ANOTHER STORE IS BROKEN INTO

QUANTITY OF GOODS AND $200 IN CASH STOLEN.

Entrance Gained By Knocking Glass Out of Transom. — Safe Pried Open and Rifled.—No One as to Identity of Thieves. But It is Thought There Were Several of Them.

The store of M. C. Walter Company on West Depot street was entered last night and a quantity of goods and $200 in money was stolen. Entrance was gained by knocking the glass out of the transom over the front door. It is thought that several persons committed the robbery as the door was unlocked from the inside. This fact makes it plain that one person crawled through the transom and unlocked the door for the others to enter. The inside door of the safe was pried open and a drawer containing $200 in money was taken. Mr. R. B. Biggers, manager of the store, stated this morning that the outside door of the safe was very probably left open. On the floor around the safe was a number of match "stubs," which indicated that the thieves spent some time in prying open the inside door of the safe. A number of articles of various kinds are missing from the stock of goods.

There is not the slightest clue as to who committed the robbery. Mr. Biggers stated this morning that he was doubtful of the thieves would be apprehended on account of the fact that there was no way of identifying the money, whereas if they had taken a large quantity of goods it would be an easy matter to identify them in case they were found.

ROWAN'S COURT HOUSE.

County to Borrow $115,000 at 5 Per Cent. Interest, Principal to Be Paid in 30 Years.

Salisbury Post. The following is the plan for paying for Rowan county's new proposed courthouse as assigned by the lenders of the money and by the chairman of the Rowan county commissioners and will be of great interest to every citizen of the county:

Gentlemen: To enable you to build your proposed new county courthouse, we hereby agree and obligate ourselves to lend you the sum of one hundred and fifteen thousand ($115,000) dollars. The loan is to draw interest at the rate of 5 per cent. per annum, interest payable semi-annually and is to bear date July 1, 1912. It is to be repaid in installments as follows:

$2,000 two years after date, $2,000 three years after date, $2,000 five years after date, $3,000 six years after date, $3,000 seven years after date, $3,000 eight years after date, $3,000 nine years after date, $3,000 ten years after date, $3,000 eleven years after date, $3,000 twelve years after date, $4,000 thirteen years after date, $4,000 fourteen years after date, $4,000 fifteen years after date, $4,000 sixteen years after date, $4,000 seventeen years after date, $5,000 eighteen years after date, and $5,000 each year thereafter up to and including 29 years after date, and then $6,000 thirty years after date.

This transaction is to be closed and the money paid over to you not later than July 15, 1912, and you are to allow us the sum of $750 for our services and to cover our expenses, and at your regular meeting on the first Monday in July, 1912, you are to adopt such resolutions as may be necessary to cover the transaction. This resolution is to be approved by your county attorney and to be satisfactory to you. Respectfully yours, C. A. WEBB & CO.

The above proposition was this day accepted by me by authority of the board of commissioners of Rowan county. This 4th day of June, 1912. P. B. BEARD, Ch'm'n B'd Co. Commissioners.

Trying to Recover Bodies With Dynamite.

Atlantic, N. J., July 3.—Dynamite was exploded near the spot where the dirigible balloon Akron fell yesterday in an attempt to recover the bodies of Melvin Vaniman, Walter Guesst and Fred Elmer. Divers yesterday found the body of George Bourillon.

Fight Promoters Face Big Deficit.

East Las Vegas, N. M., July 3.—Johnson and Flynn are ready for tomorrow's fight, but no crowd is in sight. The promoters face a big deficit.

MARSHALL CHOSEN FOR VICE PRESIDENT.

Convention Favored Clark for Second Place But He and His Friends Declined to Allow Use of His Name.

Baltimore, July 3.—For President—Governor Woodrow Wilson, of New Jersey.

For Vice President—Governor Thomas R. Marshall, of Indiana. This was the ticket completed by the Democratic national convention at 1:56 a. m. today.

The nomination of Governor Marshall for Vice President came somewhat as a surprise for when the night's balloting for Vice President began it seemed the Bryan-Wilson contingent in the convention had definitely settled upon Governor John E. Burke, of North Dakota.

There was not much of a fight over, and when the two ballots disclosed Marshall easily in lead, Governor Burke's name was withdrawn and Marshall was proclaimed the nominee by acclamation. A minute later the convention had adjourned sine die.

Mr. Bryan had announced his intention of introducing a resolution in effect discharging the national committee from conduct of the coming campaign and allowing Governor Wilson to appoint his own campaign committee. He was dissuaded from this course and instead of making a move that might have stirred up strife, he made a little speech which he termed his "valedictory" and in happy vein turned over the mantle of his former leadership as a presidential candidate to Governor Wilson.

He pledged his faithful support to the presidential nominee and ended by urging that either Governor Burke or Senator George Chamberlain, of Oregon, be nominated for Vice President. The Nebraskan was understood particularly to favor Governor Burke as a type of the modern progressive.

When after the first ballot, some one moved to make the nomination of Marshall unanimous, Mr. Bryan started for the stage to make a statement. The motion was withdrawn before he could speak. When the motion was renewed after the second ballot Mr. Bryan did not protest. The platform bowed out in committee several days ago and warmly praised by Bryan was adopted with a whoop.

WILSON CONGRATULATED.

By Harmon, Underwood and Clark. All Will Work for Him.

Columbus, Ohio, July 2.—After being informed that Governor Woodrow Wilson, of New Jersey, had been nominated for the presidency, Governor Judson Harmon sent the successful candidate a telegram congratulating him. When asked what he thought of the selection of Governor Wilson, Governor Harmon said: "I do not care to say anything about it now. You can say I am pleased with the support accorded me by my boys."

Sea Girt, N. J., July 2.—This message from Champ Clark: "Just leaving for Washington. I congratulate you upon your hard-earned victory and will do all I can to elect you."

Washington, July 2.—Representative Oscar W. Underwood has sent the following telegram to Gov. Woodrow Wilson at Sea Girt, N. J.:

"Accept my congratulations on your nomination. It will be my pleasure to support your candidacy to my utmost strength."

"OSCAR W. UNDERWOOD."

Howard Means.

An event of wide interest will be the marriage this evening of Miss Louise Means and Mr. Alex R. Howard, which will take place at 8 o'clock at St. James Lutheran church.

The bride will be attended by her sister, Miss Mabel Means as maid of honor. Mayor C. B. Wagoner will be best man and Messrs. Victor, George and Paul Means, brothers of the bride, and E. C. Barnhardt, Jr., will be ushers. Little Misses Catherine Means and Mariam Morris will be ribbon girls. The ceremony will be performed by Rev. C. P. MacLaughlin, assisted by Rev. Dr. L. A. Bikle.

Titanic Inquiry Ended.

London, July 3.—The board of trade inquiry of the Titanic disaster ended today. Attorney General Isaacs concluded, stating with extreme regret that he had reached the decision that there was no excuse for the inaction of Captain Lord, of the California, for failing to answer the Titanic's distress signals.

Roosevelt Refuses to Talk on Wilson's Nomination.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., July 3.—Col. Roosevelt refused to talk on the Democratic nomination or platform and evaded the question as to its effect on the proposed progressive party.

THOMAS RILEY MARSHALL. Democratic Nominee for Vice President.

Friends, as well as enemies,—for he has his share of both—of Thomas Riley Marshall, Democratic governor of Indiana, have as yet been unable to make up their minds whether he is a progressive "with brakes set" or a conservative "with a move on." Governor Marshall smiles indulgently and says that it is six of one and half a dozen of the other, so what's the difference?

Either phrase fits the Hoosier governor equally well. Like nearly all the others who went after the 1912 Democratic presidential nomination Gov. Marshall came into the limelight on a wave of reform but the Indiana wave was not so boisterous as those that broke on the New Jersey coast and elsewhere; apparently somebody poured a little oil on it before it broke. The governor believes in reform—in moderation. Also he believes in progressing—with moderation. He does not believe that this great and glorious commonwealth is going to the "demition bow-wow," in fact he points with pride to his belief that the country is just a little bit better politically, financially and morally than ever before.

It required heroic measures on the part of his friends to induce Gov. Marshall to take his presidential chances seriously and even then he refused to allow any effort to be made in his behalf outside of the State of Indiana.

"The Presidential nomination is a thing too big to run after and too big to run away from," was his comment on the situation. "It is sure to overtake you if you should happen to be the man really wanted by the people."

That was his attitude when Indiana Democrats urged him to "come out" and after he got the indorsement of his own State he added to it like this: "I am not a candidate for any office under the sun. How can a man be of service to his employer if that man is putting in all of his time hunting for a new job? I was elected governor for four years and I intend to give my employers—the people of Indiana—four years service."

Born in Manchester, Ind., in 1854, Governor Marshall has spent his entire 58 years in his native State. Graduating from Wabash College in 1873, when he was 21 years old, he practiced law in Columbia City, Ind., until he was elected governor two years ago. He is a member of many clubs and holds LL.D. degrees from Wabash, Notre Dame and the University of Pennsylvania. He married Miss Lois I. Kimsey, of Angola, Ind., in 1885.

In the Literary State they call "Tom" Marshall the "Little Giant." When one sees him for the first time, he wonders why, because there is nothing colossal about the slender, undersized man with sloping shoulders and quiet mien. His hair and mustache, turning from grey to white to not bristle, his brows do not "beetle" so one can notice it and even his violet-blue eyes are mild. It is his political history that that "Little Giant" term is understood. The Governor likes his friends and he will stand by them through thick and thin to the last ditch. When the gubernatorial race was on two years ago, there were a number of well-known Indiana Democrats gunning for it, and Marshall had not been heard of. But he had friends, and those friends urged him to run, told him he was the only man who could "save the day." Marshall ran—to please his friends—and he was nominated and elected.

CINCO DEFEAT SPENCER.

With Score 3 to 1 in Seventh Inning Visitors Refuse to Play When Umpire Calls a Ball Hit Outside the Line Foul.

With the score 3 to 1 in favor of Concord at the beginning of the seventh inning yesterday Spencer forfeited a game to Concord because the umpire refused to call a ball hit down the right field line a fair ball. The whole Spencer team kicked vigorously. The hitter ran to third and there he stopped. Why he stopped at third will never be known, as the ball rolled through a crack in the fence and if he was entitled to anything it was a home run. Anyway the captain and whole team kicked. John M. Oglesby was umpiring. The captain said the ball was fair, the umpire said it was foul. The former refused to continue to play and under the rules the game was forfeited.

When the bolt came the grandstand which is near the third base line, was divided, a number expressing the opinion that the ball was fair while others were of the opinion it was foul. It is to be earnestly hoped, however, that the abrupt ending of the game and the fact that it was not played to a finish will not in anyway hurt the interest in the game here and cause the attendance to fall off. The Cincoes were in no sense to blame. The boys from Spencer evidently thought their kick was a just one. They refused to play after the ball was hit and the only thing left under the rules to do was to forfeit the game.

Ross Cannon pitched for the Cincoes. The big fellow had things going his way from the jump and the visitors were powerless before his pitching. He fanned eleven in six innings and allowed four bingles. The Cincoes scored one in the first on a base on balls to Dally, an infield out and West single. Two more were added in the third when Hoover walked and trotted in on Dusenbery's terrific wallop over the left field fence. Spencer added one in the third on a base on balls and two singles.

The Cincoes play Kannapolis a double header Thursday. The morning game will be played here and the afternoon game at Kannapolis.

Chattanooga Bars Mr. Bryan.

Mexico, Mo., July 2.—The local Chattanooga managers have warned their Chicago bureau not to permit William J. Bryan to make an address during the Mexico Chattanooga this year. "It would not only mean a financial loss, but we would not want to be responsible for what might happen," said A. H. Whitney and Fred A. Morris today. Feeling against Mr. Bryan in the ninth congressional district, represented by Champ Clark, is not white heat. His Chattanooga dates have been out everywhere in the district.

CONCORD NEEDS A PENNANT WINNER.

Now is the Time for All Good Citizens to Come to the Aid of the Baseball Team.

A meeting was held at the courthouse last night for the purpose of considering ways and means of securing a winning ball team for Concord.

The object of the meeting was stated by Mr. Claude West. Mr. West reviewed the situation in the Piedmont League, stating that with the addition of three other men, it would so strengthen the team that the same team played here could also go to the other towns and play. By the present arrangements there are a number of good players who can be with the team here but cannot go away on account of other duties. This fact has caused Concord to lose a majority of the games away from here.

Mr. West pointed out the advantages of a winning ball team as an advertisement for a town. He took as an example the bustling little city of Wadesboro, which for three years had had a ball team that literally put Wadesboro on the map of live towns in North Carolina. High Point has already recognized the value of a good baseball team and the business men there were supporting the team in a most substantial way.

Mr. West stated that in his opinion with the addition of Winston, a heavy hitting catcher, Meadows, the young phenom who twirled such sensational ball for Horner's this season, and Fred Patterson, the local team could be whipped into a winning combination and easily cop the gonfalon on the Piedmont race.

All of these men can be secured now, but if action is not taken at once they will likely sign with some other club. For this reason the management of the local club decided to make an effort to secure funds sufficient to sign them and to also run the team the remainder of the season.

Manager Weddington stated that by selling 100 season tickets at $5 each the team could be run through the remainder of the season and the additional men secured. It was also decided to give a lawn party Saturday evening on the courthouse lawn and in this way raise funds. To assist in carrying out the above plans the following committees were appointed:

Committee on season tickets—Ross Cannon, J. C. Willeford, A. R. Hoover and John M. Oglesby.

Committee on donations—W. J. Montgomery, Jr.

Committee on ice cream supper—Mesdames W. J. Weddington, N. A. Archibald; Misses Ashley Lowe, Mary Hartsell, Alice Brown, Laura Ridenhour, Mace Lafferty, Catherine Goodson, Nannie Lee Patterson, Mary Bronson Coltrane, Mary MacLaughlin, Laura May West, Mariam Morris, Margaret Virginia Ervin, Helen Marsh, Minette Marshall and Margaret Bell; Messrs. Claude West, W. J. Weddington, Colb Morris, Gowan Dusenbery, Jr., T. J. Hendrix, Lester Bell and Charles Wadsworth.

WILSON IS PLEASED WITH RUNNING MATE.

The Governor Slept Late and Hardly Knew Where He Was When He Awoke.

Sea Girt, N. J., July 3.—Gov. Wilson slept late today and hardly recognized the place when he awoke. The town is over crowded, owing to visitors coming to congratulate the Governor on his nomination. The lawn at the "little White House" is filled with tents for telegraphers, correspondents, etc. Texas, New Jersey, Pennsylvania and other delegations from the convention are coming to see the Governor. When informed this morning that Marshall was named for Vice President he expressed satisfaction and said: "Gov. Marshall bears the highest reputation as an executive and a Democrat. I feel honored to have him as a running mate. He is, I am happy to say, a valued personal friend."

Gov. Marshall is Pleased.

Indianapolis, Ind., July 3.—Gov. Marshall expressed gratification at being named as the candidate for Vice President. He said he hoped he would be of service to the party in the campaign and went about his work at the State capital as usual.

Wolgang and Rivers Ready.

Los Angeles, Cal., July 3.—Wolgang and Rivers are ready for tomorrow's championship bout. Both are confident.

The Wilkes Patriot is another Republican paper that openly repudiates the fraudulent nomination of President Taft. The Patriot boldly declares it will not "condone and sanction theft and fraud."

The banks of the city will be closed tomorrow, a legal holiday.

STORY OF THE NOMINATION OF WILSON.

Gets 990 Votes on 46th Ballot, and the Nomination is Made Unanimous.

Baltimore, Md., July 2.—Governor Woodrow Wilson, of New Jersey, was made the presidential nominee of the Democratic national convention at the afternoon session today when on the 46th ballot he received 990 votes to 84 or Champ Clark. The Missouri delegation which had remained faithful to Clark to the end then moved that the nomination be made unanimous. There was a great chorus of approval and the long fight was over.

Alabama which had started every other call with 24 votes for Underwood chucked to Wilson and State after State followed suit. It was just 3:15 p. m. when the solid 76 votes of Pennsylvania carried Wilson over the winning line, making his total at the time 733 votes.

The stampede did not end until 990 of the 1,088 votes in the convention had been cast for the nominee. Senator Bankhead, of Alabama, was seen making his way to the stage. Word flashed over the great armory that his purpose was to withdraw Mr. Underwood from the race and release his delegates to vote for whom they saw fit.

The only display of temper marking the nominating session came from some of the Missouri delegates. They demanded to know of Senator Bankhead why Mr. Underwood had not withdrawn when Clark appeared to have a chance for the nomination and accused the Underwood delegates of "faking." Senator Bankhead paid no heed to the questions hurled at him. He said Mr. Underwood desired the success of his party above everything else and would not lend himself to any plan to prevent a nomination.

Senator Stone of Missouri, who had been in consultation with Speaker Clark, climbed to the stage and released in the name of the speaker all of the delegates who had been pledged to him.

"As for Missouri, however," he added, "she will cast her 36 votes for old Champ Clark to the end."

THE DELEGATES ALL RETURN TO HOMES

ALL CONFIDENT OF SUCCESS IN COMING CAMPAIGN.

Harmony Prevails Throughout the Party Ranks.—Ticket is Satisfactory to All.—Most Progressive in Years.—Marshall Strongest Candidate for Vice President.—Bryan's Opposition to Him Was Withdrawn.—Bryan Predicts Success.

Baltimore, July 3.—The tired, but happy delegates to the convention returned home today. They are confident of success in the coming campaign. Harmony prevails throughout the party ranks. The ticket nominated is satisfactory to all concerned; most progressive move in years. The convention closed in good order. The Wilson forces accept victory good naturedly and the Clark men defeat likewise. Marshall is considered the strongest vice presidential candidate. Bryan's opposition to him was withdrawn. Bryan delivered his valedictory, renouncing his personal ambition and announcing his intention to take steps to work for party's best interests and country's welfare and predicting success. Thus winds up the great convention of 1912.

There will be a big Fourth of July celebration at Kannapolis tomorrow. There will be a parade to the ball grounds, where there will be races and various amusements, followed by a band concert and a game of ball between Concord and Kannapolis. Admission 15 and 25 cents. There will be a moving picture show of five reels at night, the admission price being 10 and 20 cents.

Mr. J. F. Hurley left this morning for Salisbury to spend several days on business.
