 We have been informed by the road supervisor of the road leading from this place to Albemarle, that the statement we made last week concerning the rumor about the condition of the road is a mistake, and that he had kept the road in as good condition as possible with the about of money allowed him. During the past week this correspondent has had occasion to drive over this road, and we find it in excellent condition for this time of year. We are extremely sorry that the people will find fault with a man's work, when he does the best he can.

 One more item about Mr. C. D. (Chap) Kriminger's 843 pounds, net porker. Mr. Kriminger got 210 pounds of pure lard from the big hog. TO MANY PEOPLE, AUTOMOBILES ARE VERY HANDY THINGS TO RUN OFF FROM STREET WITH.

THE CONCORD TRIBUNE SAYS TAINO that the Norfolk Southern will build direct from Mt. Gilead to Charlotte and run a spur track to Concord. Similarly, Colonel Phillips discussing the proposed route in the Greensboro News says: "The shortest route will be from Troy via Albemarle, the latter being on an almost air line between Troy and Charlotte. It would be shorter to go from Troy via Concord to Charlotte than from Troy via Mt. Gilead to Charlotte." After the newspaper men get through with building this road, the Norfolk Southern people will set to work and see what they can do about it. Meantime, there is no occasion for Concord to be disturbed.—Charlotte Chronicle.

THE FACT IS APPARENT beyond question that the only reason that many Congressmen, Democrats and Republicans alike, voted for the $75,000,000 pension steal was because they were afraid to vote against it. They know and admit that the appropriation is wrong and yet for fear of losing their jobs they stifled their convictions and voted for a wholesale wasting of the people's money. We are glad to note that eighty Democrats in the House stood square against the steal, and that every North Carolina Congressman except one is included in this list.

THE ATTEMPT AT SUICIDE of Richeon, the alleged murderer of Avis Linnell, at Cambridge, Mass., which was made Wednesday in a Boston jail where he is confined, brings to mind one famous expression of Daniel Webster, as follows: "There is no escape from confession but suicide, and suicide is confession." Though Richeon is not known to have confessed, many believe his attempted suicide was impelled by a conscience which gave him no rest.

THE MAN WHO WRITES GLOOMY POETRY is sometimes like the farmer who sees a burrow for a rooster.

THE QUESTION, "WHERE IS HE THAT BORN KING OF THE JEWS?" takes us back to the prediction of Mic. v. 2, as quoted in lesson verses 5, 6, and especially to the saying, "Out of thee shall come a governor that shall rule my people Israel." All the children are taught that He was born at Bethlehem, but who ever hears anything about His ruling Israel or sitting on the throne of David? Yet that is what He came to do, but He has never yet done it. As truly as He was born at Bethlehem He will yet reign over Israel, according to Jer. xxiii. 5, 6; Ezek. xxxvii. 21; Gabriel's message in Luke i. 32, 33; His own word to His disciples in Luke xxii. 30, and the prophets everywhere. The Scripture must be fulfilled, and no other meaning can be honestly given to these plain words. The visit of these wise men from the east to worship Him their gifts reminds us of the visit of the queen of Sheba and all the kings of the earth to Solomon and their great gifts to him (II Chron. ix. 1-9; Matt. 21, 24) and points us onward to the time of the kingdom when all nations shall bring their wealth and their gifts to Israel (Isa. lx. 1-7). The words of Gabriel to Mary, "The Lord God shall give unto Him the throne of his father, David, and He shall reign over the house of Jacob forever, and of His kingdom there shall be no end (Luke i. 32, 33), must be literally fulfilled. Then "all the ends of the world shall remember and turn unto the Lord, and all the kindreds of the nations shall worship before thee, for the kingdom is the Lord's, and He is the governor among the nations" (Ps. xxii, 27, 28).

THE STAR THAT GUIDED THESE WISE MEN must have been a supernatural light, as no ordinary star would guide to a house and remain over the house (verse 9). We can only wonder why with such guidance they should turn aside to Herod and thus be unwittingly the cause of the death of so many little children (verses 16-18), but there was a fulfillment of prophecy in it. Having found the child, they opened their treasures and offered unto Him their gifts—gold and frankincense and myrrh. People are today giving largely to so called good works, building libraries and many schemes for the betterment of the world, not believing God concerning this world that it lieth in the wicked one and is awaiting judgment and must pass through the fire of God's wrath before there can be any real betterment. What is needed is that His own people should open to Him their treasures of time and talent and money, to make known everywhere the glad tidings of His great salvation. I have often been helped by noting that before Joseph and Mary were sent to Egypt with the Child (verse 13) the money was ordered to go with, and I have long believed that we have no right to begin any work for the Lord or take any journey for Him until He provides for it or makes it very plain, for when He pethers forth His sheep He goes before them. We need to remember also that the money they journeyed on was the Child's money.
