Concord, N. C., September 20, 1911.

The Democrats do not need to shoot President Taft full of holes in order to show his weakness, misdeeds and subject submission to the "big interests" as the insurgent Republicans are doing this work for them and doing it well. Senator Works, of California, a Republican says Taft is a willing tool in the hands of the great trusts and that he has brought his party face to face with the greatest crisis in its history. In a recent speech Senator Clapp, of Minnesota, a life long Republican and a vigorous supporter of President Roosevelt's administration, has denounced President Taft in flaming words for his veto of the bill admitting to Statehood Arizona and New Mexico, which was vetoed simply on the ground that Arizona had "the recall" provision in her constitution. They have gone so far as to charge that President Taft is trying to turn the presidency into an imperial office and thus deprive the American people of self-government for our judges.

Senator Cummins, Republican, of Iowa, has formulated a bill of particulars wherein President Taft has offended. Some of the President's offenses cited are: His position on the Payne-Aldrich tariff law, his position on the bill for the further regulation of interstate common carriers, his position on the change made in the postal savings law, his attitude on the control and disposition of our public domain, his position on the proposed income tax law, his position on the Canadian reciprocity bill, his work for the peace treaties, his vetoes of the woolen schedule, the free list bill and the resolution admitting New Mexico and Arizona as states. This list embraces nearly everything in which the President took a part.

The board of aldermen of Durham has passed an ordinance prohibiting sidewalk advertising. For some time the sidewalks of Concord have been disfigured by advertisements and we suppose, of course, there is no ordinance preventing it. The public streets of a city should not be converted into a bill board, and it is to be hoped that this thing will not longer be permitted here.

Joe King has gone fishin' again.
The readers of the Durham Herald always knows when he is off one of his periodical fishing jaunts by the absence of the bright paragraphs from the columns of the Herald. When he gets off he always goes fishin'.

PARAGRAPHS.

When a woman no longer finds fault with her husband, she's a widow.

The world is growing better; not even the Great White Way of New York would stand for Beulah Binford.

This country's bumper crops continue to bump all the substances out of the prognostications of the hard-timers.

For ambitious young talent that wants to shine at the New York bar there is no better law school than the United States Senate.

Just as the report of a big cranberry crop got around the price of sugar goes up. That does not seem quite fair.

You can tell when a woman is growing stout by the way she talks as if she were afraid of wasting away.

The committee on Association work in cotton mill communities will hold a meeting in Charlotte beginning on the twentieth of September and continuing until the twenty-third. At the first evening session, on Wednesday the address of the session will be delivered by President W. P. Few of Trinity College.

Compared to being able to come straight from the South is fun.

TO DECIDE FATE
OF RECIPROCIITY.

Not yet Settled, Canada Has Ever Known Just Closing.
The situation at a glance.
Laurier majority in the Eleventh Parliament, 45.
To carry reciprocity Laurier government must be returned.
To defeat reciprocity Conservatives must gain 23 seats.
Influences in favor of reciprocity: Agricultural class, Western Grain Growers' Association, low tariff advocates, British free traders, American settlers.
Influences against reciprocity: Ultra-imperialists, British tariff reformers and Canadian allies, protected manufacturers, dyed in the wool Conservatives.

Claims of Opposing Leaders.
Sir Wilfrid Laurier, Liberal: Victory is in the air. I feel the swing that makes it sure. I am proud old at the game. I have traveled over Canada more than once and today I find much enthusiasm as I never found before.
Robert L. Borden, Conservative: I am confident that tomorrow the electors of Canada will cast their votes against the ratification of reciprocity and that the Liberal government will be defeated by a substantial majority.

Ottawa, Ont., Sept. 20.—The hottest political campaign Canada has witnessed since the days of Sir John Macdonald and the National Policy was brought to a whirlwind finish today with rallies and speechmaking in virtually every city, town and hamlet from the Atlantic to the Pacific.

Tomorrow the electors throughout the country will express their political preferences and on their verdict depends the fate of the Liberal government, which, under the leadership of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, has been in office for fifteen years, and also the fate of the proposed reciprocity pact with the United States, for which Sir Wilfrid stands sponsor.

If Sir Wilfrid returns to power, the reciprocity bill will be passed soon after the reassembling of parliament next month, and at an agreed date both Canada and the United States will put the necessary tariff changes into effect.

If the Opposition wins a majority, Robert L. Borden, its leader, will become premier, reciprocity will be dropped and Canada will remain a high tariff country desirous of continuing the present tariff relations with the United States.

The polls will open at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning and close at 5 o'clock in the afternoon. Unless the voting at large is unusually close it is expected that the outcome will be known by 10 p. m. (Atlantic time.)

The campaign is the last in which Premier Laurier will participate, according to his declaration made at the beginning of the struggle. If he wins the contest, he will hold office continuously for a longer period than Sir John Macdonald.

The campaign has been hotly contested in all the provinces, and although conditions in certain sections of the Dominion are regarded as highly favorable to the Liberal party the result cannot be accurately forecasted. Upon the whole, disinterested observers seem inclined to the opinion that the government will carry the country by a reduced majority.

The claims of the two sides on the eve of the election are about as follows: The Opposition declares they will gain seats from the Government in the Maritime provinces—Nova Scotia, New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island—in Quebec, Ontario, Manitoba and British Columbia, while Saskatchewan and Alberta will remain with the Government as at present. The Liberals, on the contrary, maintain that they will increase their present large majority in the French-Canadian sections of Quebec and the Maritime provinces, and will make gains in Ontario and throughout the west.

Practically the reciprocity agreement with the United States has been the sole issue of the campaign. The Liberal press has denied its material advantages and denounced the compact as inimical to the commercial unity and national independence of Canada, as a movement towards Continentalism, and as a far step towards separation from the mother country.

The Conservative campaigners have confined themselves largely to the sentimental side of the reciprocity question. The British flag, the maintenance of British connection unweakened, and protests against closer relations with the United States have formed the basis of Conservative speeches. The Liberals, on the other hand, have sought to keep the fiscal aspect of reciprocity to the front and has scouted as absurd the contention of the Conservatives that reciprocity will lead Canada away from England and to the United States.

It is conceded that if the Conservatives have succeeded in convincing a majority of the electors that reciprocity tends toward annexation the government will be defeated. It likewise seems certain that if the government speakers have satisfied the voters that annexation is impossible the Government will be returned by a substantial majority and the reciprocity agreement ratified.

The French-Canadian province of Quebec is regarded as the pivotal province in the election. Here Henri Bourassa, the Opposition Nationalist leader, has vigorously denounced Premier Laurier as too imperialistic.
Through his paper, Le Devoir, of Montreal, and in speeches he has declared that Laurier betrayed Canadian independence to Great Britain by enacting a law for the creation of a navy which eventually will lead to the conscription of the young men of Canada.

In addition to Bourassa the conspicuous opponents of the Government's return are Clifford Sifton, former member of the Laurier cabinet, Robert Rogers, minister of public works in the Manitoba government and head of the Conservative organization in the Prairie West; Richard McBride, premier of British Columbia, and Premier Hazen of New Brunswick.

Liberal governments are in power in Nova Scotia, Prince Edward Island, Quebec, Saskatchewan and Alberta. They have given the Government and reciprocity all possible aid in the campaign.

ately went to work.

On Trail of Mona Lisa in America.
St. Paul, Sept. 16.—In the search for the Mona Lisa, stolen from the Louvre at Paris, an agent of the Treasury department, supervising customs collectors at the Canadian frontier, has come into possession of a miniature which is believed to be a painting of Nell Gwyn, the favorite of Charles II of England. The miniature is in an old gold frame of fine workmanship, set with twelve diamonds, and with two other small paintings was taken from a man crossing the frontier into this country.

A Great Advantage to Working Men.
J. A. Maple, 125 S. 7th St., St. Paul, Minn., O., says: "For years I suffered from weak kidneys and had a severe bladder trouble. I tried of Foley's Kidney Pills and their wonderful cure, so I began taking them and sure enough I had as good results any I heard about. My backache left me and to one of my business, expressman, that alone is a great advantage. My kidneys acted free and normal, and that saved me a lot of money. It is now a pleasure to work where it used to be a misery. Foley's Kidney Pills have cured me and have highest praise." For sale by M. L.

THIS IS MY 60TH BIRTHDAY.

Lloyd Bryce.
Lloyd Bryce, who has been appointed United States minister to the Netherlands, was born in Flashing, L. I., September 20, 1851. His early life was passed in Georgetown, D. C., where he attended the Georgetown University. Later he studied law in New York and at Oxford, England, where he graduated from Christ Church in 1869. He later studied law at Columbia University.
He served as a member of Congress from 1887 to 1889, directing his efforts there chiefly to harbor improvement and copyright matters. For nearly ten years after his retirement from congress Mr. Bryce was the editor and proprietor of the North American Review. He is the author of many books and essays.

THE DOCTOR'S QUESTION.

Much Sickness Due to Bowel Disorders.

A doctor's first question when consulted by a patient is, "Are your bowels regular?" He knows that ninety-eight per cent. of illness is attended with inactive bowels and torpid liver, and that this condition must be removed gently and thoroughly before health can be restored.

Rexall Orderlies are a positive, pleasant and safe remedy for constipation and bowel disorders in general.
We are so certain of their great curative value that we promise to return the purchaser's money in every case when they fail to produce entire satisfaction.

Rexall Orderlies are eaten like candy, they act quietly, and have a soothing, strengthening, healing influence on the entire intestinal tract.
They do not purge, gripe, cause nausea, flatulence, excessive looseness, diarrhoea or other annoying effects.
They are especially good for children, weak persons or old folks. Three sizes, 50c., 25c., and 10c. Sold only at our store—The Rexall Store. The Gibson Drug Store.

Taft Covering Michigan.

Grand Rapids, Mich., Sept. 20.— Grand Rapids is preparing a cordial welcome for President Taft, who is due to arrive in this city about breakfast time tomorrow for a visit of six or seven hours. Grand Rapids' central location and the strong influence it wields in Michigan politics have led to the belief that the speech to be delivered here will be one of the most important of the presidential tour. At luncheon the President will meet some of the prominent men of the state and after a short drive about the city will depart at 2 o'clock in the afternoon for Kalamazoo, which will be the last stopping place in Michigan.

And now the telegraphers on the Southern want more money and intimate that there is going to be trouble if they do not get it. On the Coast Line there is also trouble with the machinists and a general strike is looked for all over the line where shops are located.
