JOHN M. O'LEARY, City Editor. Concord, N. C., August 29, 1911.

POLITICS AND POLITICIANS.

Congressman Bartlett, of Nevada, has entered the University of Nevada as a freshman. Mobile has adopted the commission plan, after an experience of more than 200 years under the aldermanic form of city government.

Rev. Dr. Robert Watson, a Presbyterian minister, has entered the race for mayor of Cincinnati on an independent ticket. Connecticut delegates to the next national Democratic convention will urge the nomination of Governor Baldwin for the vice presidency.

At a special election to be held September 27 the voters of Atlanta will decide upon the acceptance or rejection of the commission plan of government. Former Governor Malcolm R. Patterson is mentioned for the Democratic nomination for congressman in the Tenth Tennessee district, to succeed the late General Gordon.

Five states now have the Presidential preference primary law. They are Oregon, Nebraska, Wisconsin, New Jersey and South Dakota.

Col. Leonidas F. Livingston, who represented the Fifth Georgia district in congress for many years, until his defeat in the last election, is to become a candidate for the seat of Representative Tribble, of the 8th district.

Democratic leaders in North Dakota are working quietly to enlist the support of other western states in a movement to secure the vice presidential nomination for John Burke, who is now serving his third term as Governor of North Dakota.

Not the least discouraged by four defeats, officers of the Oregon State Equal Suffrage Association are preparing to wage a most vigorous campaign to carry the State for woman's suffrage at the presidential election to be held next year.

The death of Senator Frye of Maine has left Senator Cullom, of Illinois, as the ranking member of the upper house in point of continuous service. Senator Cullom was first elected to the senate in 1883, eight years before the election of Senator Gallinger, of New Hampshire, who is the second oldest member.

Congressman David J. Lewis, of Maryland and William B. Wilson, of Pennsylvania, began their careers as breaker boys in the coal mines, while Congressman Carl C. Anderson, of Ohio takes pride in recalling the days of his youth, when he earned his living as a newsboy and bootblack.

Charles R. Crisp, of Georgia, who succeeded Asher Hinds, of Maine, as parliamentary of the national house of representatives, hopes to emulate the example of Mr. Hinds in becoming a member of the house. Mr. Crisp, who is a son of the late Speaker Charles F. Crisp, has announced himself a candidate for congress from the new Twelfth district of Georgia.

The contest for Governor of Massachusetts this year is expected to be unusually lively and interesting. Governor Eschscholtz has been mentioned in connection with the nomination for vice president, will be named by the Democratic party to succeed himself. Lieutenant Governor Frothingham is a candidate for the Republican nomination for Governor, as are also Joseph Walker and Norman White, both members of the general assembly.

"Shoo Fly, Don't Bother Me." Western Recorder. Eminent authorities are now advising the greatest possible precautions against the house fly. In several of the larger cities all fruit vendors are required to keep their fruit covered to prevent the spread of diseases by this pestilent insect. Some idea of the destructive powers of this deadly little demon may be gained from the following language of America's greatest physicians.

"He destroys more human lives every year than all lions, tigers, wolves and venomous serpents put together." It is now claimed, by those in a position to know, that typhoid fever and tuberculosis are quite frequently communicated by the house fly. If this be true, and we have no reason whatever to doubt it, it is high time that we address ourselves to the task of exterminating this deadly nuisance.

They are Married Now. The Monroe Enquirer says: "You probably remember seeing in the last issue of the Enquirer an account of the flogging of a young man, Columbus Spradley, near Aiken, S. C., by the relatives of a young woman named Holstein, to whom Spradley was engaged to be married. If you recall the article you will remember that Mrs. Ben Spradley died of nervous fright because of the flogging given the boy and her husband. We call attention to that matter just to say that a day or two after the flogging and after the Holsteins who took part in it were safe in Aiken County jail that Columbus Spradley and the Holstein girl slipped off and were married. All of which goes to show that when a boy and girl take a notion to get married they are going to get married."

NO. 5 TOWNSHIP.

A fine light rain in No. 5 last Friday night, and once again a happy people. Mr. Walter Edgison was aroused from his sleep last Friday night by the squalling of a hen. When he arrived at the hen house he found a large chicken snake coiled by the side of a hen and her chicks. The snake had two chicks and one leg of the old held in his grip. He was in the act of swallowing the live one when Mr. Edgison plunged a pitchfork into the snake. Its length was six feet and four inches.

The turnip crop will the lightest we have had in fifty years on account of no rain to sprout the seed. Many dollars were lost in No. 5 this year by farmers who sowed peas and planted Irish potatoes that could not come up on account of the dry weather.

Mrs. Thelma Misenheimer is visiting her aunts, Mrs. Chas. Deal and Mrs. Augustus Deal. Mrs. Sarah Gore, of Jordan, Fla., and her daughter Mrs. Baxter Ross, of Sharon township, Mecklenburg county, visited the former's brother, Mr. E. K. Misenheimer, last week.

A train of six 2-horse wagons, attached to a traction engine, pulled across the county to Landis to attend the picnic last Thursday. There were about 125 human souls on board the excursion. The train was made up at Yost.

This scribe has been on a trip across country recently to the Yadkin river north of Spencer, and by way of Mt. Pleasant. Crops of all kinds are hurt worse in Cabarrus than any place I have seen. There is some fine corn from Mt. Pleasant to the Yadkin beyond Albemarle where rains have fallen, when we had none.

On last Wednesday Mr. Emmett Rimer and Miss Beaver, both of China Grove township, were made man and wife, Rev. D. C. Cox, of No. 5 officiating.

Cow Rang Bell to Announce the Stork. Cleveland Plaindealer. A farmer named Jones, residing near Struthers, has a cow that announced the birth of a calf by ringing the dinner bell.

While the family was at breakfast a mysterious clanging was heard in the back yard. An investigation disclosed the fact that the cow was responsible. With the rope in her mouth she was pulling away for dear life. Jones chased the cow away, but she returned and commenced ringing the bell again. When at last Jones followed her into the barnyard Bossie led him to where a fine calf was found. The cow and her offspring were taken into the barn and given warm quarters.

Jones says the cow had seen the bell rung to call farm hands from the field, and decided that she could get proper attention by doing the same thing. "Don't tell me animals don't reason," says Jones.

England's Upper House - Rudely Shocked When Veto Bill Became a Law. The veto bill, limiting the powers of the upper chamber over legislation originating in the House of Commons, which resulted in one of the most serious legislative conflicts in the history of England, became an English law Friday, the King's assent thereto being given through a royal commission in the House of Lords.

When the royal assent was signified the members of the lower house present broke out in loud cheering. A demonstration on their part had never before been heard in the upper chamber.

"The Biter Bitten." Baltimore Sun. When the Democratic committee brought in a rule to limit debate on the amended cotton bill to four hours, enabling congress to adjourn within another day, a vigorous protest was made by Representative Cannon of Illinois. With old-time eloquence he denounced this high-handed tyranny and made a touching plea for the rights of the minority. Upon reference to the record it is discovered that the Illinois Representative is the same Hon. Joseph G. Cannon who for two administrations ruled the House with a rod of iron, stifled free speech, suppressed progressive legislation, ran roughshod over the Democratic minority and acquired the well-deserved title of czar. It all depends on who applies the gag.

THIS IS MY 40TH BIRTHDAY.

Albert Francois Lebrun. Albert Francois Lebrun, who holds the post of colonial minister in the new French cabinet, was born in Marcy-le-Haut, August 29, 1871. He received his preparatory education in the lycium at Nancy and later attended the Polytechnical College and the National School of Mines. For several years after finishing his education he held a professorship in one of the leading technical schools of France. About eight years ago he first became active in political affairs in his home district and subsequently was elected to the Chamber of Deputies. As a member of the chamber he soon attracted attention by his readiness in debate and his wide and thorough knowledge of practical affairs. His appointment to the important position of colonial minister at an age when most men are still fighting for recognition occasioned little surprise in French political circles.

Cost Plus 5% Note the Money-Saving Price Stamped on the Sole No guess work about these new Regal prices. The price is stamped right on the shoe—at the factory. And it isn't stamped on until chartered public accountants have figured the cost of manufacture and of marketing and added the Five Per Cent. Commission. These accountants pay no attention to the old-fashioned superstition of "even money" prices. All they care about is an accurate, close-fitting price. The chief thing that Regal designers care about is to put just as much Value—just as much Style and Comfort and Wear—as they can squeeze into each shoe. The thing you care about in shoes—namely, big value in a close-fitting price—you're sure to find in Regals. $335 to $585 REGAL SHOES FOR MEN Cannon & Fetzer Co.
