BEAUTIFUL HOME WEDDING AT LANDIS ON WEDNESDAY OF LAST WEEK.

A beautiful home wedding Wednesday evening, June 29th, was that of Miss Grace Virginia Miller and Mr. Luther M. Copenhagen.

As Lobengrin's wedding march was played by Miss Ruby Dickenson, of Marion, accompanied on the violin by Miss Reggie, of Boston, the bride with her matron of honor, Mrs. B. O. Edwards, of Landis, N. C., entered one door and the groom with Dr. Meek Wolfe, of Lynchburg, entered another door.

Just before the hour for the service Judge Montgomery's comrades in arms, the Confederate veterans of the Caharrus camp, marched to the church in a body.

It is a solemn joy to be able to stand above the dust of my beloved friend," said the speaker.

CHAMP CLARK A PROGRESSIVE?

In Reply to Missourian's Caustic Answer, Nebraska Wants to Know Where He Stands.

Baltimore, June 30.— Sunday brought no cessation of hostilities between William J. Bryan and Speaker Champ Clark.

Mr. Clark declared "false and infamous" Mr. Bryan's implied accusations that the vote of the delegation placed him under obligations to J. Pierpont Morgan, August Belmont and Thomas F. Ryan.

FUNERAL OF JUDGE MONTGOMERY

LAST SAD TRIBUTE TO OUR DISTINGUISHED CITIZEN.

Service Conducted by Rev. J. H. West, Assisted by Revs. Plato Durham and Rev. Dr. Grier.—Large Number of People Present.—Many Here From a Distance.—An Eloquent Funeral Oration.

The seating capacity of Central Methodist church was inadequate to accommodate the vast throng that attended the funeral of the late Judge W. J. Montgomery, which was held yesterday morning at 11:30 o'clock.

HAS LAMB QUIT NORFOLK SOUTHERN?

Rumor Has It That J. M. Barr or A. W. Thompson Will Succeed Him. Charlotte Observer.

If current reports are to be accepted as true, President E. T. Lamb, of the Norfolk-Southern Railway with headquarters in Norfolk, has resigned his position effective in July and either J. M. Barr, formerly of the Seaboard Air Line, or A. W. Thompson, vice president of the Baltimore & Ohio has been elected his successor.

Mr. Durham then spoke of his life as a soldier. He paid a great tribute to the courage and bravery of the deceased as a soldier, numbering him among the members of the "thin gray line," whose passing once shook the earth.
