Democrats in Factional Strife.

Harrisburg, Pa., July 18 .- Pretty nearly every Democrat of prominence in Pennsylvania appears to have arrived in town today in anticipation of the meeting of the State Committes tomorrow. Though some of the old wheel-horses of the party are busy in an effort to promote harmony, there is every prospect that the differences of the rival factions will be fought out to the finish, with a posibility that the fight may be earried into court for a final sattlement. Control of the State delegation to the next national State delegation to the next national convention is the prize sought by both factions.
