Another Great Famine is Expected in China.

New York, Aug. 2.—The Christian Herald announces that it has received the following cable message from Shanghai, China:

"All Yangtze flooded. Awful destruction and death. Terrible famine this autumn."

"BEALS."
"Wuhü, China."

It is said by those who have made the message public that it would seem to indicate that the relief which the spring crops was expected to bring to the famine-stricken districts of China has been dissipated by another inundation of the country in the districts where the famine has raged for the last few months. It is asserted that if the condition is as severe as the cable message intimates, it would seem that the suffering during the coming fall and winter will be even greater than that of last season.

The Concord Lyceum Course.

As has been previously announced, Concord is to have a Lyceum Course this season, the best that money can buy. Six attractions have been secured.

The Hon. Frank J. Hanly, of Indiana, has no peer on the lecture platform today. A finished scholar and broad-minded statesman, a polished orator—he comes to Concord for his initial appearance—with a message that all should heed. Ralph Parlette, the editor of "Lycenism and Talent," is a humorous philosopher, who tells an old-fashioned story in his own inimitable way. A "chalk-talkist," a male quartet, a concert company, and Edwin Weeks' company of specialty artists, constitute the rest of the course. All the story of the merit of these attractions cannot be told here. Everyone who is interested in the best things for Concord is expected to help this good work along by the purchase of one or more season tickets at the absurdly low price of $2.00 for a single course ticket.

The Excursion to Norfolk.

Many Concord and Cabarrus people will go on the Southern's big excursion to Norfolk on Tuesday, August 8. The train will leave Concord at 6 o'clock p. m. on that day, and arrive in Norfolk at 6:30 o'clock Wednesday morning. This special train will consist of day coaches and Pullman sleeping cars. Two days and one night will be spent at the seashore. The round trip fare from Concord will be only $4.50. See big ad. in The Times today.

A Reunion.

We are requested to publish the following:

There will be a reunion at the Grandma Little old homestead, in the 10, August 18. We hope the grandchildren and great-grandchildren and all the friends will be there. Everybody is cordially invited and to bring a full basket. Hope every body will understand the place, about two miles from Bost Mill.

Mills Start Up.

The Cannon mills will start operation in the morning, after being closed down for several days on account of the power being off. The part of the Cabarrus mill that uses primary power is now in operation. The Gibson mill resumed work today at noon and it is probably that the Locke mills will start up in the morning.

Mrs. Bennett and daughter, Miss Laura Bennett, of Camilla, Ga., are visiting relatives in the county. Mrs. Bennett was in Concord yesterday for the first time since seven years before the war between the States, and, as might be expected, she expressed herself as amazed at its growth and development.

Training School Defeats Sossamon.

The Jackson Training School defeated Sossamon school yesterday afternoon in a fast and snappy game of ball by the score of 5 to 4. Kizer and Sides formed the battery for Jackson and Garmon and White held up that end for Sossamon. The game was witnessed by a good crowd and was interesting throughout.

Barn Destroyed by Fire.

A barn belonging to Mr. C. C. Hill, of Glass, was destroyed by fire yesterday afternoon about 6 o'clock. The origin of the fire is unknown and when discovered it had gained such headway that Mr. Hill and his neighbors were powerless to cope with it. A small quantity of grain and feed stuff and three hogs were burned. A cow, two horses and several vehicles were saved. The loss is estimated at $200 with no insurance.

The Charlotte Chronicle is inclined to the view that if any more praying is done than usual it would be in order for the people to petition for forgiveness of their sins, rather than for rain. It takes the good, old orthodox view that the calamity of drought may have been visited upon the community for the purpose, and that that purpose can best be recognized by prayer for spiritual regeneration rather than for a downpouring of water.

Bishop Mallalien, of the Methodist Episcopal church, probably the oldest minister in point of service, died at his home at Aubundale, Mass., Monday night, aged 83. He had been declining for several years. His death was caused by old age.

WASHINGTON AWAILS

ADMIRAL TOGO.

Celebrated Japanese Naval Commander to be in New York Tomorrow.

Washington, August 3.—Chandler Hale, Third Assistant Secretary of State, and Captain Potts and Lieutenant Cook of the navy, have gone to New York to receive Admiral Togo, the celebrated Japanese naval commander, who is a passenger on the Lusitania which is due to reach port at a late hour tonight or early tomorrow morning. Secretary Hale and the two naval officers have been detailed as aides to the Japanese admiral and will accompany him wherever he goes during his brief stay in the United States.

According to present plans Admiral Togo will come to Washington immediately upon his arrival in the country to pay his respects to President Taft. He will remain in the capital four days, during which time he will be elaborately entertained. President Taft will give a big dinner in his honor at the White House Saturday evening. Baron Uchida, the Japanese ambassador, will entertain Sunday evening and on the two evenings following similar functions will be given by Secretary of State Knox and Secretary of the Navy Meyer.

The stay in Washington will end at noon Wednesday, when Admiral Togo and his party will depart for Philadelphia. Thursday will be spent in the City of Brotherly Love. They will come a visit of five days in New York city. The big feature of the entertainment programme in the metropolis will be an elaborate dinner to be given by the Japanese society of New York.

From New York Admiral Togo will proceed to Boston, arriving there on August 16. From Boston it is expected that the party will go direct to Niagara Falls, where the American society will say good-by to the distinguished visitor, who will go from the falls to Montreal to begin his journey across Canada to Vancouver from which point he is to sail for home.

The Concord Veteran Choir at Greensboro.

The Greensboro Record of August 1 has the following:

The special train for Confederate veterans run from Charlotte to Wilmington passed through Greensboro this morning at 11 o'clock. About 35 members of the Guilford Camp boarded the special train for the seashore reunion. The train consisted of six coaches and was well loaded with the vets.

White at the station the squad from Camp No. 212, of Concord, got off and, forming on the platform, sang several songs to the delight of the large crowd which gathered about the aged warriors. These old men sang in voices grown mellow and sweet with age, and despite the influence of the years they were yet strong and true.

"Tenting on the Old Camp Ground," "Dixie" and other favorites followed each other in beautiful harmony. Confederate war songs were sung and one telling of heroes and of battles, sung to the tune of "Ye Old Time Religion," seemed especially like an echo from a triumphant battle field and the staunch, true, life and devotion of the camp, when these men once young and brave followed Lee and Jackson to the cannon's mouth.

A young Miss, about 12 years of age, was with the Concord delegation as mascot and she assisted in the impromptu entertainment at the station by reciting a story of heroic days and deeds. The Concord bunch will find ready hearers wherever they go if they sing as they sang here.

So far, twelve summons have been issued against the Seaboard railroad by victims of the Hamlet wreck, giving notice of their intention to start suit for the recovery of damages.

ENTOMBED THREE DAYS.

Miner Relates Remarkable Experience While Under Ground.

Joplin, Mo., Aug. 2.—Standing on a high section of ground not yet reached by the steadily rising water, Joseph Clary, who has been entombed 78 feet deep in a mine here since Sunday morning, late last night related his remarkable experience to men on the surface. Communication was obtained with the young man by means of a telephone.

As he told of his long vigil in absolute darkness fraught now with hope, now with bitter disappointment, but never with despair, he interrupted the conversation now and then to receive supplies of food lowered through the five-inch shaft, which, after three holes were bored in vain, finally reached the drift where he was held a prisoner.

The suspense he suffered is indicated in part of his story as told over the telephone. He said:

"I tried to count the strokes of the drill and was able to gauge time a little by the pounding of the bit. Hours passed until I heard the drill cutting into the hardground, but I could not locate the sound in the darkness."

"Soon the drilling stopped. I knew they had missed the drift. As time passed and I could hear no sound I could picture them making new calculations. I was not surprised when I heard the drilling of the first hole."

"All the time the water was rising a little higher, but I was not worried; I was hungry, but I tried to keep from thinking about anything to eat. It was hard to keep from thinking about it, however, and I drank a lot of water from the drift."

"After a while I felt a draft of fresh air, and I knew the drill had cut into the drift. But in the darkness I could not locate it. I called with all my might, but could not make myself heard. It was maddening."

"Then when I heard the drilling again in a new location I was discouraged for the first time. But not for a minute did I give up hope."

"It was the same thing over and over again for the next few hours, I grew ravenously hungry all the time, but tried to forget it. I busied myself as much as possible until the fourth drill hole penetrated the roof of the drift. It took me a long time to locate the hole."

To Discuss Railroad Rates.

St. Louis, Mo., August, 3.—A conference of attorneys general from ten States is to be held in this city tomorrow for the discussion of the 2-cent fare dispute and other pending railroad rate litigation. The states to be represented are Oregon, Kentucky, South Dakota, Arkansas, Iowa, Nebraska, Kansas, Oklahoma, Minnesota and Missouri.

Hay Fever and Summer Colds.

Must be relieved quickly and Foley's Honey and Tar Compound will do it. E. M. Stewart, 1034 Wolfram St., Chicago, writes: "I have been greatly troubled during the hot summer months with Hay Fever and find that by using Foley's Honey and Tar Compound I get great relief." Many others who suffer similarly will be glad to benefit by Mr. Stewart's experience. M. L. Marsh, Druggist.

UNDERWOOD HURLS

THE LIE AT BRYAN.

Denouncement of Thrice Leader of Democracy Acclaimed by Members Who Stood on Chairs And Madly Yelled and Waved.

Washington, Aug. 2.—Standing upon chairs, waving handkerchiefs and yelling at the tops of their voices Democratic representatives today acclaimed R representative Oscar W. Underwood, of Alabama, Democratic leader of the house, when he fired a verbal broadside at William Jennings Bryan for criticizing his position on extension of the tariff revision program. It was the most remarkable scene in the House since the beginning of the extra session of Congress.

Excoriating the three times candidate of the Democratic party for presidential honors, Leader Underwood denounced Mr. Bryan's attitude as to revision of the iron and steel tariff schedules, and said that Bryan had placed upon every Democratic member implications unfounded on face. He called on his Democratic colleagues of the ways and means committee for corroboration of his attitude in the committee and in the caucus.

Mr. Underwood was backed up in a similarly striking speech by Representative Kitchin, of North Carolina, long a devoted friend of Mr. Bryan. Mr. Kitchin expressed surprise that any Democrat should so malign Mr. Underwood and the party.

If Underwood's attack was remarkable for its bitterness and vigor, it was not more so than the general applause which greeted his sarcastic references to the Nebraska leader, and his peevish and complete denials of the charges made by Bryan.

Mr. Kitchin referred to Mr. Underwood's frank statement about his iron company holdings and said he had expected that it might be made an occasion by our opponents to slander and libel the Alabamian and the position of this Democratic House, but I never dreamed that any Democrat in this country would attempt to malign Mr. Underwood or the Democratic party."

SITUATION IS RELIEVED.

Charlotte Connects With Briser Creek and Has Plenty of Water.

Charlotte, August 2.—Overcoming obstacles that might well have dismayed a city thrice its size, Charlotte has conquered the forces of nature and by artificial means has solved the water supply problem. Tonight a generous supply of pure water is flowing through the mains, the sewerage system is complete and the means of fire protection are more adequate than before the water was shut off last Friday.

The big reservoir, holding 2,000,000 gallons, is full; Stewart's creek is flowing 300,000 gallons into the settling basins, while water trains from the Catawba, on regular schedule, augmented by the supply from neighboring towns, bring the daily supply from outside sources to nearly 2,000,000 gallons a day. Connection was made today with Briser creek, which will furnish nearly 1,000,000 gallons daily, and this will be held in reserve in the event of continued or continued drought.

Tank cars filled to the brim have been distributed on the railroad lines which encompass the city for the use of fire steamers, notwithstanding the fact that the fire protection through the mains is ample. Fifty extra tanks are ready if needed in emergency to augment the already adequate supply. Reports from outlying points indicate little improvement so far as crops are concerned, nor is the prospect of cities and towns that are facing water problems, but from tomorrow Charlotte people will have forgotten that they ever experienced the inconvenience of a water famine.

No rain has fallen since the showers of Monday, but atmospheric conditions, according to the weather bureau, promise relief for the entire section.

An election is to be held in Canada on the 21st of September for new members of the Canadian parliament and the main issue during the campaign will be the reciprocity question, and it is arousing much interest and feeling and the campaign is expected to be quite vigorous if not bitter.
