Pretty Wedding This Morning at Rocky River Church.

Historic Rocky River church was the scene of a pretty wedding this morning at 9 o'clock when Miss Nannie L. White became the bride of Mr. William P. LeGrande. The ceremony was witnessed by a large assemblage of friends of the young people.

Just before the appointed hour Miss Catherine Lapsley sang in beautiful voice, "Because I Love You, Dear," with violin obligato by Mr. Lloyd Cope. At the appointed hour the bridal party entered and took their places at the altar, which was beautiful in decorations of ferns and golden rod. The entry was signalized by the soft strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march rendered by Miss Elsie Lapsley. First to enter was Rev. James Lapsley, the officiating minister. Then came the ushers, Messrs. Ernest Correll and William Morrison and Buford White and Whit Pharr, who entered from the right and left aisles respectively. The bridesmaid, Miss Minnie Rodgers then entered from the left aisle, and the groomsmen, John M. Oglesby, from the right. Then came the ring bearer, little Miss Isabelle Bost. The maid of honor, Miss Sallie Belle White, a sister of the bride, entered from the right aisle. The bride and her brother, Mr. Lee White, who gave her away, entered from the right aisle. She wore a handsome blue traveling suit with hat and gloves to match and carried a lovely bouquet of bride's roses. The bride was met at the altar by the groom, who entered with the best man, Mr. William M. Fetzer. The impressive ceremony of the Presbyterian church was used. At the conclusion of the ceremony Lohengrin's recessional was played.

The bride is the popular and attractive daughter of Mr. J. M. W. White and has a host of friends in this section. Mr. LeGrande is a native of Lynchburg, Va., but has lived in this State for several years, being a member of the faculty at Bingham School for some time. He moved to Concord six years ago and accepted a position at the Franklin mill and is now night superintendent of the plant. He is a young man of high character, recognized worth and ability.

Mr. and Mrs. LeGrande left on train No. 36 for Lynchburg, Va., where they will visit relatives for several days. They will also visit other points of interest in the Old Dominion before returning to their home here.

TWO THIS TIME.

Mr. D. J. Rimer and Son, Heretofore Republicans, Come to the Democratic Party.

Editor Times and Tribune:
Several years ago I went into the Republican party. My sons followed me. I can't support that party or the Bull Moose crowd any longer, and there are many good reasons why I must return to the Democratic party, whose nominees from President down to township Constable I shall support at the election in November. The time for peace and harmony among our people in Cabarrus county is here. Yours very truly,
D. J. RIMER.

Rimer's, Sept. 7, 1912.

Having faith in my father's political judgment and his good intentions, I too am going with him into the Democratic party, and I am fully determined to do a man's part for the whole Democratic ticket in the election this fall. Yours truly,
JOHN RIMER.

No. 6 township, Sept. 7, 1912.

CERTAIN OF MAINE.

McAdoo Declares His Belief Wilson Will Get Electoral Vote.

New York, Sept. 10.—William McAdoo, acting chairman of the Democratic national committee, made the following statement today regarding the Maine election:

"We are of course disappointed that Maine did not go Democratic this year, but it was too much to expect. It is a Republican State and the result was determined wholly by local issues and conditions. Maine is neither a barometer nor a thermometer of the national election. This is proven by the fact that in the first Cleveland campaign it went Republican by more than 20,000 majority and in the third Cleveland campaign by more than 14,000 majority and yet the Democrats won in November. The election in a Democratic victory in one sense, that the Republican majority in the State has been reduced to the pitiful figures of 3,800. It seems certain that Wilson and Marshall will carry the State in November."

LARGEST SINGLE MILL TO BE AT GREENVILLE.

Woodside Plant Will Be Increased From 85,000 Spindles and 2,024 Looms to 113,000 Spindles and 2,650 Looms.

Greenville, Sept. 10.—Greenville is to have the largest cotton mill under one roof in the United States and one of the largest in the world.

President John T. Woodside of the Woodside mills today gave out the statement that at a meeting of the board of directors the management was authorized to increase the plant from 85,000 spindles and 2,024 looms, making it the largest textile plant in this country under one roof.

The Woodside corporation was organized nine years ago, and the growth of the company has been phenomenal.

SIMMONS ON MAINE.

Election Had No Special Significance on the General Result in November.

Washington, Sept. 10.—Senator Simmons is here today to look after some personal matters. He said that the Maine election had no significance in regard to the coming national election and thinks that the Democrats will carry that State in November.

"The Republicans made their campaign on local issues in Maine. The result in the State elections yesterday may be attributed to the fact," said the Senator.

Roosevelt for Recall of Judiciary.

Portland, Oregon, Sept. 11.—Roosevelt today specialized the Rooseveltian plan of the recall of the judiciary. He had a tumultuous entry into Portland. He emphasized the adoption of the recall with the instance of the New York Court of Appeals decision branding workmen's compensation act as void. "Court stood fearlessly against the public for the corporation that coined money from the work of haggard women," he said.

Women Disgusted with the Men in the Idaho Election.

Boise, Idaho, Sept. 11.—The women were disgusted with the men politicians and today announced that they would put a complete ticket in the field to oppose the men at the fall elections. The convention this week will nominate an independent ticket.

Progressives Sweep Colorado.

Denver, Col., Sept. 11.—Returns today show that the progressives swept the State in yesterday's primaries. Philip B. Stewart, Republican, and Elias M. Ammons, Democrat, both progressives, were nominated for governor by their respective parties.

Rowdyism in Atlanta Theatres.

Atlanta, Sept. 11.—The Atlanta theatregoers, backed by the sentiment of the theatrical management have arisen in vigorous protest against the resumption of the rowdyism, usually led by Georgia Tech students, which has kept the galleries in an uproar on so many occasions.

When the Atlanta theatre opened last week the management through no fault of its own didn't get its gallery policemen in time, and the noise was shameful. Occasionally other people join in the disturbance, but the prevailing sense for several years past has been that the Tech boys are the ringleaders, and following the scenes of last week the edict has gone out that they have got to behave themselves.

Bull Moose Ticket in Georgia.

Atlanta, Sept. 11.—The Bull Moose people in Georgia are planning to establish a state headquarters here this week, according to Executive Committee St. Julian Yates.

The "Progressive" Roosevelt followers have about determined to put a local bull moose ticket in the field for several congressional places, and perhaps also for commissioner of agriculture.

Minister a Suicide.

Charlotte, Sept. 10.—Rev. R. E. Steele, a prominent Presbyterian minister of this State, committed suicide today at his home in Lambertown by taking a drug. No cause can be assigned for the minister taking his life, nothing about his condition having been abnormal during the past few days.

Mrs. S. J. Lowe is visiting friends in Charlotte.

REYNOLDS WILL ACCEPT.

Will Meet Congressman Doughton on Stump in Eighth District.

Spencer, Sept. 10.—G. D. B. Reynolds, the Republican nominee for Congress in the eighth district today notified J. D. Dorsett, of Spencer, a member of the State and Congressional committees that he will accept the challenge of his opponent, Congressman R. L. Doughton, to a joint canvass of the district. Mr. Reynolds says he is glad to accommodate Mr. Doughton in the matter of a joint debate. He has asked Mr. Dorsett to arrange a conference with Mr. Doughton in Salisbury at an early date. Mr. Reynolds was called to the bedside of his sick mother at Lemon Springs.

New System of Labeling Express Packages Prevents Overcharges.

The new system of labeling express packages adopted by the express company on the 1st, will, it is said, prevent overcharges. Under the new arrangement the shipper is required to specify in writing the article which he desired to send whether it is paid or C. O. D., and its destination. The agent then makes out a label which is attached to the article and the shipper receives a duplicate. If the article is C. O. D. the label is white, if paid the label is yellow. On the label is specified the weight of the article, the destination, the charges and the rate. If it is prepaid, the amount paid is specified. If it is sent C. O. D., the amount to be collected is specified on the label.

By this system it is impossible for any express agent to overcharge without being apprehended by either the receiver or the agent at the other end of the line.
