BUSINESS HONESTY.

Business men should not be Christians only when they say their prayers, but all the time The confidence of the people is necessary for the real success of any business, and the surest way to gain this coulidence is to deal honestly, tell the absolute truth, hide nothing and convince the people that they are getting a square deal. Justice is a virtue which prompts us to pay what we owe to our neighbor. It is the foundation stone of social order and of business intercourse, for if we did not believe that men had a sense of justice we would have no confidence in their integrity, and without this confidence commercial life would be paralyzed.-Cardinal Gibbons.
