

MT. PLEASANT NEWS.

The Play Friday Night.—A Sweet Potato Blossom.—Mr. Cox Meets With Accident.—Personal.

The appearance at the auditorium Friday night of "Miss Fearless and Company" marked the opening of the local entertainment season. The play measured up fully to the highest expectations. The different roles were exceptionally well taken by young ladies of Mount Amoens Seminary, and altogether furnished an evening of rare entertainment in their faultless presentation of this unique and beautiful comedy. The company of young ladies, under the direction of Miss Crabtree, deserved and won the hearty applause of a large house. Seldom have the minor details of a production been more carefully looked after and made to appear to better advantage than in the play Friday night. The proceeds go toward payment on the new International Encyclopedia for the Seminary library.

Have you ever seen a sweet potato blossom? There are some people we find, who answer in the negative with an emphasis that distinctly implies disbelief in the existence of a sweet potato blossom in the world's flora. But Mr. E. E. Wingard and Mr. Geo. Ury are exhibiting some fine specimens of sweet potato blooms that convince the unbeliever on sight. The flower closely resembles a morning glory.

Saturday night Mr. Baeman Cox attempted to pass through the vacant space where Mr. C. G. Lantz is erecting a store building, the foundation for which is partially completed and Mr. Cox supposed it safe to pass over. In the darkness he stepped into a hole and fell on the sharp edges of timbers that bruised and cut him rather severely. His injuries were attended to at once and while painful, he is not seriously hurt.

Rev. B. L. Stanley and Dr. M. A. Foil left for Hickory yesterday to attend the meeting of the Potomac Synod of the Reformed church which held its first session there last night. They will be away the remainder of the week.

Synod of the Potomac.

Hickory, Oct. 18.—The first meeting of the Synod of the Potomac was held this afternoon at 2 o'clock when the Society for the Relief of Ministers held its annual meeting.

The reports showed that last year $5,700 was spent for the relief of ministers and ministers' widows. Five thousand and eight hundred dollars was appropriated for this purpose for the coming year. This fund will be distributed to eighty-four ministers and widows. A review of the work the past year was very gratifying.

There are large numbers of delegates in town and many yet to come. The visitors are housed in the hospitable homes of Hickory and no pains are being spared to make their stay here a pleasant one. Rev. Dr. Murphy and his members are kept busy looking after the delegates and every train is being met by members of the congregation and others who are entertaining the visitors.

The synod proper will open tonight at 8 o'clock and the opening services will be conducted by Rev. George S. Sober, of York, Pa. Dr. T. J. Haeker, the retiring president of the synod will preach the introductory sermon. At the close of the sermon the synod will be completely organized and will be ready for the business meeting tomorrow. An enjoyable feature of the meetings will be the music furnished by the synodical quartette, composed of Rev. James B. Bergey, Altoona, Pa., first tenor; Rev. D. Elmer Master, Huntington, Pa., second tenor; Rev. R. J. Pilgrim, Carlisle, Pa., first bass; Rev. S. H. Stein, York, Pa., second bass.

A number of prominent ministers are in town and will deliver addresses during the session. A feast of good things is in store for those who attend these meetings.

Cases Postponed.

The cases against B. W. Means, manager of the Piedmont Club, and Horace Edwards, charged with selling liquor, which were set for trial in the Recorder's court this morning, have been continued until the 28th.

Senator Hartwell, who represents the State, was in Washington yesterday on professional business, and asked that they be continued, not thinking at the time that he would be able to reach here on time. His request was granted, although he did arrive, coming home earlier than he expected.

The cases will be tried the 28th provided it does not interfere with the work of the Superior Court, which will be in session at that time.

BEULAH BUCK QUARTETTE.

Greeted By Large Audience Last Night.—Splendid Attraction.

A large audience greeted the Beulah Buck Quartette, the second attraction of the Alkathest Lyceum Course, at the Central graded school auditorium last night and was completely captivated by the excellent rendition of a delightful varied and pleasing programme. The quartette is as follows: Miss Buck, reader and soprano; Miss Marjorie Paddock, accompanist and first soprano; Miss Harriett Jones, second contralto, and Miss Opal Taylor, second contralto. Aside from their ensemble work, each member was a most capable soloist. The solos by Misses Jones, Paddock and Taylor were particularly pleasing, as Miss Buck not only possesses a most excellent soprano voice but is a most gifted reader and impersonator and her ability and versatility is rendering the pleasing programme held the favor of the audience throughout, the conclusion of each rendition being followed by an encore.

The last number of the programme was a sketch, "The Old Melodion." The members of the quartette appeared in the quaint and old fashioned costumes of the days of yore, each carrying her knitting. Sitting around the room, busily engaged with their knitting, their conversation turned to the days at home and of the old melodion that once did faithful duty to the family and the neighborhood. They not only told of its great work as a moral agency in the home and how it had proved a panacea for the trials and tribulations, heartaches and disappointments of the family as well as a stimulant to their joys and happiness, but gave a most pleasing impersonation of its performances, covering the range from the sentimental and pathetic to the humorous with equal skill and ease. The rendition of "My Country 'Tis of Thee," "Dixie" and "Silver Threads Among the Gold." The latter, a solo, by Miss Taylor, being particularly pleasing and catchy.

If the Alkathest Bureau will continue to send attractions here of the class of Mr. Weeks and his company and the Beulah Buck Quartette it will have no trouble to continue its engagement here next season.

Will Perfect Plans For Mattamuskeet Drainage.

Raleigh, Oct. 18.—The Mattamuskeet drainage commissioners, J. S. Mann, J. P. Kerr and T. H. B. Gibbs, having in hand the stupendous undertaking of draining the lake bed and surrounding swamps of the Mattamuskeet drainage district in Hyde county, the greatest drainage undertaking in this section of the country, are conferring here to get underway again the preliminary work for the drainage undertaking. Now that the Supreme Court has sustained the drainage interests though holding that the corporation can proceed with the issuance of the entire $500,000 bond issue, and sustaining the validity of the bonds so that they cannot be impeached on the bond market, the bonds will be put on the market forthwith.

The contracts for the dredging of the canals have been awarded to the Central Dredging Company of Schuylerville, N. Y., and Cincinnati, and the contract for installing the great pumps that are to keep the water pumped out of the drainage zone are yet to be awarded. The directors of the Southern Land Reclamation Company that purchased the State's interests from the state board of education, are also here for the conference and the general purpose is to proceed as speedily as possible with the drainage.

A WHOLESALE SLAUGHTER.

Man Believed to Be Responsible for 14 Deaths is Hunted.

Ellsworth, Kan., Oct. 18.—That Charles Marzyek, ex-convict sought by the county authorities in connection with the murder of the five members of the William Showman family here Sunday night, had been in Colorado Springs, where the six members of the Wayne and Barnham families were slain, and was acquainted in Momouth, Ill., where three persons were murdered recently, was the startling statement made to the authorities today by Mrs. Minnie Vopat, Marzyek's divorced wife. All these 14 victims were killed with an axe.

Samuel Showman, brother of William Showman, head of the murdered family, today started at the head of a posse to search the county. Marzyek is believed to be hidden in the neighborhood. If he is found a battle is expected.

Marzyek not long ago served a term for stealing grain from James Vopat. Last night Vopat, who is the husband of Marzyek's former wife, saw the ex-convict in a field near his house. Vopat and his family, terror-stricken, locked their house and fled to the home of a Slav fellow countryman five miles distant.

All the members of the Slav community who had any connection with the conviction of Marzyek went armed today, for he is reported to have sworn vengeance on those responsible for his imprisonment.

Ira Lloyd, the attorney who defended Marzyek in the wheat stealing case said today:

"I believe Marzyek will remain in the neighborhood until he completes his vengeance. After his sentence he told me that when he was released he would come back and kill the people who were responsible for his conviction and also their children. 'I will put them all in hell,' he said."

Evidence furnished by Mr. and Mrs. William Showman is said to have been largely responsible for Marzyek's conviction.

The Progressive Republicans have their disagreements, too.
