Santa Claus Letters
Dear Santa Claus:
This letter to you is sent To tell you I want an Indian tent;
For the little tent I don't care a fig, So please, Mr. Santa, make it good and big.
Why not just fill this tent with toys?
Of the kind you give good girls and boys—
And nuts and oranges and fruits and candy.
O Santa Claus, that would be dandy My sister can't write like this,
So I'm writing, so that you'll not miss Bringing her a doll, bed, dresses and trunk
And all other things of a little girl's junk.
Say, I know you're not one who your duty shirks,
So fill up your bag with popping fireworks.
TOM GAY COLTRANE.

POLITICS AND POLITICIANS.
Oshkosh, Wis., has adopted the commission plan of government.
Senator Wetmore of Rhode Island and Senator Goggenheim of Colorado have announced their intentions to retire at the end of their present term.
The first presidential primary election in the United States will be held in North Dakota on March 19, next.
The Lotus Club, a non-partisan political organization of New York City, is to have Governor Harmon or Ohio as its guest of honor next month.
Next year in the presidential conventions of the two dominant parties, Republican and Democratic, there will be in each from 1,000 to 1,070 delegates.
Ben F. Caldwell, formerly well known as a member of Congress, has made announcement of his candidacy for the Democratic nomination for governor of Illinois.
The Massachusetts Socialists just succeeded in getting at the November election the three per cent that entitled them to be called a party and to have a place on the official ballot.
Presidential preference will be among the matters submitted to the voters of Tennessee at the State primaries to be conducted by the "Independent" Democratic party next April.
Like numerous other men who have attained prominence in public life, Joseph A. Taggart, the new Democratic congressman from the Second district, began his career as a school teacher.
A circumstance unknown to the average voter of today is that Pennsylv-vania was almost as reliably Democratic previous to 1860 as it has been robustly Republican since that year.
As a result of the election held last November the commission form of government has increased 10 per cent in the United States, measured by the population of the cities adopting it.

ROCKWELL.
After lingering about two weeks or more, first from falling and grinding her shoulder uninjured and later from pneumonia, Mrs. Mary Fesperman died last Monday evening at her home about one and one half miles southwest of this place. She was a good woman and devoted Christian and was well liked by all that knew her. She was 78 years 3 months and two days old and leaves one son, one daughter and one sister, and many friends to mourn their loss.
The funeral services took place at Organ E. L. church last Tuesday at two o'clock p. m., Rev. H. A. Trexler officiating.
Joe Ridenour went to Lexington last Sunday to visit friends.
Albert Peeler and J. D. Shoe went to Salisbury on business last Wednesday.
Frank Fesperman has a boil just above his eye, which has caused the eye to close, and is not improving very fast.
Jim Shinn has sold his store and contents to James Holsouser and it will be run in the future by Mr. Hol-souser.
S. R. Fisher and John Fink, from Cabarrus, were visiting at Thomas Rinehardt's quite recently.
Samuel Cooper has begun work on his new residence and expects to have it completed and ready to move in by Christmas.
Much hunting is being done around here and rabbits and birds seem to be plentiful.
Misses Pearl and Lilly Goodman went to Salisbury on business yesterday.
Jackson Best and wife visited at
D. C. Holsouser's last Sunday.
SANDY.

We have received from the Dr.
Miles Medical Co., of Elkhart, Ind., an advertising proposition which very generously proposes to give us fifty pounds of news ink for the insertion of a six inch advertisement one year.
As we can buy the ink for $2.75, and as the advertisement once a week in The Times would cost them $46.82, or in The Tribune once a week $31.20, we didn't strike a trade. It is almost inconceivable that there is a single newspaper publisher in the United States, so far lacking in business ability, not to say self respect, as to accept such a proposition as this, and yet, there are many who will do so.

The Chamber of Commerce of Greensboro on Tuesday sent to Mr.
E. C. Duncanson, of the Norfolk Southern railway, a telegram offering to cooperate in anyway possible in bringing the line of his road to that city.
The News says if necessary the people of Greensboro will vote $100,000 for the Norfolk Southern. Greensboro and Concord are the only cities in the state which have only one line of railway, and both are determined to end such an unenviable condition.

PARAGRAPHS.
The traveling men of the country want to abolish the tipping nuisance.
If they succeed perhaps more of us can afford to travel.

One reason that Castro's activities seem so scant may be that he is doing his own typewriting.

The London man who can afford to pay $20,000 for a Bible probably needs one.

Speaker Clark believes in Santa Claus. Expect to get anything in your stocking, Champ?

Once more the United States is patroling the Rio Grande. This time it is not called maneuvering.

The Big Cotton Crop.
Charlotte Chronicle.

Texas has already ginned the rise of 4,000,000 bales of cotton and it is altogether probable the yield of that State will go a quarter of a million more. The government's report of ginnings of nearly 13,000,000 bales, would seem to indicate a crop of over 15,000,000 bales, and with this big crop and low prices, the South is in a bad way. What is to be done? The New Orleans Picayune, always a wise counselor, suggests that the thing now of most importance is how to dispose of this immense yield at a profit. The entire crop cannot be sold profitably in a few months, even if the needs of the world for twelve months could absorb it all. The proper policy is to hold back as much of the balance of the crop as possible and to make preparations to plant judiciously next spring. At present prices there is sure to be a greatly increased demand for cotton and the staple is also certain to be used in many industries that have avoided it while it sold at high prices. Once convinced that the prices have touched bottom the mills of the world will not only buy eagerly for present requirements but will buy as much as they can carry for future needs when, as is inevitable, prices will again advance to a higher level. The consumption of cotton cloth is bound to materially increase in the near future, and after some years a crop which now looks large will barely suffice to meet requirements.

QUICK RELIEF FOR RHEUMATISM.
George W. Koons, Lawton, Mich., says: Dr. Doan's Kidney Pills for Rheumatism has given my wife wonderful benefit for rheumatism. She could not lift her hand or foot, had to be lifted for two months. She began the use of the remedy and improved rapidly. On Monday she got up and moved and on Wednesday she got up, dressed herself and walked out to breakfast. Sold by J. M. Marsh, Druggist, 8 South Union street.

THIS IS CERTAIN
The Proof That Concord Readers Cannot Deny.
What could furnish stronger evidence of the efficiency of any remedy than the test of time? Thousands of people testify that Doan's Kidney Pills cure permanently.
Home endorsement should prove undoubtedly the merit of this remedy. Years ago your friends and neighbors testified to the relief they had derived from the use of Doan's Kidney Pills. They now confirm their testimonials. They say time has completed the test.
Mrs. W. M. Fisher, 95 N. Georgia avenue, Concord, N. C., says: "Since I publicly endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills three years ago, nothing has happened to check my faith in this excellent remedy. I gladly confirm my former testimonial." (Statement given February 27, 1911.) The endorsement referred to by Mrs. Fisher was given on January 11, 1908, and was in substance as follows: "I was annoyed by sharp, shooting pains across the small of my back and I hardly knew what caused the trouble. I was also bothered by soreness through my kidneys and finally I decided to try a kidney medicine. I got a box of Doan's Kidney Pills at Gibson's Drug Store and half the contents cured me."
For sale by all dealers. Price 50c.

NO. 3 ITEMS.
Mr. Meart B. Benson held an old time fiddlers' convention at Kannap-olis last Saturday night. All the crowd was greatly astonished when Mr. Joe Ewart, an one-arm man, of our community was called upon and placed in front of the audience to play a bass violin. He also played some fine chords on the piano. Some good music and dancing was furnished by the contest. The winner of the first prize was Mr. Jason B. Smith, the leader of the Gilwood string band. Mr. W. C. Sherrill won the second prize; a Mr. Phillips, of Kannapolis, won the prize for the best banjo picker. When the audience was dismissed Mr. Smith was cheered and many warm congratulations from all sides for the fine music made by him. The wish of all is to witness many more such times in that place.

ONE PRESENT.
"Best on Earth."
This is the verdict of R. J. Howell, Tracy, O., who bought Foley's Honey and Tar Compound for his wife.
"Her case was the worst I have ever seen, and looked like a sure case of consumption. Her lungs were sore and she coughed almost incessantly and her voice was hoarse and weak.
Foley's Honey and Tar Compound brought relief at once and less than three bottles effected a complete cure. Sold by M. L. Marsh, Druggist.

Of the several Democratic leaders who are being discussed for the presidential nomination the oldest is point of years is Governor Harmon of Ohio, who will be 66 next February. Representative Underwood is in his fiftieth year, Woodrow Wilson is 53 and Speaker Champ Clark will celebrate his 61st birthday next March.

Where their Locality Does Not Count.
Wherever there are people suffering for kidney and bladder ailments, from backache, rheumatism and urinary irregularities, Foley Kidney Pills will help them. Belvidere, Ill., E. A.
Kelly, an ex-engineer, says: "Three years ago my kidneys became so bad that I was compelled to give up my engine and quit. There was a severe aching pain over the hips, followed by an inflammation of the bladder, and always a thick sediment. Foley Kidney Pills made me a sound and well man. I cannot say too much in their praise." Sold by M. L. Marsh.

Newton D. Baker, who recently was elected mayor of Cleveland by the large plurality of 18,000 is now being discussed by Ohio Democrats as a candidate to succeed Harmon.
To make the race for governor he would have to resign as mayor, since his term in the latter office does not expire until January 1, 1914.

With the Coming of Middle Age There is a letting down in the physical forces often shown in annoying and painful kidney and bladder ailments and urinary irregularities. Folley Kidney Pills are a splendid regulating and strengthening medicine at such a time. Try them. Sold by
M. L. Marsh, Druggist.

Without opiates or harmful drugs of any kind Foley's Honey and Tar Compound stops coughs and cures colds. Do not accept any substitute.

WAS SICK THIRTY YEARS.
Bowie, Tex.—The remarkable case of Mrs. S. J. Embury who lives near here is attracting attention, on account of her restoration to health after many years of suffering. She tells of it in a letter as follows:
"During the past thirty years I have suffered greatly from nervous troubles and my health was badly run down. Lately I learned of your cod liver and iron tonic, Vinol, and began taking it.
"I have used several bottles and improved so fast that I at once recommended it to two friends who were in poor health. My case was complicated but Vinol did wonders for me. Every woman who suffers from nervousness and weakness should take Vinol and recover her health." It is plain that a remedy that will overcome a chronic rundown condition like this is just what weak and sickly men, women and children everywhere need. If you want to be strong and healthy again, take Vinol, on our positive guarantee to give back your money if you are not satisfied.

Another child in the same hotel has a suite of the same size at the same cost. He is here with his mother from London, where they live, although both are Americans. She has one room in the hotel for her clothes alone. The walls are lined with wardrobes—one for her evening gowns, one for furs, another for street costumes and so on—and one side of the room is piled high with hat boxes.

An Alarm at Night That strikes terror to the entire household is the loud, hoarse and metallic cough of eroup. No mistaking it and fortunate then the lucky parents who keep Foley's Honey and Tar Compound on hand. H. W.
Casselman, Canton, N. Y., says: "It is worth its weight in gold. Our little children are troubled are troubled with eroup and hoarseness, and all we give them is Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. I always have a bottle of it in the house." Sold by
M. L. Marsh, Druggist.
