

THE MARRIAGE LAST EVENING.

Beautiful Home Wedding of Mr. Harry Hopkins and Miss Frances Goodson.

A beautiful wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Goodson last evening at 7 o'clock when their eldest daughter, Miss Frances Goodson, became the bride of Mr. Harry B. Hopkins.

The ceremony was performed in the parlor, where an improvised altar, trimmed in white and decorated with ferns, had been arranged.

Immediately after the guests had assembled Miss Mattie McIneh, of Charlotte, a cousin of the bride and a most gifted vocalist, beautifully rendered "My Dear."

The soft strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march rendered by the skillful hand of Prof. R. L. Keesler, then came from the music room as the bridal party descended the stairway.

First came the ribbon girls, Helen Marsh and Isabella Goodson, daintily dressed in white with pink ribbons.

These were followed by the maid of honor, Miss Catherine Goodson, wearing pink silk and carrying pink roses. Then came the groom and his best man, Dr. R. M. King.

The bride entered on the arm of her father, wearing a stylishly tailored traveling dress with hat and gloves to match.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. J. M. Grier. Immediately after the nuptial vows had been spoken Prof. Keesler played Lohengrin's wedding march as a recessional.

and the wedding party marched to the dining room, where the wedding cake was cut. The bride presented her bouquet to her grandmother, Mrs. C. J. Goodson.

The wedding party was followed to the dining room by the guests and were served with delicacies by Misses Eugenia and Addie Lora, Frances Craven and Dora Burkhead.

In the music room punch was served by Misses Virginia Pugh and Mary Bingham.

There were many handsome and beautiful presents which attest the popularity of the young couple, among which was a chest of silver by Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Marsh.

Mr. and Mrs. Hopkins left on train No. 38 for Washington and other northern cities. On their return they will be at home at Mr. and Mrs. Goodson's.

The out-of-town guests here for the wedding were: Misses Mattie and Julia McIneh, Jessie Buchanan, Elizabeth Withers, Mr. and Mrs. F. R. McIneh, Mesdames S. C. McIneh, B. F. Withers and Oscar Thies and R. L. Keesler, of Charlotte; Misses Lillian McIneh, of Maxton, and Flora McIver, of Carthage.

MEANING OF THE PUBLIC LIBRARY.

What a Library Means to a Community.—What to Church and School for Good.

N. C. Library Bulletin. The church, the public school and the public library have come to be recognized as the greatest institutions in America, today.

There are few communities which would not provide for a public library if its advantages were properly understood and appreciated. The library becomes at once the center of the social and intellectual life of the town.

CASTRO READY TO DEFY UNCLE SAM.

Plans to Land in Haiti and Direct Revolution—Wants New Dictatorship.

Washington, June 14.—Following the definite location of Cipriano Castro on the former Italian gunboat Umbria, at Fort de Paix, Haiti, the entire force of the State Department, through its consular and diplomatic officers in the Caribbean nations, was today concentrated in an effort to prevent the deposed President of Venezuela from gaining an asylum.

The State Department is informed that Castro returned to the West Indies for the sole purpose of leading a revolution in Venezuela, with the hope of succeeding President Gomez, and becoming once more the dictator of the country.

As Castro's ship, which is now called the Consul Grostuck, and is flying the German flag, though purchased by Haiti as the beginning of a navy, a crisis in the situation was expected hourly.

The Haitian Government has been warned that the United States expects it to prevent Castro's operating from that country against Venezuela.

Venezuela next month will celebrate her 100th anniversary of independence. It is believed he calculates that he can strike the most telling blow against the Government when the country is en fete.

Two years ago when Castro attempted to return to Venezuela he was refused landing at Martinique and placed upon a vessel bound for Europe.

Such a course would undoubtedly receive, as two years ago, the support of European and American nations.

TEN BARRELS OF BOOZE SEIZED BY SHERIFF.

Secured at Cork's Crossing While Being Hauled Away From Kannapolis.

Asheville and Hendersonville recently came into the limelight by the seizure of booze and last night about 6:30 o'clock Cook's Crossing, Concord's thriving little suburb, entered the calcium with them, when Sheriff J. F. Honeycutt seized ten big round barrels, five full of liquor amounting to 62 1-2 gallons, and five barrels full of beer, from the dray wagon of Mr. H. M. Winecoff.

The booze was being hauled from Kannapolis and it is naturally supposed that it was en route to Concord. Mr. Winecoff was in no way connected with it except that it was being hauled on his wagon and, as the ownership of the stuff has not yet been established, he was cited to appear before Squire Lore this morning, which he did and the case was postponed until next Friday, on account of the absence of Attorney W. G. Means, one of the counsel.

Just who the booze belongs to and why it was being hauled to Concord has not yet come to light, although its ownership will no doubt be established at the hearing.

It was shipped to Kannapolis and bears the address of ten parties there, care of the Kannapolis Hunting Club, of which Nat Areher is manager. It is said the booze was shipped from Richmond to Kannapolis and for reasons known only to the owners it was sent away from there last night.

A man by the name of A. Hathkiss, who it is said represents a whiskey house in Richmond, is here and appears to be greatly interested in the matter.

Those connected with the booze are maintaining absolute silence and full particulars concerning the transaction will hardly be made known until the trial. In the meantime Sheriff Honeycutt has the booze and is keeping vigilant watch over it.
