

THE LYCEUM COURSE.

The Edwin R. Weeks Company to Be Here Next Wednesday Night.

The Concord Lyceum Course will begin on Wednesday evening of next week, when the Edwin R. Weeks Company will appear at the Central graded school auditorium. The company is composed of Mr. Weeks, impersonator, humorist, musician and entertainer; Mrs. Weeks, in songs, sketches, accompaniments; Miss Lulu Sinclair, violinist and accompanist.

Each program will contain two or three sketches. Among these will be mentioned "Squire Blaklee's Clarinet," a mirth-provoking playlet that keeps the audience in a roar but underlying it all is a moral and a purpose for these days of divorces and separations. "School Days" is a musical playlet for children, from 7 to 70 years of age, that will amuse the former and, with a flood of memories, transplant the latter back into the old school yard of long ago. "Pretending" is a travesty on modern society ways both in the realm of married and unmarried life, culminating in an improvised automobile ride that is convulsing and unique. "Hello, Pesehes," introducing people of the underworld; "Polly Perkins in Paris," introducing famous musicians; "Tell Me, Pretty Maiden," introducing famous politicians, and "The Grasshopper," in which Mr. Weeks demonstrates himself to be a whole opera company, including soloists, comedian, tragedian, ballet and chorus, as well as his famous medley "Thirty Songs" are among the special features of the program.

As an element of the artistic and to give balance and variety to the programs, songs like the "Bird Songs" of Liza Lehmann's and "Dialect Songs" by Neidinger are given by Mrs. Weeks, while Miss Sinclair's offerings include the master pieces of Wieniawski, Vieuxtemps and Hubay, and other great composers for the violin.

Special attention is called to Miss Sinclair's triple feat of singing a lullaby and at the same time playing her own piano accompaniment and violin obligato.

Season tickets can now be found at the Citizens Bank and Trust Co. Subscribers will please call there and get them. If you haven't subscribed call at once and do so. Price $2.00 for single season tickets, which admits to six attractions. School children, half price. Price of single admission, when paid at the door, 50 cents, making the cost 50 per cent. more than season tickets.

Stanly County News.

Albemarle Enterprise.

Rev. B. Laey Hoge, of Charleston, S. C., has been called by the congregation of First Baptist church here as pastor. He has been notified, but has not yet responded.

Owing to a congested civil docket, the Governor may be asked to convene at an early date a special term of Stanly's superior court for the trial of civil cases.

Mrs. D. W. Turner and little Glenn, of Locust, spent last week visiting her sister, Mrs. J. F. Eudy and brothers J. M. and J. Ed. Hartzell, and returned home Sunday, accompanied by her niece, Miss Iva Eudy, who will spend the week with Miss Elie Turner and other relatives of Locust.

On next Sunday morning and evening Rev. H. A. McCullough will conclude his services as pastor of the First Lutheran church, expecting to leave next week for his new field of labors in Columbia, S. C. Many friends of this popular pastor, found in all denominations of the place, will avail themselves of the privilege of hearing him Sunday before taking his departure.

In the habeas corpus proceedings Thursday before Judge Daniels, Geo. W. Sides, now in jail upon charge of having murdered Hannah Jones, the negro recently killed near Millington by being thrown into an old well, was admitted to bail in the sum of $4,000. As yet, he has failed to raise this bond, but efforts are still being made to do so. While Attorney J. R. Price made a strong fight for his client, the rulings of the magistrate were largely sustained.

Great Acting Part.

The part of Silas Lynch, the colored Lieutenant-Governor in "The Clansman," an elaborate revival of which will be seen here on Saturday, September 30, at the opera house, is one of the best villain roles that has ever been written. It is rich with possibilities and requires an exceptionally capable actor for its interpretation. All of the former actors who have played the part have said that they have derived keen enjoyment out of it. Mr. Paulson will appear as Lynch in the coming production of "The Clansman."

Should the Taft people undertake to make a goat of Vice President Sherman, he might butt into the insurgent class himself.

FAILS TO SEE SON IN HIM.

Mrs. Kimmel Refused to Recognize Stranger Calling Her Mother.

Niles, Mich., Sept. 20.—Niles' strange controversy over the identity of "George A. Kimmel," who represents himself to be a man long supposed to be dead, was further complicated today.

While scores of persons positively identified him as the son for whose supposed death 13 years ago Mrs. Estella Kimmel received $5,000 in life insurance, and equal number were as positive that it was not the son.

Then Mrs. Kimmel, 70 years old, who had asserted that the man is impersonating her son merely to deprive her of the money she has already received and to prevent the payment of $25,000 more in insurance, scrutinized the man who claims her as mother.

Brought face to face with the woman, the "Kimmel" just released from a five-year term in the Auburn (N. Y.) penitentiary, stretched out his arms and said, pleadingly:

"Mother, don't you know your boy? Don't disown me any longer. You know I am your son."

Mrs. Kimmel, withdrawing from the man as he attempted to embrace her, stood sternly scanning his face.

"No," she said, "I don't see in you any positive resemblance to my son."

MODERN RIP VAN WINKLE.

Alleged George A. Kimmel Continues to Mystify Niles, Mich.

Niles, Mich., Sept. 21.—A modern Rip Van Winkle, who has so changed that his own people may never be able to positively identify him.

Such was Niles' verdict today in the case of "George A. Kimmel," who represents himself to be a man for thirteen years given up as dead, yet who asserts he is the son of Mrs. Estella Kimmel, who already has received life insurance on the supposed death of her son.

Mrs. Kimmel today reiterated her doubt as to the man's kinship to her after strange contradictions in an effort to identify him. For the fifth time, after scrutinizing his features, she declared her inability to recognize him. Other persons maintained that he undoubtedly was Kimmel who disappeared and was given up as having been killed either in St. Louis, Omaha or New York.

Defects Mrs. Kimmel found in the man's claim on her as mother were: His hands are smaller than were those of her son, and he has not a particularly crooked thumb which was noticeable in her son. He is not as tall as was her son.

His facial expression is different, particularly his chin does not protrude as much.

His eyes are gray, whereas her son's were dark brown.

His handwriting does not at all resemble that of her son.

Yet, despite this "Kimmel" continued to relate facts about the early family history which Mrs. Kimmel said puzzled her.

Several old residents of Niles appeared before "Kimmel." Some of these he called by name while others he could not recognize.

Mr. Fresseland Has Pellagra.

Mooresville Enterprise. The editor of the Enterprise is sorry to learn of the extreme illness of Mr. Jacob Fresseland, of Roland, who has pellagra. It has been many years since we have seen or heard from "Jake" and the sad intelligence is received with a degree of regret, for "Jake" was a true friend during childhood, when the older boys or the bullies of the town would give occasion for this scribe to avat them. "Jake" was born and reared in Concord, and is a brother to Mrs. William Black.

Thinks the Thing is Getting Serious.

Salisbury Post. Things are getting sulphurous between the Concord Tribune and the Charlotte Chronicle. If "Knight-hood was in flower" a duel would be the result. As it is, not a plain, ordinary "scrap" is expected. And it has all come about on account of the Southern Railroad's fast trains running by Concord without hesitating!

Speaker Champ Clark was the honor guest of the Appalachian exposition at Knoxville Monday and was given a hearty welcome by the assembled thousands. He was introduced by United States Senator Robert L. Taylor, of Tennessee, as the "next nominee of the Democratic party for the Presidency and the next President."

The high cost of living has at last hit the New York Bowery. There are loud howls of rage there because coffee has advanced to 3 cents a cup.

RECIPROCIITY PACT REJECTED BY CANADA.

Victory Of Conservatives Means Closed Door to The United States—Annexation the Bugaboo.

Montreal, Can., Sept. 21.—The Laurier government and reciprocity suffered an overwhelming defeat in the Canadian elections held today.

By a veritable political landslide the Liberal majority of 43 was swept away and the Conservative party secured one of the heaviest majorities, upwards of 50, than any Canadian party has ever had. Seven cabinet ministers who had served with Premier were among the defeated candidates.

The Liberals lost ground in practically every province of the Dominion. Where the Conservatives won they won their majorities were tremendous. Ontario, the leading province of Canada, declared almost unanimously against the administration and reciprocity.

Robert L. Borden, leader of the Conservative party, will shortly become Prime Minister of Canada. He will be supported in Parliament by a working majority of members far more than ample for his purposes.

The government defeat means that the Fielding-Knox reciprocity agreement, ratified by the American congress in extra session, will not be introduced when the twelfth Parliament assembles next month and that a revised basis of trade with the United States looking to closer commercial relations, will not be possible in the immediate future. The Conservatives are committed to a policy of trade expansion within the Empire and a closed door against the United States.

Although re-elected in two constituencies in Quebec, the defeat of the Liberals also means the retirement from public life of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, who for nearly two decades has directed the destinies of the Dominion.

Mr. Taft Disappointed.

Kalamazoo, Mich., Sept. 21.—President Taft heard the returns from the Canadian election here tonight while attending a banquet tendered him by the citizens of the city.

"I am greatly disappointed," he said. Further than this Mr. Taft declined to discuss the subject tonight.

President Taft at the banquet tonight said: "I have just been informed that reciprocity has failed in Canada. For me it is a great disappointment. I had hoped it would be put through to prove the correctness of my judgment that it would be a good thing for both countries.

"It takes two to make a bargain and if Canada declines we can still go on doing business at the old stand."

Death of Mr. Frank Stirewalt.

Mr. Frank Stirewalt died Thursday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock at his home on Gold street, after an illness of about a year of catarrh of the stomach. He had been confined to his bed only a short time, however. He was 73 years of age, and leaves his widow and six daughters, namely: Mrs. J. S. Draughan, Concord; Mrs. R. L. Seaford, Burlington; Mrs. C. S. Smart, Coolemees; Mrs. Zeb Walter, Concord, and Misses Bertie and Vera Stirewalt. The funeral services will be conducted from the home this afternoon at 3 o'clock, by Rev. C. R. Pless, and the burial will take place in Oakwood cemetery.

Dr. Robert Stuart McArthur, pastor of Cavalry Baptist church in New York, retires this week and becomes pastor emeritus on a salary which will make him comfortable for life. His probable successor is Dr. Len G. Broughton, of Atlanta, Ga.

THE CLANSMAN IN RICHMOND.

The Big Play Has Lost None of Its Popularity.

Special to The Tribune.

Richmond, Va., Sept. 21.—A big revival of Thomas Dixon's famous play, "The Clansman," was staged here tonight at the Academy of Music. The large audience and the enthusiasm with which the revival was received tends to show that "The Clansman" has lost none of its former popularity.

The play appeals strongly to Southern patriotism and the audience here tonight was vociferous in their applause, often resorting to cheers and hisses. In fact, the usual demonstration which attends upon all performances of "The Clansman," was in evidence tonight.

The author, Thomas Dixon, was brought before the curtain and compelled to make a speech. He responded with characteristic readiness and delivered an entertaining address.

Mr. Dixon will accompany the organization on tour through Virginia and the Carolinas. The revival production start upon a tour of the important Southern cities.

They Are All Found in "The Clansman."

The demands made upon the dramatic profession by "The Clansman" are great. In the east are found representatives of all the various branches in which the actor may specialize.

From the juvenile lead, that of Ben Cameron, the Clansman, which calls for a young romantic leading man, the many varied characters of the play require for their interpretation comedians, tragedians, heavy men, all kinds of character actors, a leading lady, ingenues, comedienne, child actresses, and minstrel artists. The latter are required to portray the negro types and are recruited from veteran minstrel performers, who are experts in negro impersonation. This is the reason the "darkies" in "The Clansman" seem like the genuine article.

To add to the variety of the acting company still further, even equine actors are called upon to play their parts, appearing as the horses of the Ku Klux Klan.

Henry Clay Beattie, Jr. Promises to Spring a Sensation.

Winston-Salem, Sept. 21.—That Henry Clay Beattie, Jr., under sentence of electrocution for the murder of his wife, will shortly give out a detailed statement which will provide a sensation, was the information spoken here today by a Richmond, Va., newspaper man. He said that Beattie had stated that the inside story of the affair would be delayed on account of certain work his counsel had to perform, but that when it was forthcoming it would be a true, clear statement. Surmises were various in Richmond, said the newspaper man, as to whether Beattie would attempt to incriminate his cousin, Paul Beattie, and the girl Beulah Binford.

The Airdome Theatre will be thrown open to the public Friday and Saturday in order that the people of Concord may see the great Battling Nelson and Wolgast prize fight pictures. There are 30 or 40 rounds of fast fighting, and Doc Williams, one of Nelson's seconds, makes a detailed lecture as the fight goes on. The pictures are clean and ladies and children are cordially invited. The price of admission will be 10c for children and 15 cents for adults.

Mr. H. G. Ritz is spending the day in Charlotte.

Modern Roundhouse is to be Built at Spencer.

Spencer, Sept. 21.—That Spencer is to witness big improvements along industrial lines is shown by the announcement made public tonight that the Southern Railway company will at an early date build a modern roundhouse of immense proportion, taking the place of the present structure now in use. The building is to be of brick and will cover the entire roundhouse yards. The cost will reach many thousands of dollars. It is also stated that the Southern's big transfer sheds located here will be greatly enlarged in order to meet the increasing demands. The sheds are already the largest on the Southern railway system and it is said that the capacity will be doubled, mammoth sheds being erected over the entire trackage. Civil engineers have already made surveys for the improvements.

Water in Catawba River Too Low And Steam Plants Do the Work.

Greensboro Record.

The auxiliary steam power plant of the Southern Power Company, which has recently been finished north of Greensboro at a cost of nearly a half million dollars is now in full operation, co-operating with the similar auxiliary plant at Greenville, S. C., to supply the electric current for the entire system of the Southern Power circuit.

The plant here was well tested after completion and found to be in all right condition for running and is now going full blast. The main plant of the Southern Power Company, which is operated by water power from Cawba river, is shut down on account of the low water pressure and the auxiliaries are doing all the work with steam.
