

MANLY MORRIS SENDS FOR OFFICER

MAN WHO SHOT MORGAN SURRENDERS OF OWN VOLITION.

Sent a Note By Colored Boy to Mr. Brandon Means Requesting Him to Get Chief of Police Boger and Come for Him at Bridge Near Head Place.—Placed Under a Bond of $2,500 for Hearing on Wednesday. —Morgan's Condition is Worse.

Manly Morris, who shot Samuel Morgan early Saturday morning, and who has since been in hiding from the authorities, surrendered this morning. The case against him was postponed for a week and he was placed under a bond of $2,500.

Morris wrote Mr. Brandon Means a note this morning requesting him to get Chief of Police Boger and meet him at the bridge just beyond Coleridge. Chief Boger and Mr. Means went to the place designated and found Morris waiting for them. On their arrival he turned his pistol, a 32-calibre Smith and Wesson, over to Mr. Boger and got in the buggy with them. Morris made no statement concerning the shooting, except he said that he regretted shooting his friend.

He was taken to Chief Boger's office, from which place he sent for his counsel, Mr. W. G. Means. A conference between Mr. Means and the authorities resulted in Morris being placed under a $2,500 bond as noted above.

A report from Charlotte, where Morgan is undergoing treatment at the Presbyterian Hospital, states that his condition is worse. The report states that he had a coughing spell yesterday afternoon and broke the threads which the surgeons used in sewing up parts perforated by the bullet. Unless a change for better soon occurs, it is said, there is slim chance for his surviving much longer.

Prof. Coon in Trouble Once More.

Wilson, Nov. 25.—Alleging that his son, James Anderson, had been brutally assaulted by Prof. Charles L. Coon, superintendent of the Wilson graded school, Dr. W. S. Anderson has retained Attorneys F. A. and S. A. Woodard to represent him in an investigation of the punishment of the lad, who is a pupil in the school. The incident which has caused the trouble occurred Friday morning, when it is alleged that young Anderson violated the rules of the study hall by talking and looking out of the window.

According to a statement made by the more conservative of the pupils, the boy had been reprimanded several times during the morning and finally Prof. Coon, seeming exasperated, reached, reached over and grasped Anderson by the collar, shaking him and spanking him. Some pupils also state that the teacher choked the boy until he was purple.

Prof. Coon emphatically denies that he either spanked or choked the boy, and states that he had previously announced that he would shake any boy who violated the rules.

Tillman Fights for Children.

Columbia, S. C., Nov. 26.—In the South Carolina supreme court today, Chief Justice Gary listened to arguments in the habeas corpus proceedings brought by Benjamin R. Tillman, Jr., to secure the custody of his two children. The martial troubles of the Tillmans are of long standing and culminated in the separation of the couple more than a year ago, since which time the children have been with their mother. Ever since the separation, Mr. Tillman's father, United States Senator Tillman, has aided in the fight for the custody of his two grandchildren. In a most remarkable petition filed with the court, Senator Tillman admits that his son has been a drunkard, but declares that he has now reformed and is a proper guardian for the children.

CLOSE OF CONFERENCE.

Some of the Work of the Last Day's Session.

The 1912 session of the Western North Carolina Conference closed at High Point yesterday morning at 11 o'clock, which was several hours earlier than the usual closing hour.

The report of the committee on books and periodicals was submitted and that item of the report relative to the North Carolina Christian Advocate, the organ of the Conference, provoked discussion and opposition on the floor of the Conference. This recommended that an assessment of $3,000 be placed on the Conference for the support of The Advocate.

C. W. Byrd, T. F. Marr and R. M. Hoyle opposed the placing of this assessment on the Conference upon the ground that the assessments of the Conference are sufficient already, and they opposed it, also, as not being the best plan to adopt for the support of the paper.

D. B. Coltrane of the board of publication of The Advocate supported the recommendation of the committee. He said the board was alarmed about The Advocate, because the subscription list was not growing as it should and that the paper was not being read as it should be read. These conditions existed, he said, because of the fault of the preachers and the board of stewards in the churches.

T. F. Marr offered as a substitute to that item of the report which recommended the placing of an assessment of $3,000 on the Conference for the support of The Advocate that the Conference secure 2,500 new subscribers to that paper during the coming year. The substitute was adopted, after which the report as a whole was adopted.

Resolutions of appreciation of the presidency of Bishop Denny, in the cabinet and in the Conference room were also adopted unanimously. Bishop Denny expressed his appreciation but said when he became bishop he determined never to allow resolutions of this kind about himself to be passed by any Conference over which he presided, and that very rarely had he allowed it to be done. It was recommended in this connection that a copy of these resolutions be sent to the organ of another Conference over which Bishop Denny presided, The St. Louis Christian Advocate, in which paper a contributor had criticized his presidency over that Conference, in certain instances Bishop Denny said he would be just as well satisfied if the Conference ignored that communication.

The following statistics were submitted to the Conference today:

Number of local preachers 179; church membership 95,030; infants baptized 1,636; adults baptized 2,621; Epworth Leagues 73; Epworth League members 3,039; Sunday schools 782; officers and teachers 5,707; scholars 70,744; amount contributed to Conference claimants $9,048; to foreign missions $19,403; domestic missions $18,574; church extension $8,038; American Bible Society $871; presiding elders $19,717; preachers in charge $164,240; bishops $2,870; number of societies 874; houses of worship 819; pastoral charges 225; parsonages 102; districts 11.

CENTRAL'S NEW PASTOR.

What a Statesville Correspondent Says of Rev. Harold Turner.

Rev. Harold Turner, the new pastor of Central Methodist church, has just closed a four year's postorate at the First church in Statesville. He is greatly loved there, not only by his own people but by members of other denominations. The Statesville correspondent of the Charlotte Observer says of him:

"Statesville people in general will lose Mr. Turner with keen regret. Not only has he served worthily his charge here and built up his church during the four years of his ministry here, but he has endeared himself to the people of the town.

"Rev. Mr. Turner came to Statesville from the Brevard Street church of Charlotte four years ago. At that time the congregation of the Broad Street church here was worshipping in the court house, the handsome new church which had been begun under the ministry of Rev. Frank Siler, at the time were erected and the congregation was straining under the burden imposed by the new building. Mr. Turner took hold with a vim and soon the Sunday school room was finished and completed, and the completion of the building was then pushed rapidly forward. The Broad Street church is now one of the handsomest structures in this conference together in the strength of union and harmony and the charge has become one of the most attractive in the Conference, paying the pastor of $1,800 a year, together with large contributions to the several causes of the church. In addition to the completion of the new house of worship the same congregation has furnished a very desirable site for the home of the presiding elder of the district, and upon this site there is just now being completed a handsome residence erected at a cost of about $4,000."

Girl Recovers Sight.

Asheville, Nov. 23.—Miss Lila Cameron, of Marion, who is 29 years old and until yesterday had been blind since her birth, is today able to see as well as the average person in Asheville who uses glasses. Her sight was given her by an operation performed yesterday afternoon. The results of the operation are probably among the most wonderful ever accomplished in the United States, and the operation required only a few minutes. Miss Cameron is without doubt the happiest person in the world today.

The operation was not performed on both eyes yesterday afternoon, only on the right one, and the happiness of the patient on being able to see for the first time in her life came very near making the operation unsuccessful, as only a local anesthesia was used and as soon as the delicate operation was completed she was able to see. She could not control her emotions for a few moments, until it was impressed on her that her continued sight depended upon her emotion being controlled until the eye has healed.

This first operation proved a success and as little pain had been suffered she returned for the second this morning, which was equally successful, and now her sight is impeded only by a natural nearsightedness.

MR. WEBB A CANDIDATE.

Democratic State Chairman Would Like to Be District Attorney.

Asheville, Nov. 25.—After having the matter under advisement several days, Democratic State Chairman C. A. Webb today told friends that he would ask for the appointment as district attorney, the position now held by A. E. Holton, of Winston. This position pays $4,500, and few positions within the gift of the President hold greater attraction for lawyers. Cameron Morrison, of Charlotte, has authorized the announcement that he will not ask for this position, which presumably leaves Mr. Webb and Hon. Walter E. Moore as active candidates for the recognition.
