The Norfolk & Western Railway and the Southbound railway will operate, beginning December 6 and closing the 14, a Better Farming Train, which will no doubt prove an aid to better farming. This train will run from Roaneke to Wadesboro. and half day stops will be made at each important point. Hon. W. A. Graham, commissioner of agriculture of North Carolina, is co-operating in the momement. The train will be equipped so completely that it is just what it purports to be a short agriculture course on wheels that is taken to the farmer's own home town, so that he can avail himself of its advantages without unnecessary expenditure of time and money in going to more distant points.

The good roads congress held in Richmond this week went on record as favoring federal aid for the construction of good roads. When the report of the committee favoring this was voted on it was adopted with a whoop and accompanied by the rebel yell. The resolution adopted calls for federal aid for States which will join in the movement to contribute equally with the government. No material movement is more important that that of good roads, and there is no valid reason why the national government should not lend its aid. It is well to note also in passing that the good roads congress unanimously andorsed the use of convict labor on the roads.

When the show "The Girl From Rector's" came through the South a year or more ago it created a storm strong. We gnarantee it—you get of protest against its appearance and in many places it was not allowed to be presented. This year there seems to have been no objection registered from any quarter. Has the play been shorn of its objections or has the public moral conscience suffered retrogression?

Mr. E. C. Duncan yesterday in Washington expressed himself in favor of the renomination of President Taft. He also stated that so far as he could see that the rest of the Republicans in the State are for Taft. Respectfully referred to the Hon. Jake F. Newell, of Charlotte.

Of interest to local readers is the fact that in Albemarle, a little more than a year ago, was born the idea of a new road to connect Raleigh and Charlotte, and to shorten the distbetween these important centers, so much the shortening of the ao much the shortening of the lance, as the wealth to be opened through counties that hitherto have a practically without railroad fater. DON'T WAIT SO LONG.

One of the most surprising things u the world to druggists is that so many people endure unnecessary sufering and trouble.

Every day they hear people say, "I have been feeling so weak and miser-able for the last few months that I finally decided to come and ask you what to do for it."

For instance, Miss Zulah Teagarlen, of Connellsville, Pa., says in a letter: "For years I had been in bad health owing to run-down system and general weakness. I had no appetite, was tired out, and had no strength "Hearing so much about Vinol I deided to try it, and I find it the greatest of all remedies. It has built up ny strength, restored my appetite, and made me as wel as ever. I might just as well havee had this benefit years ago if I had taken Vinol then.

Now if you are weak and in poor health, don't wait another day, but let Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron remedy witihout oil, make you your money back if not satisfied Gibson Drug Store, Concord, N. C.

SUNDAY SCHOOL

The lesson today may int ters i and ii and might be entitled. Nebeminh praying and God working. The name Nebemiah signifies comfort of Jehovah, and his father's came, Hachalinh, signifies hidden of Jebovah, or perhaps Jebovah is hidden, the former suggesting the safety of His people and the latter that His ways are a great deep. "Verily, thou art a God that hidest Thyself, O God of Isruel, the Saviour" (Isa. ziv, 15). The time of the book is supposed to be about seventy years after the dedication of the temple that was rebuilt by Serubbabel and thirteen years after Exra's reform, as recorded in En. ix and z. For some reason Nehemiah had remained at Babylon instead of his heart was at Jerusalem. He was a true Israelite at a gentile court, lik: oseph, Moses, Daniel and Mordecal loving his people and burdened for them. He knew the God of heaven (1, 4, 5; il, 4, 20), and, although be knew Him as the great and terrible God, he also knew Him as a God keep ing covenant and mercy for them that leve Him, ready to pardon, gracious and merciful, and he could call Him "my God" (i, 5; ix. 17, 81, 32; ii, 8, 12, 18). The Jews at Jerusalem were no yet as Isalah had said they would be ruling over their oppressors and rest ing from their sorrow and fear, but were still servants in the land, with others ruling over them and having dominion over them and their possesssions at their pleasure (Neb. 1x, 36, 37). So we know that the restoration from Babylon did not fulfill Isa. xi, 8-12; xiv 1-3; xxxv, 10, or any other of the grea redictions concerning Israel's giorious future, all of which will be fulfilled when the Lord Jesus shall come the second time in power and glory to restore all things of which the prophets have spoken (Acts III, 21). He has said that He will not rest till these things are fulfilled, and we are not as right with Him as we should be unless we take no rest and give Him no rest until He make Jerusalem a praise in the earth (Isa. lxii, 1-7). Some one may say, "I am more interested in our own Zion," meaning his own church or denomination, not under standing the purpose of the Lord in this age to gather out from all nations may return with His bride to bless

Israel and through her all nations in all the earth. Reproach is brought upon the Lore When Nebemiah heard of the great affliction and reproach resting upon Jerusalem he gave himself to fasting and prayer, as did Danie

(Dan. x, 2, 3). Nehemiah might truly be said to be a man of prayer, of confidence in God and separation unto Him (chapters 1, 5 11; 11, 4, 5, 18-20; iv, 14, 20). He was also man of patience, for it seems to have been many months after he began to fast and pray before the opportune time came to speak to the King. He might perhaps have forced an oppor tunity, but he had learned better and knew that the Lord's time and way were the best. In his prayer in our on chapter let us learn from verse 5 adoration. Compare Jer. x, 6, 7, 10; EXEM, 17; Acts iv, 24. In verses 6, 7, note the confession of sin and compare Dan. ix, 4-6, 20, and see Prov. xxvill, 13; I John i, 9; Pa. xxxii, 5. See in verse 8 how he recalls the threat of Lev. xxvi, 27, 33; Deut. iv, 26, 27, and in verse 9 the promise of forgive ness in Deut, xxx, 1-3. See how all through he leans upon and pleads word of the Lord. As God had d as He said He would concerning their sins, so he pleads that He would remember His word concerning their repentance. Verse 10 is strong, bol pleading. See the stand he takes in spite of all their sins, "Now, these are Thy servants, and Thy people, whom Thou hast redeemed by Thy great power, and by Thy strong hand." We are reminded of Moses' pleading in Deut. ix, 29, "Yet they are Thy people and Thine inheritance, which Thou broughtest out by Thy mighty power and by Thy stretched out arm."

Watching day by day for a favorable opportunity to speak to the King and all the while in constant communion with the King of kings the munion with the King of kings, the ne came by a question from the King accorning his apparent sorrow of heart concerning his apparent sorrow of heart—so in one breath he prayed to the God of heaven and spoke to the King, and the King granted him his request according to the good hand of his God upon him (ii. 4. 5. 8). In due time he reached Jerusalem in mafety, but for days he kept the matter to himself and told no one why he had ceme (ii, 11-10). When he did tell them why he had come and said, "Let us build up the wall of Jerusalem that we be no more a reproach," and also told them of the hand of God upon him and of the hings favor they were ready to join him and said, "Let us rise up and build" (ii, 17, 18). Their enemies hughed and scoffed and despised, but Hehemiah's grand reply was, "The God of heaven. He will prosper us" (ii, 10, 10, 20).
