AN ELEGANT RECEPTION.

Given Friday Evening at Mr. D. B. Coltrane's in Honor of Visiting Young Ladies.

Misses Ruby Elliott, of Durham; Eugenia Franklin and Juanita Masten, of Winston-Salem, and Laura McGill Cannon were the honorees at an elegant reception last evening, given by their hostess, Misses Ruth and Elizabeth Coltrane. The elegant home presented a spectacle of rare beauty and grandeur and the lovely decorations throughout had been planned and executed with the utmost care and precision and these, together with a row of electric lights stretched across the entire length of the porch, made a scene of unusual brilliancy. One hundred invitations had been issued, each guest being invited at half hour periods, beginning at 8:30 and lasting until 10:30.

The passing of each thirty minutes of the evening marked the approach and departure of a concourse of young people, causing an intermingling of each group of visitors and the exchange of friendly greetings that added a pleasant charm to the occasion.

The guests were met at the porch by little Misses Nannie Lee Patterson and Bessie Wooley and at the door by Misses Minnette Marshall and Mary Branson Coltrane, who presented to the receiving line composed of Mrs. D. B. Coltrane, Misses Ruth Coltrane, Eugenia Franklin, Ruby Elliott, Juanita Masten, Elizabeth Coltrane, and Laura McGill Cannon. These were in the parlor, which was decorated with yellow canas. Misses Lillie Howe and Jenn Coltrane received in the hall and ushered the guest into the dining room, where they were served with ice cream and angel food cake by Mesdames J. H. Rutledge, L. D. Coltrane, D. L. Bost, E. C. Barnhardt and Miss May White, the dining room table being covered with a huge bower of magnolias.

They were directed from the dining room to the library by Mesdames P. T. Durham and Eugene Cannon, where frozen fruit was served by Mesdames J. W. Cannon and A. M. Brown, assisted by Misses Ila Thompson, of Salisbury; Alice and Marshall Cole, of Raleigh and Blanche Brown, the room being profusely decorated with nasturtiums.

The reception last evening was one of the crowning events of the summer season in Concord and seldom, if ever, has it been surpassed in magnitude and splendor.

IN MEMORIAM.

Whereas, Our Heavenly Father has removed from our midst to the home above, our friend and co-worker, Mrs. Frank Brown; therefore we, the members of the Young Ladies Foreign Missionary Society of the First Presbyterian Church, Concord, N. C., wishing to show our sorrow in the loss of this faithful member, do hereby resolve:

First. That while we bow in submission to the will of God, who makes no mistakes, and who makes no mistakes, we feel that our Society has sustained a great loss in the removal of one whose gentle influence and quiet consistent life will be greatly missed both in our church and Society.

"We see but dimly through the midst and vapors:

Amid these earthly damps; What seems to us but sad funeral tapers

May be heaven's distant lamps!

Second. That we extend our tenderest sympathy to the bereaved family.

Third. That these resolutions be published in the Tribune, and entered upon the Secretary's book, and a copy sent to the family.

MRS. ELAM KING,
MRS. ED MOSS,
MISS ROSE HARRIS,
Committee.

Three Items From the China Grove Record.

H. T. Graeber left Tuesday morning for Geneseo, Ill., to visit his son John and other relatives in that section of the country. Mrs. Graeber has been there for several weeks and they will return together.

Rev. and Mrs. M. M. Noaker are making preparations for an extended western tour, visiting Denver, San Francisco, the Yellowstone Park, the Grand Canyon and points in New Mexico. They expect to leave about July 10th and will be gone about five weeks.

Walter Graham, who has been in the service of the Southern Railway for four years, has successfully stood an examination and has left to enter the navy. He left yesterday morning for Charlotte. From there he will go to Newport, R. I., and from there he will go to Norfolk, Va.

Miss Carrie Heilig, of Mr. Pleasant, is visiting Mrs. Alvin Peck.

ASSAULTS AN EDITOR.

City Editor of Durham Sun Has Fame Thrust at Him.

Durham, June 23.—City Editor Rufus Leach, formerly of the Charlotte News and of the Salisbury Post, now of the Durham Sun, won fame here today by being assaulted with a cane in the hands of R. H. Wright, the wealthy traction company president and large capitalist. The blow did no damage.

Mr. Wright's anger was aroused by a recent article in the Durham Sun which Editor Leach wrote making mention of Mr. Wright's decision to live in Durham and extending to him the glad hand of fellowship. The article grew out of a story that Mr. Wright had listed $70,000 personal property in Durham "under the persuasion of a county road sentence held over him by the county commissioners." The article telling of his listing his taxes declared that in New York Mr. Wright made affidavit that he lived in Durham and was not liable for claims there, and that in Durham the rich man claimed New as his home and evaded taxes here. It was caustic and direct in its charges. The Sun declared that he listed twice here, first several weeks ago and last within a few hours of the close of the books.

When Mr. Wright saw the reporter today he is said to have asked: "Are you the damned scoundrel who wrote that article?" An admission caused him to strike.

It was the cause of a good deal of fun. Mr. Wright has demanded a retraction under threat of suit.

To Jail Because He Wouldn't Tell.

Charlotte, June 23.—For his refusal to divulge the names of the persons or persons from which he had purchased liquor illegally in Charlotte, William Owens, formerly a member of the fire department of Charlotte, was sentenced by Desk Sergeant J. M. Scullion yesterday afternoon to serve a sentence of ten days in jail. Owens was summoned to testify under the capias ad testificandum proceedings. He was given two opportunities to answer Sergeant Scullion's question, but stoutly refused to "peach" on his friends. He is now in jail and as the sentence is for contempt of court there is no way to obtain his release except through means of a pardon.

The examination of Owens was part of a general campaign being waged by the police department, led by City Solicitor John A. Parker against violators of the prohibition law. Three other witnesses were examined and all gave testimony which will lead to the issuance of warrants. One of the witnesses, however, hesitated until swayed in the face by a jail sentence and he then reluctantly gave in.

Three Big Events at Misenheimer Springs.

In this issue Mr. V. L. Norman is advertising the "Three Big Events" at Misenheimer Springs this summer. The first is the Monster Fourth of July Celebration which is an annual occasion and is attended by people for miles around. This year it will eclipse all former occasions and it is freely predicted that five thousand people will be on the grounds that day. The most refined and cultured people attend this event and they have long ago eschewed going to some hot, dry dusty town to spend the Fourth. Go where you can luxuriate in the cooling shades and quaff the health-giving sulphur water of these celebrated springs.

At night the grand promenade concert and lawn party will be a fitting close of the day's festivities. The grounds will be lighted with bonfires and Chinese lanterns and youth and beauty will hold full sway.

Music, refreshments and a fine dinner will be a feature of the occasion. Amusement, contests and games will be indulged in, such as bowling, tennis and croquet. Bring your tennis rackets and shoes with you. Horses well cared for at the barn. Be sure to spend your Fourth at Misenheimer Springs.

Mr. Swink After Good Roads.

Salisbury Post. Editor Post:—I suppose you know there is a great awakening in our county for good roads. Every meeting of the county commissioners is attended by our people asking for good roads to be built. The commissioners are in favor of building more and better roads, but say they have not the money. Surely roads cannot be built without cash. We understand the commissioners have the right to increase the road tax ten cents on the hundred dollars and we hope they will do this, that we may be able to do more road work and repair the roads we have. Anyone that travels from Salisbury to China Grove will testify that the macadam road needs attention. Unless we do something Cabarrus and Iredell counties will take half of our trade by building good roads to the Rowan line.

Very truly,
W. J. SWINK.

Four Suspects Arrested in Spencer Burglary Case.

Spencer, July 23.—Suspected of complicity in the robbery and assault of Mrs. C. Rozzell in Spencer last night four persons were arrested by Sheriff McKenzie in various parts of Rowan county today. Two were released for lack of evidence, and two are held for investigation.

A large butcher knife and a chisel were found today where left in the room of Mrs. Rozzell last night, and it is believed murder as well as robbery was anticipated.

The injured woman, who was knocked senseless with a bedslat by the burglar, is resting well tonight.

PROHIBITION FIGURES.

Quantity of Liquor Shipped Into Dry Territory Startling.

Washington, June 23.—Approximately twenty million gallons of liquors annually are shipped by express principally from mail order houses, direct to consumers in prohibition States.

The startling fact was developed today in an inquiry conducted by the Interstate Commerce Commission into proposed changes in express classifications which may result in an advance of rates on packages containing liquors.

Commissioner McChord, who conducted the inquiry and prepared the opinion of the commission, points out that the industry directly concerned is that of the mail order liquor houses. "It was the spread of the prohibition movement," the opinion says, "that gave vitality to this character of traffic in liquor. With State-wide prohibition came the interstate traffic in liquor. The decision of the Supreme court that this traffic was interstate and, therefore, superior to interference by the State governments gave the industry a tremendous impetus and established the express companies as the carriers of practically the whole of this traffic."

Jacksonville, Fla., probably the largest shipping point for liquor in the South, sends out between three and four thousand packages of one or two gallons duty, or a total of about one and one-half million gallons a year. Chattanooga ships about 786,000 gallons; Richmond 546,720 gallons; Petersburg 268,128; Pensacola 267,760; New Orleans 255,856; Augusta 215,150; and Norfolk, Va., Cairo, Ill., Emporia, Va., Louisville, Ky., Portsmouth, Va., Roanoke, Va., and Savannah Ga., ship more than 100,000 gallons each annually.

"The movement is much more active in the South than in other sections of the country, partly because of the extent of the prohibition territory in that section, partly because of the large quantities of very cheap whiskey manufactured and shipped there for the consumption of the negro population."

The opinion concludes with the statement that although it is not the intention of the commission to dwell upon the moral aspect of the situation, it is considered that the traffic has an evil effect on, and is one of the most important factors in the race problem of the South.

At Central Methodist Church Tomorrow.

Services at 11 a. m., by the pastor. At 8 p. m. there will be a union service of the congregations of All Saints' Episcopal and Central Methodist churches at Central church, to be addressed by Mr. Francis H. Ball. His subject will be, "Life and Customs of Native Africans." Mr. Ball is peculiarly fitted to talk on this subject and the public is cordially invited to hear him.

He's From Missouri; You Have to Show Him.

Governor Folk is from Missouri. He's regarded as a pretty good citizen himself. See what he says about a certain sort of citizen:

"I do not believe in the mail order citizen. IT IS BETTER THAT WE SHOULD HAVE A THOUSAND TOWNS THAN ONE LARGE CITY. If a place is good enough for a man to make his money in, it certainly should be good enough for him to spend his money in. The merchants have a just right to all the business of the town in which they have their stores, and every good citizen will help them to get it."

Did you ever see a FINE LARGE FACT so simply stated?
