SHOT FROM AMBUSH.

Police Unable to Trace Dead Man's Movements of to Secure Identity of Gunmen Seen Running From Scene.

Greensboro News, 10th.

W. H. Tucker, a white man about 35 years of age, and a painter by trade, was shot from ambush and instan ly killed at the corner of East Market and Percy streets at about 10:30 o'clock last night. Three men, two negroes and one white, were seen running out East Market street several blocks distant at a time which coincided with the shooting. Not-withstanding Tucker was shot down in the full glare of an electric light, route 4. and in a district in which many peo-ple were astir, the police could find no one who actually witnessed any part of the tragedy. A negro phoned the alarm to police headquarters. People about the corpse when the officers arrived said the man was dead when they reached him. All declared that they saw no one running, and no trace of Tucker's movements during the night could be seenred. It seems certain that but one shot was fired. This struck its victim in the left temple just above the eye. He fell face downward and in a manner which indicated that he was facing toward the city when shot.

Few negroes questioned would talk; those who did may as well have not. The only information at all came from further down East Market street and was to the effect that the two negroes and a white tman passed on the run.

Some names were mentioned last night but the affair is yet so covered in uncertainty that formal charges route 4. pression of the negroes that Tucker was shot down because of a belief that he was an informer to the police. The police, however, declared that he had never figured in any

Opening Schedules of the American

And National Leagues. New York, April 10.—Sixteen major ball clubs face the barrier today in the grinding race which carries from young April into young October. In other words the gay and giddy ensemble has arrived again and the most interesting season—due to a number of mid-winter unheavals -the game has ever known is under way. From the far west-from the far south and even from an island in the Atlantic Ocean, these sixteen clubs have come back from their training trips and with few excep-tions they are now ready to take the first jump in far better condition than they were in April of 1912. The pennant contenders without any sort of exception are in excellent condition, ready to start at top speed. The dazzling jump which John McGraw and his Giants obtained last year put other rivals upon their guard so ill-conditioned clubs will among those in today's an-

This Year There Are 49 Who Have tered, An Increase Over Last

Prof. C. E. Boger, county superin-tendent of public instruction, who has charge of the Boys' Corn Club in this city, announces that 49 boys have entered the club for this year. This is an incresse over the number last year and gives Cabarrus a higher rank in this work than in any previous year since the corn contests started. The county now ranks seventh. Prof. Boger is greatly pleased over this showing, which is considered excellent considering there are 100 counties in the State and that a majority of the counties shead of Cabarrus in this work are larger coun-

President and Vice- President at the Ball Game.

Washington, D. C., April 10.-President Wilson got out his nice gold pass to the American League games today, put it in his pocket and started out to clean up his desk in a hur ry so that he could open the baseball season here late this afternoon.

Old Fox Griffith, leader of the Climbing Washington Nationals, expected to have the President throw the first ball to lanky Walter Johnson, the Kansas eyelone, and thus bring good luck during the season to the home team. Vice-President Marshall said today when he arrived at his office at the Senate that he also hoped to sneak away from legislative cares and seep a score-card on the Washington-Yankees games. If President Wilson follows out his tentative promise, he may be a real baseball president. Taft used to take in an occasional game, but he wasn't particularly a fan. Wilson is. He knows the fine points of the game. Vice-President Marshall promises to use predecessor, the late "Sunny Jim" nome game.
