ARE YOU COMING IN FOR A SHARE OF THE $45.00 IN GOLD

LET ALL YOUR FRIENDS KNOW THAT THEIR AID THIS WEEK WILL MEAN JUST TWICE AS MUCH TO THE INTEREST OF YOUR LITTLE SWEETHEART AS ON ORDINARY OCCASIONS.

Only One Week After This to Get Votes for the Babies— You Will Need Every Moment of the Time—Just Now the Most Important Thing There Is, Is This Contest, and How Your Little One is Coming Out on the Closing Day, June 3rd.

Aroused by the last offer of double votes for this week, there is the greatest interest among all those who are in any way interested in the great contest now being conducted by the Joyce Syndicate, of Chicago, for the Times and Tribune, for the babies of Concord and vicinity. There is the greatest activity for everybody who now recognizes the full significance of this offer of double votes and are not to be caught napping by any of their sister or brother competitors. You have a dear little child at home. He is your pride and joy—the pet and favorite of the whole neighborhood if not indeed the entire community in which you live. He is a candidate for honors in this race, entered by some friend or neighbor. He stands a very good chance of winning the $150 in gold and the title of the most popular baby.

For the past four weeks your friends and acquaintances, your relatives and neighbors have gone to the extent of saving up coupons and casting them in his favor. Later they have helped you wish subscriptions and as a result your little one today has a goodly number of votes and an equal chance with the others to win the prize, and the distinguished honor which accompanies it.

Are you going to let your little darling be dropped from the race, practically forced out? Are you going to permit it to lose because of lack of a little effort on your part?

Just think of the number of kinsfolk whom you have not as yet approached. They have been waiting for you to approach them so that they might be of some assistance to your little child who is their pet as well as yours. Gather up those subscriptions that only wait your asking. Get in every one that you possibly can between now and Saturday night at nine o'clock. If you do not do another thing this week get in touch with those who have promised you their subscriptions and get them to make good their promises.

Ask every one that you know to give you a subscription to the Times or Tribune. Never mind if they do refuse, for one that refuses there will be a dozen who will subscribe willingly if you will only ask them.

RAPID INTERURBAN WORK.

Work of Development Under Oliver Leadership Moves Rapidly Along.

Satisfactory progress is being made on the construction of the line of interurban between Charlotte and Gastonia and especially between the present terminus of the Hoskins track to the Catawba river, it being in the mind of the promoters to get this line in operation just as shortly as possible. About two miles leading from the Hoskins line toward the river is ready for the laying of cross-ties and rails and about an equal mileage has been prepared, from Mount Holly this way. An immense fill just this way from Mount Holly which is nearly a mile in length and 25 or 30 feet high has taken considerable work, the contractors having this job having concentrated their labors. The firm of Clayborn Brown & Co. has the contract for the construction work between Charlotte and the river.

A sufficient amount of cross-ties and rails has been ordered to build the line to the river and these will be laid just as soon as they come. The cross-ties have already been distributed at intervals along the route, 20,000 having been placed at Mount Holly and about 5,000 at Hoskins. There is also a lot of 10,000 at Lowell. The rails necessary for the equipment of the line to the river are expected to arrive in the early future and will be laid at once by the construction forces of the Charlotte Street Electric Railway Company. The promoters have orders in for 900 tons of rail.

Barred Preacher Who Crossed Legs.

Lockport, N. Y., May 22.—Some queer reasons are given by congregations for refusing to "call" certain ministers, according to the report of the Pastoral Supply Committee of the State Convention of Congregationalists, now in session here.

One candidate was objected to by a congregation because he crossed his legs in the pulpit; another congregation objected to the style in which a minister combed his hair; another rejected a candidate because "he walked up the centre aisle as though he were self-satisfied."

At the Baptist convention in session at Jacksonville Monday retiring President Levering, of Baltimore, related an interview he had with former Speaker Cannon. Mr. Levering said Mr. Cannon expressed sympathy with the movement to check traffic in liquor between "wet" and "dry" States, but doubted if a law sought by the Baptists would stand in the Supreme Court if it were enacted by the Congress. The law requested was one that would take control of liquor traffic from the Interstate Commerce Commission and vest it in State governments.

MOST PECULIAR LETTER.

Unique Inquiry Concerning Farms and Laws.

Secretary Eliss Carr, of the State Department of Agriculture, has received a remarkable letter of inquiry from one Mr. Carl Henrich Vogel, now at Newark, N. J., and desirous of procuring a farm in the Wilkes county section of the State. The letter reads like this:

"Dear Sir:—I like to buy a Wilkes farm, can I stay down some of the wood and use for field, or is there the legislature, that the forest must be forest forever like at Germany. There must be 1-5 of the farm forest. One agent wrote to me, we must use the regular lawful farm in effect in this State. What means that? Is there another law concerning purchase, than in other states? I mean if I buy that ground recorded by the court be I then not the real owner because I live some years in that State before I could be the real owner? Is there any special law or legislature at North Carolina? And of which style is that? North Carolina is temperance state or prohibition, I know, and I don't like saloons or whiskey stores. But I like still liberty and suppose I get me shipped in secret some bottles of apple whiskey to make me at home my own milk punch (that is a very fine sober drink) is there any hard punishment? If I use only drink only for my own use? Please give me the particulars about the legislature in that quarter."

More Double Track.

Washington, May 22.—In pursuance of President Finley's recent announcement that it will be the policy of the Southern Railway Company to continue double-tracking its main line at points where the traffic is heaviest and traffic on the Charlotte division having reached such density as to justify the provision of some additional double-track on that division, the board of directors has authorized the construction of 32 miles of second track between Atlanta and Gainesville, Ga.

The effect of this improvement will be practically the equivalent of 46 miles of double track from Atlanta north, and will greatly facilitate the movement of trains over that important part of the system.

Work on the double-track is to be begun without delay.

In Civilized New York.

New York, May 22.—William E. Laey, a real estate man, was held up and robbed of $40 in Park Place, a few feet off Broadway, at 10 o'clock last night.

Dr. Gottlieb C. Redfelder fell a victim to a three-card monte game worked in broad daylight on Seventh avenue. A newspaper held out by a boy served as a table.

IS "SHADOW OF THE CROSS" A FAKE?

That's What Wilbur L. Wright, of Washington, Writes to The Tribune.

We have received the following letter concerning the picture, "The Shadow of the Cross," which was recently exhibited here:

Editor of The Tribune: There is a man by the name of H. K. Hannaford exhibiting a painting of Christ in different cities of your state, claiming it to be "in the Shadow of the Cross," by Henry Hammond Ahl.

I want to pronounce this man an imposter and his painting a rude imitation of the original which is not an exhibition at this time.

The original "Shadow of the Cross" is my sole property and is copyrighted in my name, hence this fake is not only bamboozing the public, but is infringing the United States copyright law and forging the name of Mr. Ahl, the artist.

The original "Shadow of the Cross" has been under the sole management of Mr. W. F. Thomas, of Washington, for the past eight years and Mr. Hannaford nor anyone else has had anything to do with it.

This counterfeit painting is shown in your cities with claims in the press that it is the original, owned by me and painted by Henry Hammond Ahl. They have even gone so far in their brazen effrontery as to copy word for word the press comments of the original and adapt them to their own use.

The claims of these bogus exhibitors are absolutely false in every particular and in behalf of your victimized citizens and in justice to this great work of art I ask you to give this letter publication.

Very truly,
WILBUR L. WRIGHT,
Washington, D. C., May 19, 1911.

Signing of Agreement Brings Peace to Mexico.

Jaurez, Mex., May 22.—Peace reigns supreme in northern Mexico tonight, where news of the signing of a peace agreement last night has penetrated. The only disquieting reports today were private advices from Mexico City that members of the "cientifico" party, deposed because of the Maderista movement, were thinking of starting a revolution against the latter.

Trouble from the "cientifico" element, it is admitted here, is expected; but whether it will take the form of armed revolt after Madero assumes power, is not yet clear.

The insurrecto troops may be kept at the various garrisons in Mexico for a few months in readiness for trouble, but no definite plans along that line have been formed by Senor Madero.

Four Asheville "Tigers" Sentenced to Roads.

Asheville, May 22.—Four of the "blind tigers" charged with violations of the "search and seizure" law were found guilty in the police court this morning and received sentences ranging from eight months to two years on the county roads. In one case prayer for judgment was continued for six months on the defendant's promise that he would never again engage in illegal liquor traffic, and that he would surrender the seized goods, valued at $1,200, to the city authorities.

The court has directed that the contents of the 53 barrels be poured into the city's gutters. It is said that the occasion will be made one of joyful celebration by the local prohibitionists.

MR. L. M. MORRISON KILLED IN RUNAWAY

FRIGHTENED MULE RUNS AWAY AND THROWS HIM FROM HIS BUGGY.

Receives Internal Injuries from Which Death Results in Half an Hour—Former Sheriff and Mayor, and one of the County's Best Citizens.

The whole city was shocked last night when the news became known that ex-Sheriff L. McKee Morrison, one of the county's best known and most highly respected citizens, was killed in a runaway accident about 6:30 o'clock just as he reached his home after returning from the city, where he had spent the day.

Sheriff Morrison had been in the city during the day yesterday and left about 5:30 o'clock for his home six miles from here in No. 1 township, driving a spirited mule to a buggy. While crossing the overhead bridge, in sight of his residence, a hand car propelled by a number of section hands of the railroad passed under him. The mule became frightened and ran away, turning in at the gate of Mr. Morrison's home at such a great rate of speed that he was thrown from his buggy, striking the ground with such force that he was fatally injured internally. His daughter, Mrs. Young, was the only person at his home. She ran to his assistance and made heroic efforts to alleviate his sufferings until his sons, who were in a nearby field, could come to his rescue. When they arrived Mr. Morrison was taken into the house, where he died a few minutes after a physician from the city arrived and about a half hour after the accident occurred.

Sheriff Morrison was 67 years of age, and a native of this county. When a very young man he enlisted in the Confederate army and served until the last year of the conflict when he lost his leg in the battle of Ream's Station, a few miles from Petersburg, Va.

Soon after the war ended he married Miss Augusta White, also of this county, a sister of Mrs. F. A. Archibald, of Concord, who died in 1882. Three children survive this union, namely: Mrs. Young, Miss Louise and Mr. P. W. Morrison, who is express messenger from Washington to Greensboro. Several years afterward he married Miss Alice McKinley, a sister of Mrs. J. C. Query, of this city, who died a few years ago, leaving six children, Miss Estelle, and Messrs. Ray, Arthur, Frank, Stafford and Louis of British Columbia.

Mr. Morrison was a man of influence and force, and always took an active part in the public affairs of his county. In 1892 he was elected Sheriff on the Democratic ticket, and re-elected in 1894, being defeated in the next election by a coalition of Populists and Republicans. After completing his term as sheriff Mr. Morrison continued to reside here and in May, 1897, he was elected mayor of the city. Mr. Morrison served only one term, and at the expiration of this he removed to his home in No. 1 township, where he since resided. He was a member of Rocky River Presbyterian church and a man of the highest character, honesty and integrity, and in his death the county has lost a good and honorable citizen.

The funeral will be held tomorrow morning at Rocky River church at 10 o'clock and the pall bearers will be as follows: Messrs. Lum Morrison, E. J. Morrison, B. L. Morrison, D. B. Morrison, Elba Morrison and James F. Russell.

Miss Laura Ridenour will leave tomorrow for Durham to attend Trinity College commencement and to visit Miss Mary Freeman.

Drainage Engineer for Cabarrus.

Mr. J. P. Allison, who has been taking an active part in an effort to secure a drainage engineer here, states that the prospects are very favorable and that the chances for securing one are increasing every day. Congressman Doughton has the matter in charge in Washington and wrote Mr. Allison yesterday that every effort to secure one is being made and that the thought the matter would be acted upon favorably within a few days. For "Young Bloods"

There is a certain indefinable but perfect obvious distinction between the Clothing we offer the "young element" and that usually created to suit youthful tastes. Ours is smart, snappy, but not foppish. Ours is different and of "cheerful" character, "clownish."

In ours the innovations are in keeping with good taste, and particularly is this expressed by the new line Washington Co. Summer Suits for men and young men which we present for summer.

There is an exclusive air about every fabric, at the out, about the hang and general appearance every single Washington garment.

We cannot tell you exactly what it is—it is an indefinable "something" but the man who comes takes a look—sees it at once.

We are exclusive representatives for this city.
