JOHN M. OGLESBY, City Editor.
 Concord, N. C., September 23, 1911.

Editor Harris says in the Chronicle of Friday:

What mostly concerns us about Editor Sherrill's article is a misconception of our temper and wrong interpretation of our sentiment toward the town and its people. Speaking in a personal way, The Tribune says of the editor of The Chronicle: "When told that the people of Concord were surprised at his attitude of opposition to their just demands, he seems to have been in about the same frame of mind as the elder Vanderbilt when he exclaimed, 'The public be d--d.' Mr. Harris is one of the most conservative and even tempered of writers, and rarely says anything that stings or offends." That hurts. It had been very far from our mind to have written anything that could have been construed as contempt for what we might call our own flesh and blood, nor did we have any idea that there was a sting or cause for offence in our pencil point.

If we have said anything that hurts, Mr. Harris may be assured that it hurts us quite as much as it does him. Nothing was further from our thoughts. While we think he has been rather unjust to Concord, the people of which had a right to expect the usual good word for them from him, there was no thought that he acted from any ulterior motive or that, in taking the view he did, he had anything but the kindest feelings for his native town.

The Greensboro News sides with Major Sherrill in the matter of the stopping of all trains at Concord. It thinks Concord should be made a flag stop for the fast trains. Concord would not be satisfied with that. When progressive towns want to get favors at the hands of the railroad they bring about personal interviews with the head of the proper department and Concord would no doubt profit by following that plan.—Charlotte Chronicle.

Concord will be satisfied with just such facilities and advantages other cities of like size are accorded. It will not ask more, and it will not be satisfied with less.

The Southern Railway traverses the States of Virginia North Carolina, Tennessee, South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, Alabama, Mississippi, and Kentucky. What we want to know is this: Is there a city of 12,000 people on any line of the Southern in any of these States at which all trains do not stop, with the single exception of Concord, North Carolina? This question, like the shade of Banquo, will not down.

Although Champ Clark is from Missouri, he doesn't need anybody to show him how the Canadian elections went.

Annual Corn Show at Mitchell.
 Mitchell, S. D., Sept. 25.—Thousands of visitors came to Mitchell today for the opening of the thirteenth annual Corn Belt Exposition. The Corn Palace which is the prominent feature of the exposition is the only one of its kind in the world. Fine specimens of corn are on exhibition from practically all of the counties of South Dakota and from some of the neighboring States. Pumpkins weighing in the neighborhood of 100 pounds and numerous other farm products are exhibited in booths. It is considered one of the most remarkable displays of farm products ever shown in this section of the country.

In the Cotton Belt.

Charlotte Chronicle.
 The New Orleans Picayune reports that he past week has been a period of generally favorable weather in the cotton belt. The incessant rains which caused so much anxiety in the central belt, gave place to fair weather, and as a result there has been an improvement in crop prospects in all quarters. In the western belt the weather has been generally dry and hot, facilitating the maturing of the crop and picking and marketing. Picking is now in progress all over the cotton belt and with good weather rapid progress is reported. With the return of good weather there is less talk of crop deterioration, and the impression is gaining ground that the deterioration reported during August was rather exaggerated. Even the insect damage in the central belt has probably been exaggerated, although it would be idle to deny that some damage has been done. In the meantime the heavy movement of cotton to market demonstrates not merely arly maturity, but an abundant yield as well. The estimates of yield prior to frost are mere guesses, hence there is little confidence to be placed in crop opinions, be they large or small.
 The fact must be remembered that the acreage actually cultivated in cotton is the largest ever worked, hence with anything like an average yield a good crop will be assured. Although the future of prices is as uncertain as the size of the crop itself, there is every reason to believe that the world's actual requirements this year will be so large that even a large crop will be successful absorbed at paying prices.

ONLY ONE "BEST"

Concord People Give Credit Where Credit is Due.

People of Concord who suffer with sick kidneys and bad backs want a kidney remedy that can be depended upon. The best is Doan's Kidney Pills, a medicine for the kidneys only, made from pure roots and herbs, and the only one that is backed by willing testimony of Concord people. Here's a case:

Mrs. J. N. Brown, 168 N. Union St., Concord, N. C., says: "I had kidney complaint for several years and although I used a number of remedies, I was not helped until I used Doan's Kidney Pills which I got at Gibson's Drug Store. They soon started my kidneys working right and the uric poison in my system was removed.
 This resulted in a general improvement. I publicly endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills at that time and I can now say that I still think highly of them. I have had occasions to use this remedy off and on since then and I am pleased to say that it has never failed to give me prompt relief."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50c.

At a meeting Wednesday afternoon of the executive committee of the North Carolina State Fair Association, the committee stood pat on its former order abolishing half-rate tickets, this action being unanimous.
 The opposition to the half-rate ticket was based, so members of the committee stated, on the fact that half price tickets caused discrimination in favor of Raleigh people and institutions. Everybody will have to fare alike henceforth.

YOUR GRAY HAIRS QUICKLY VANISH

A Harmless Remedy, Made from Garden Sage, Restores Color to Gray Hair.

A feeling of sadness accompanies the discovery of the first gray hairs, which, unfortunately, are looked upon as her-als of advancing age. Gray hairs, however, are not always an indication of advancing age, for many people have gray hairs quite early in life. Of course, it is unnatural, and indicates that there is something wrong with the individual, and that Nature needs assistance in correcting the trouble. The same is true of hair that is constantly falling out and becoming thinner every day. If everything is right with Nature, the hair, even in comparatively elderly people, should be long, thick and glossy, without even a streak of gray.

The ideal assistant to Nature in restoring and preserving the hair is Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, a clean and wholesome dressing for daily use. It not only removes dandruff, but strengthens weak, thin and falling hair and promotes its growth. A few applications will restore faded or gray hair to its natural color.

Get a bottle to-day, and let it do for you what it has done for thousands of others.

This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by all druggists.

Note the Money-Saving Price Stamped on the Sole

No guess work about these new Regal prices. The price is stamped right on the shoe—at the factory.
 And it isn't stamped on until chartered public accountants have figured the cost of manufacture and of marketing and added the Five Per Cent. Commission.

These accountants pay no attention to the old-fashioned superstition of "even money" prices. All they care about is an accurate, close-fitting price.

The chief thing that Regal designers care about is to put just as much Value—just as much Style and Comfort and Wear—as they can squeeze into each shoe.

The thing you care about in shoes—namely, big value in a closefitting price—you're sure to find in Regal.
