey, who is connected with a telephone company at Rockford.
 "Nothing doing today," was the reply of the ratcatchers. "We have many orders ahead of you. The supply doesn't meet the demand. As soon as we get to you in rotation your order will be filled."
 The rats are used in placing cables. A rat is located in a pipe through which a cable is to be placed. Then a string is tied to a ferret, which is allowed to pursue the rat. In that way a small string is put through the pipe and later the cable is pulled after it.

Local Firm Will Continue Valuable Agency.
 Marsh's Drug Store of this city have just closed a deal whereby they will continue to be agents for EEMO—the well known remedy for Eczema, Dandruff, and all diseases of the skin and scalp.
 The extraordinary leap that this clean liquid external treatment for skin affections has made into public favor in the last few years proves its wonderful curative properties and makes it indeed a valuable addition to the fine stock of remedial agents carried by Marsh's Drug Store.
 They have a limited supply of samples. One of which will be given free to any skin sufferer who wishes to test the merit of the medicine. A booklet "How To Preserve The Skin," will also be given to those interested.
 The Sure Tip.
 "How did you get that new suit?"
 "Had a sure tip on a horse race."
 "I never knew one of those sure tips to pan out."
 "Neither did I. So I didn't play it. Put the money into this suit instead."

OBEEDIENCE.
 Obedience is the grandest thing in the world to begin with. I do not think the time will ever come when we shall not have something to do, because we are told to do it, without knowing why. * * * The one essential of civility was obedience.—George Macdonald.

HOW WE CAN DO IT.
 Many people express themselves as being unable to see how we can afford to give away $500.00 in gold to the four most popular babies in Concord and elsewhere. It is a simple business proposition with us. In order to increase the circulation of our two papers, The Tribune and The Times, we are induced to offer these large prizes. We want more new subscribers, as circulation is what induces the advertisers to use our columns and at an increased price. We are working for the future, not the present. If we do not make a cent directly in this contest, we expect to reap the reward in the future in increased advertising business. That is why we can afford to do it.

Dr. H. Q. Alexander, President of the North Carolina Farmers' Union, has written a letter to Congressman Webb, of the ninth district, endorsing his position on reciprocity. The letter in part is as follows:
 "I approve of your course in opposing the reciprocity treaty with Canada and it was presented to the House by the President. That treaty is not fair or just. It seeks to lower the cost of living but taxes the farmer with the reduction, without in any way compensating him for his loss. And I am not sure that it would even lower the cost of food products to the consumer. All articles put on the free list are in the raw state. No manufactured products are admitted free. The farmers and laborers produce the raw material and convert it into the finished product. Capital is protected. The man must fight unaided for his living. The dollar is placed above the man. This has been the policy of our government in all tariff legislation. It is a shame and an outrage on a so-called free people. The masses have tolerated it just about long enough."
 The people are beginning to see that all is not gold that glitters in this Canadian reciprocity business, and that Senator Simmons and Congressmen Doughton, Webb and Gidger know what they are doing when they oppose it.

Reformed Church Classis Session at Thomasville.
 Thomasville, May 4.—The Classis of the Reformed church, of North Carolina, in session here, formally organized last night by electing the following officers: resident, Prof. J. A. Ford, Ph. D., of Newton vice-president, John R. Hoffman, of Burlington; reading clerk, George E. McCorkle; corresponding secretary, Rev. Shuford Peeler, of Greensboro.
 Tonight at 8 o'clock, Hon. Charles C. Barnhardt, of High Point, addressed the classis on "The Laymen's Activity in the Home Congregation."
 The classis is holding morning, afternoon and evening services and will be in session until Sunday night.
 The morning session today was taken up in hearing parochial reports from the various churches of the State. These reports show a decided growth in membership and quite a large increase in Sunday school attendance.
 Dr. J. P. Moore, for many years a missionary to Japan, is attending the classis. He will speak on foreign missions when that subject comes up for discussion.
 The laymen's movement was the main feature on tonight's program. Some of the best speakers were heard on this important subject.
