JOHN M. OGLESBY, City Diltor.

Concord, N. C., August 21, 1911.

"Prospects for the election of a Democratic President have never 1902-Gen. Franz Sigel, a noted Unbeen brighter," declares Hon. James T. Lloyd, of Missouri, chairman of the National Democratic Congressional committee, who was in charge of the campaign which resulted in the present heavy Democratic majority in the House. "The Democratic party is popular from one end of the country to the other because the present House has carried out pre-election promises, and made a creditable showing in every way," continued Mr. Lloyd. "The many investigations conducted by Democratic com- city, August 21, 1877. He spent his tion of every intelligent man in the country that the Republicans are guilty of mal-administration, and should be relieved of the power."

"Taft and sure defeat, or La Follette with a chance to win!" This cry has been taken up anew by the genuine Republican insurgents since La Follette co-operated with the Democrats in an honest endeavor to revise the tariff downward from the Aldrich-Payne rates. The indications are that if Mr. Taft obtains a renomination the Roosevelt and La Follette hosts will hardly raise their fingers, much less their voices to help him.
