ALUMNAE ASSOCIATION OF STATE NORMAL.

Cabarrus to Raise $1,000 for the Melver Loan Fund.

The Cabarrus County Alumnae Association of the State Normal and Industrial College met at the court house yesterday afternoon in the interest of the Melver Loan Fund. Miss Summerill of the college, who is actively engaged in the work of raising this fund, met with the alumnae and explained its purpose and the object. Several citizens of the city met with the association. Miss Summerill gave a review of the founding of the Melver Loan Fund, saying at the death of Dr. Melver the alumnae of the college met together to decide upon some plan whereby the life of the distinguished educator might be fittingly commemorated. And after going over various plans, they decided to raise $50,000 for the purpose of loaning to needy and ambitious girls in order that they might receive a college education. Local alumnae associations were organized in the various counties in the State and the sum of $22,000 was soon pledged $1,000. This loan fund will enable 50 girls to secure an education who otherwise would not be able to do so. Cabarrus county has raised a little over $100 of this amount and the meeting yesterday was for the purpose of stimulating interest in his undertaking. After discussing the matter at length it was decided to have the alumnae to make a thorough canvass of the county and make an effort to get a hundred men who give $5.00 each and one hundred who will give $2.50 each and the remainder to be paid in small amounts. A committee composed of Miss Adelle White, chairman, Miss Grace and Willie White and Miss Zula Patterson was appointed to take up this work, and with the assistance of the other members of the alumnae make a thorough canvass.

BASEBALL GAME FRIDAY.

Cincoes Defeat Locke Mill Team by a Score of 5 to 3.

The Cincoes continued their victorious path yesterday afternoon by defeating Locke Mill by the score of 5 runs to 3 for the second consecutive time. Paul Means started the twirling for the Cincoes and Sapp opposed him. Means lasted but one inning before the heavy artillery of the Lockeites and Ross Cannon went to the rifle pit. Cannon gave by far the classiest exhibition of the pitching art that has been witnessed here this season, causing fourteen men to cut gasches in the torrid atmosphere in vain effort to connect with the elusive sphere, and allowed only three scattered bingles. Both teams put up a creditable article of ball and a good crowd was present.

The hitting and catching of Patterson and Grier's nifty work at first featured for the Cincoes, and Goodman's work behind the bat for the Lockeites was of the stellar order.

Batteries: Means, Cannon and Patterson; Sapp and Goodman. The Cincoes and Kannapolis Y. M. C. A. will play at the Locke park this afternoon at 4:30 o'clock.

ASKS JUSTICE FOR FARMERS.

Senator Simmons Introduces Changes in the Reciprocity Pact.

In a speech in the Senate Thursday on the Canadian reciprocity treaty Senator Simmons said: "An effort has been made in some quarters in North Carolina to create the impression that I am opposed to this pact because it removes the duty on lumber. I deny this. I have no interest in timber or lumber. The lumber industry is the largest single industry of the state and of course I am interested in its prosperity, but I am under no different or greater obligation to it than I am to any and every other industry of the state."

"I have heretofore been and am now opposed to putting lumber on the free list unless there is a general reduction in duties or unless the machinery used in its manufacture, which greatly adds to the cost of its production, is also put upon the free list."

"The Democratic state executive committee in the campaign of 1908 promised the lumber people of the State that notwithstanding our national platform declaration in favor of free lumber that no Democratic Senator or Representative from North Carolina would vote to put it on the free list unless the machinery used in its production was also put on the free list or the duties greatly reduced."

"The duty on lumber that I, together with all the Democratic Congressmen from the State except one, voted for amounts to 7 per cent ad valorem. I am advised through the Treasury Department that this duty is producing the largest amount of revenue of any duty equally as low in the Payne-Aldrich bill. It has therefore proven to be an excellent revenue producing duty as I contended it was and would prove to be."

"The Democratic House of Representatives has just passed the woolen bill with the unanimous vote of that body. It will receive the unanimous support of the Democrats in the Senate. This bill imposes a duty of 42 per cent upon woolen goods. Upon what principle can a higher revenue producing duty of 7 per cent on lumber, the material out of which the houses are made and in which the people live are made, be said to be a protective duty while a 42 per cent duty on the material out of which clothes the people wear are made is only a revenue duty? Why should I be denounced as a protectionist when I vote for a small but high revenue producing on the leading product of my state and applauded as a good tariff for revenue Democrat when I vote for a six times higher duty on an outside but little better revenue product of my State and which in no better revenue producer?"

"It is true this reciprocity agreement discriminates unjustly against the lumberman as it does the farmer. It discriminates against the lumberman by reducing the duty on dressed lumber imported into this country from Canada to an average of about $1 a thousand, while it provides that lumber imported from this country into Canada shall pay a duty of about $4.50 a thousand. There is nothing reciprocal in that and why anybody living in a state where lumber is the biggest industry should want to make that sort of an arrangement with a competing industry is more than I can understand."

"I am opposed to this treaty because it puts the farmer's product on the free list while retaining high duties upon everything that he buys in making his crop. It puts his wheat and live stock on the free list but in practical effect it increases from 100 per cent to 200 per cent the duties on meat and flour manufactured out of these raw materials of the farm. The price of the farmer's product will thus be reduced, the profits of the beef trust and miller trust will be enormously increased, while the consumer, in whose interest we promised tariff revision, will get no benefit from what the farmer loses."

"Under this treaty as now arranged the chief sufferers will be the farmer and the landowner and the general consumer will get no benefit. In these conditions I have insisted and do insist that the treaty be amended by putting meat and flour on the free list so that the beef trust and the flour trust will get the benefit of what the farmer loses and that an independent section be added to the treaty putting agricultural implements, and other farm supplies on the free list so that the farmer may be compensated in some measure for the loss he sustains in having his product put on the free list."

At some early date the contract for the fourth of this group will be let. This will stand above the academic building, which has been used the past winter. It will be the twin dormitory of sixty bed rooms, and with the nearly completed one will make the two prettiest dormitories in the southland. The date of that contract cannot be guessed. Perhaps by late time the first will have been completed. Mr. Cook found the work going on in a most emphatic way, very pleasing to him as the designer.

Paupers Will No Longer be Buried at the Expense of City or County.

No longer will paupers, whose relatives fail to pay the funeral, be buried at the expense of the towns or counties in North Carolina. Instead their bodies as well as those of criminals under certain conditions will be used for dissecting purposes in the medical schools of the state. This is the law. It was enacted at the last session of the legislature. Few people among the laymen, knew it perhaps.

According to this law the medical schools of the state must pay the expense of having the bodies embalmed and of shipping them to the dissecting rooms of the various institutions in the state where the medical course is given.

Owing to the present operation of this law the city authorities will no longer grant a permit for the burial of any body at the expense of the city neither the county authorities.
