NOT WHAT THE LAW INTENDED

The Southern Railvay, in compliance with the law passed by the last Legislature, has had two ticke, windows put in at the passenger station here. So far, so good. However, contrary to the law as in embod, the company has not placed a man in charge of the additional window and has left both windows to be attended by one ticket seller. Section 1 of the law is in part as follows:

That all railroad companies of one hundred miles or more in length doing business in whole or part of in the State of North Carolina are hereby required to provide and keep as all depots in cities or towns of two thousand and over in population, as fixed by the United States census of the year one thousand nine hundred and ten, two windows, opening in the waiting room for passengers of the race using the greatest amount of mileage coupon books, for sale or exchange of fares on all passenger trains of North Carolina; one of said windows to be used for sale of cash fares exclusively, and the other for the sale and exchange of mileage or coupon books. Each window to be attended by an agent whose duty it shall be to wait upon the traveling public, during the hours now prescribed, for the sale of cash fare tickets and the sale and exchange of mileage or coupon books. And that over each such window the said railroad companies shall be and they are hereby required to place and keep a sign painted in plain letters "Mileage Exchange" and "Cash Fares," respectively.

Of course no one will contend that it was not the intention of the legislators that each of the ticket windows should be provided with a ticket seller; else why the law? "Each window to be attended by an agent' means that each window is to have an agent at the same time and not that be lectured, and he would be kept in one man shall divide his time between the two windows.

It seems that the Southern has chosen to take advantage of this techni- collar, to reappear once more in charge others. A good meeting is expected ality, as at Concord, while they have of a cabman."
