The resolutions endorsing and commending the administration of President Taft were wired in full to Secretary Hilles within a few moments after the adjournment of the committee. It is said that the President is much concerned over the situation in North Carolina and the Morehead forces were quick to notify him of their victory.

When questioned as to whether or not it was true that he would run for Governor on a local option platform, Mr. Thomas Settle stated to The Observer representative tonight that he was in no sense a candidate for any
