JOHN M. GOLESBY, City Editor
Concord, N. C., November 22, 1911.

The announcement of the death this morning of Mr. Joseph Pearson Caldwell comes as no surprise to the people of the State. For the past few weeks they have eagerly waited for news from his bedside, and all knew that the end was not far away. In his death the State has lost one who has made his impress on her history such as few men of this generation have made. As an editor he stood without a peer in the State and without a superior anywhere. The Charlotte Observer under his guiding hand became a powerful factor in the making of the State's history, and his brilliant editorials were the admiration of the best people everywhere. He wrote interestingly on almost any subject and everything he wrote on any subject attracted attention. He was a gentleman of gentlemen, a brave, courteous, chivalrous knight, a man who was close to the heart of everybody who knew him well.

Siam Will Crown King.
Washington, D. C., Nov. 22.—Announcement of the appointment of Col. Leo Feibiger, commanding the Sixth Cavalry, now in the Philippines, to represent the United States as military attaché at the coronation of the King of Siam draws public attention to the ceremonies that will make the city of Bangkok a center of attraction early next month. The leading nations of the world will be represented at the coronation. Prince Fushimi has been named to head the Japanese delegation and England is sending an embassy headed by Prince Louis of Battenberg. France, Germany, Italy and other European nations also are sending special ambassadors.

The ceremonies and festivities in connection with the crowning of the new King will extend over an entire week. From every part of the Siamese kingdom the princes and nobles and military and civil officials will assemble in the capital to renew their allegiance to the new sovereign. The tenor of the oath that they are required to take on this occasion seems to show how Siam has preserved its own identity. Here are some of the phrases used in it:

"We pray the powers of the deities to plague with poisonous boils and with all manner of horrible diseases the dishonorable, the disobedient, and the treacherous. When they have departed this life may they be sent to horrible hell."

The new King, whose full name is Somdet Chovra Maha Vajiravangh succeeded to the throne upon the death of his father a year ago last October. He was born about 30 years ago and was proclaimed crown prince when he was 11. He was educated in England and learned soldiering at Sandhurst, Aldershot and Potsdam. Later he spent some time in Paris, and then having acquired a good conversational acquaintance with both English and French, he was sent back to his country to go into training for the duties which he would later have to perform.

Beattie Family to Leave.
With the electrocution of Henry Clay Beattie, Jr., next Friday, the 24th, the connection of the Beattie family will be forever severed from Virginia and the city that knew them once will know them no more. To forget and to be forgotten, is the desire of the family, when the son of the aged father goes to his death in the fatal chair for the murder of his young wife.

The father has sold all his holdings, and, together with his daughter, Hazel, and his remaining son, Douglas, who resigned a prominent position with the American Tobacco Company, will depart the city of their birth and leaving will not divulge their future habitation.

Where they go when they leave Richmond, no one knows but themselves.

Mr. E. D. Finch, of Davidson county, North Carolina, has raised this year on one acre of land 159 bushels and 45 pounds of corn.

PROSPERITY WAVE IN SOUTH BRINGS MILLIONS

Revival of Industrial Activity Promises to Exceed All Records of Section. $45,000,000 is Being Spent on Good Roads.

Baltimore, Md., Saturday.—In discussing the business situation in the South, Richard H. Edmonds, editor of Manufacturers Record, said:

"There is a very decided revival in industrial activity throughout the South. The movement is on a much broader scale than ever before in the history of this section. It includes a wider range of industrial development, a broader advancement of diversified agriculture and a greater utilization of waste lands than would have been deemed possible a few years ago."

"Not a day passes without the report of a purchase of some large tract of land by Eastern or Western capitalists for colonization purposes and of mineral and timber property for development."

Purchases of this character reported in the last fortnight included over 100,000 acres of coal land in Eastern Kentucky by Pennsylvania capitalists, and deals are now pending for large tracts to be bought by New England people; 150,000 acres of timber land in Mississippi, bought by Western land operators and colonization people, who will cut the timber and settle the land with Western farmers; a 600,000 acre tract in the same State, bought by Pennsylvania men; a 500,000 acre tract of cut-over pine land in Mississippi, bought by Western land operators, who will divide it into small farms and colonize with farmers from the West and the North; a 32,000 acre tract of timber land in Georgia, bought by Ohio men for immediate operation, and a $2,000,000 purchase of cypress and pine land in Florida, bought by Western people.

Model Farm Project.
"Western capitalists have obtained, at a cost of about $250,000, a tract of reclaimed land near New Orleans to be developed for model farms with the intention of making every provision for scientific farm laboratories and providing for scientific methods of seed and soil selection. Many of the big land operators and colonization agencies which have for years been active in the West and on the Pacific coast are now concentrating their work upon the South. They are buying these enormous tracts of land, cutting them into small farms, improving them with good roads and bringing buyers from the North and the West."

"Until recently, the cut-over pine lands, of which there are millions of acres, have been regarded as almost valueless. The same has been true as to the wet or swampy lands of the South, which aggregate over 50,000,000 acres."

"These pine lands have proven to be very productive and are being bought to the extent of hundreds of thousands of acres by Western land operators for colonization purposes. Several million acres of wet prairie and swamp lands are now being reclaimed by vast drainage operations."

"Louisiana has been leading in this work, and there are more big operations from the West and elsewhere draining great tracts in that State than in any other Southern State; but Florida is leading now in the magnitude of the area which is being reclaimed with contracts aggregating some millions of dollars, which will reclaim four million or five million acres of the Everglades region, a territory as big as the State of Maryland. This work is being done by the State."

The T-B Company, Charlotte, N. C.
Gentlemen:—About six months ago I was in very poor health. Had fallen off until I was almost skin and bones, when a friend told me of your Bromo and I decided to try it, as I could find nothing that would build me up. I commenced taking this medicine and in four weeks I had gained thirty-one pounds, and my color was altogether changed from that of a sickly to that of a healthy person. I cannot praise your medicine too highly, as I feel that it has saved my life.
Thanking you for this privilege of telling you what your Bromo did for me, and with best wishes for your success in business, I am,
Very sincerely,
CLAUDE ALEXANDER.
