WEEKLY WAGE FOR WOMAN.
$12 the Least She Can Live on in Simple Comfort.
ON LESS SHE MERELY EXISTS

Mrs. Robins, President of the Women's Trade Union Leagues, Says the Republic Should Put an End to the Existing Conditions.

"No working woman can possibly live in simple comfort on less than $12 a week," declared Mrs. Robins, president of the Women's Trade Union Leagues.

"If her wages fall below that amount she merely exists," Mrs. Robins continued. "She is obliged to deny herself proper food and suitable clothing. Until such time as votes for women prevail the women wage-workers must join a union and go on strike, if necessary, for the protection denied them under man-made laws."

On the question of marriage Mrs. Robins said: "A trade union girl might perhaps become the wife of a passive nonunionist and still be happy, but under no circumstances should she marry a pronounced anti-trade unionist regardless of his wealth and social standing."

"If work is not only wearisome in its monotony and long hours, but dangerous, because it calls for no development of initiative and judgment and arouses no creative faculties, and if to this is added the still greater danger of a wage on which the women and girls cannot even live while they are working, then it would seem imperative that the republic should see to it that these conditions making for slavery come to an end."

Lesson For Employers.
 Mrs. Robins said that when employers say girls should not earn a large wage because they live at home they should be reminded of the fathers and brothers or husbands who support these girls, and it would be well for the workmen to ask themselves if they could not find a more profitable investment for their earnings than to furnish the means of support to their daughters when their work entitles them to a self supporting wage.

"If the spark plug is missing," she continued, "a $5,000 automobile cannot move an inch. Can we learn to look upon a trade in its entirety and determine the wage by the fact that the work of each individual is important to the production of the whole, or shall we change front and consider the economic value? We see the young girl a human being with all the possibilities of the strength and power of womanhood, with the potentialities of motherhood, with the value of citizenship. The state has made provision for the protection of her health and has contributed to her education. Is it not natural, therefore, that the state should be beginning to insist that it cannot afford to lose so continuously by the defeated young lives that go down in the industrial world?"

FLOUNCES ARE ADJUSTABLE.
 Several Entries to Button on Close Fitting Jersey Petticoat, Matching Various Gowns.

Adjustable flounces in petticoats are not entirely new, but until recently it has not been easy to buy ready-made these convenient transformations. Now one can indulge in a close fitting jersey top—which will outwear half a dozen flounces—and with it several ruffles to button on.

One of these flounces can be of soft satin finely knife plaited and edged with a ruche; another more serviceable of mottreen, tucked and with a narrow plaiting at bottom; a third of changeable silk.

The flounces are finished with a buttonholed band, while buttons to correspond are placed on the petticoat. In this way it is easy to use remnants of dress lining and have a petticoat to match each gown.

Such a petticoat is convenient for the traveler, as the flounces fold into much smaller compass than the same number of skirts.

GO TO THE RESCUE.
 Don't Wait till it's Too Late—Follow the Example of a Concord Citizen.

R. C. Benfield, 71 W. Academy St., Concord, N. C., says: "I am glad to confirm the public statement I made three years ago, recommending Doan's Kidney Pills. I have had little cause to worry about my condition since that time. Dull pains across the small of my back caused me intense suffering and there was a soreness through my kidneys. Hearing of Doan's Kidney Pills, I got a supply at Gibson's Drug Store, and the contents of three or four boxes was all that was required to cure me. I advise other kidney sufferers to use Doan's Kidney Pills."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50c. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's and take no other.

Cannon & Fetzer Co.

The standpat Republicans in the Senate have seen their forces put to utter rout, and realize that their once powerful and apparently impregnable machine which dominated the Senate and really ran the country has struck the rocks. Last Thursday they suddenly yielded the fruits of the Democratic-Insurgent victory of the day before, reporting to the Senate the Underwood Wool bill and the Democratic Free List Bill, both of which Democratic measures it had been planned to smother in the Finance Committee. It was the greatest victory for the people that has been won in Congress since the claws of Cannon were clipped in the House in the last session, and it is full of significance for the future. It has tilted the Democrats with enthusiasm and confidence and the Republicans with gloom and forebodings showing the split in their party deeper and more irreconcilable than ever. With the House in the hands of the Democrats and the Senate practically under Democratic control the only citadel left to the Republican party is the White House. There sits their President, unsupported by either faction and undesired by both. He is a president without party and about the only thing upon which the standpat and Insurgent leaders are in accord is the conviction that he will not be president after March 4, 1913.

The jumping-rope facilities are about due, and now is the time for parents and teachers to warn children against the dangers of the practice, which is almost as menacing to girls as the summer swimming risk is to boys. The season has already begun with a girl of eleven in New York at the point of death from jumping the rope 1,000 times.

Machine Tucks.
 A peculiarity of some of the very prettiest French lingerie waists of the season is that the tucks are put on by machine and not by hand, although the waists are trimmed with real lace and a bit of hand embroidery. The reason is that they are intended for wear, and only machine-run tucks will stand the summer resort washerwoman.

"Hand-run tucks run," said a lover of fine stitching. "If you look at them they run, and the fine thread necessary for fine handwork has no show whatever in a steam laundry. In my opinion that is where these so-called hand laundresses send their work, for no two hands could finish the amount some women take home and return on time. The most expensive waists I have last no time at all when I am away for the summer unless they are dry cleaned, and for that they have to be sent to town, and it's an expensive proposition."

Excursion to Wilmington
 All arrangements have been completed for the ninth annual Excursion to Wilmington, operated by the Pritchard Memorial Baptist Sunday School, which leaves the Seaboard depot at Charlotte at 8 o'clock next Wednesday morning the 28th inst., arriving in Wilmington at 2 o'clock P. M., and returning leaves Wilmington Friday morning the 30th inst., 9 A. M. A boat trip down the Cape Fear River and out to the ocean will be operated by Capt. J. W. Harper, owner and manager of the Steamer Wilmington on Thursday, the boat leaving Market street wharf at 10 o'clock sharp, A. M., which makes at Car and Southport, from thence out to sea, which returns to Wilmington about 5 o'clock P. M. Ample provision for refreshments and diner will be served on the boat. This has always proven to be one of the most delightful features of the trip. The committee is looking forward to the largest crowd they have handled in many years. They have, therefore, ordered two extra coaches to amply accommodate the crowds. One coach will be reserved for the Sunday school and the rear car will be used as a reserved seat car. Seats can be purchased and reserved ahead by application to Mr. F. D. Letho at the Charlotte Steam Laundry. The management positively asserts that special rate of $2 per day has been secured from both the Seaboard and the Oceanic hotels, which in itself is quite a drawing card. Parties from Concord and north can reach Charlotte in ample time by morning train No. 45 over Southern Railway, which reaches Charlotte 7:10 A. M.

Historic Flag.
 Banner That Inspired Key is to Wave at Fort McHenry.

The original "star spangled banner," the flag that inspired Francis Scott Key to write the anthem, is to be again unfurled over the ramparts of historic Fort McHenry, Md., on Sept. 12, the anniversary of the battle of North Point.

The old flag is in possession of Eben Appleton of New York and is stored in a safe deposit vault in that city. Mr. Appleton is a descendant of Lieutenant Colonel George Armistead, who commanded the garrison at Fort McHenry during the British bombardment.

President Taft is to be asked to deliver an address at the patriotic celebration, and a request will be made of the British government to send a warship as an evidence of the friendly spirit between the two nations. It is hoped to see the British warship salute the old banner at which British guns were fired.

Her Period of Quietude.
 It is said to be customary in Bulgaria for a newly married woman to exchange no conversation with any outsider during the first month following the wedding. She is permitted to open her mouth only for the necessary purpose of eating and drinking and is allowed to reply to her husband when the latter chooses to address her. To this custom is attributed the fact that the honeymoon in Bulgaria lasts an entire month.

COMES A TIME.
 When Coffee Shows What it Has Been Doing.

"Of late years coffee has disagreed with me," writes a matron from Rome, N. Y.

"The heaviest was when it upset my stomach completely, destroying my appetite and making me nervous and irritable, and sent me to my bed. After one of these attacks, in which I nearly lost my life, I concluded to quit the coffee and try Postum."

"It went right to the spot! I found it not only a most palatable and refreshing beverage, but a food as well."

"All my ailments, the 'loginess' and dizziness, the unsatisfactory condition of my blood, my nervousness and irritability disappeared in short order and my sorely afflicted stomach began quickly to recover. I began to rebuild and have steadily continued until now. Have a good appetite and am rejoicing in sound health which I owe to the use of Postum." Name Given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

TWINS WED TWINS.
 Tabler Brothers of Missouri Wed Moore Sisters of Texas.

A courtship which began in April, 1910, between Lorand and Leland Tabler of Adrian, Mo., twin brothers, and Alta and Alma Moore of San Marcos, Tex., twin sisters, has just ended in a double wedding.

The Tabler twins couldn't be told apart. They never were separated even for a day. Friends of the Moore twins could not tell which was which, and they, too, never have been separated.

The Tabler boys met the Moore girls when on a visit to Texas in April, 1910. The girls were students at the San Marcos normal school. The husbands are twenty-three years old and the wives twenty-one.

Salisbury Post.
 Says the Concord Tribune: "Concord is the only city or town in the State that has trolleyless street cars, and it enjoys the further distinction of being the only city in the state that has ailed streets." And while this may all be true, Brother Sherrill, you stand "charged" with doing some "sick" stunts down your way.

GOLDSBORO HEARD FROM

A Lady Who Lives in Goldsboro Joins in the Chorus of Praise for Cardui, The Woman's Tonic.

Goldsboro, N. C.—"A physician treated me for many distressing symptoms," writes Mrs. Etta A. Smith, "but gave me no relief."

"I suffered with neuralgia around the heart and was troubled at times with my head. I had pain in my left side, bowels, left thigh, shoulders and arms."

"After taking Cardui, I am now well and can recommend it to other suffering women."

Just such doubtful symptoms, as those from which Mrs. Smith suffered, are the ones for which it will pay you to take Cardui, the woman's tonic.

It is at such times, when there is nothing to show, for certain, the real cause of the trouble, that you need a tonic, to give the body strength to throw off the illness that evidently threatens.

Take Cardui, when you are ill, with the ailments of your sex. Take Cardui as a tonic, to prevent illness, when you feel it coming.

Your druggist keeps it.
