COMPLETE DETAILS

OF THE DROWNING OF MR. PRED DAYVAULT.

The Body Has Not Yet Been Recovered.—Relatives and Friends Have Gone to Scene of Tragedy and Will Spare No Efforts In Recovering

As 1:30 o'clock today full particulars had not been received from the inquiries made by members of the family, friends and lodges concerning the drowning of Mr. Fred Daywault, the 16-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Daywault, who lost his life in a river near Walling, Tenn. Tuesday afternoon, where he was attending a summer school composed of the members of the faculty and students of Webb's School at Bell Buckle, Tenn.

A number of inquiries have been made to the name of the stream the young man lost his life in. None of the messages have contained the name, which has not yet been definitely determined. A state map of Tennesses shows two streams only a short distance from Walling. Rocky River and the Cumberland river. Rocky River is a tributary of the Cumberland and appears from the map to enter into the Cumberland near Walling.

students of Webb's School at Bell Buckle, Tenn.

Yesterday afternoon about 5 of Clock the following message was received from Froi. W. R. Schoelfnet, in charge of the school:

"River wide and deep. Body not yet recovered and suggest that reward be offered."

In response to this message Mr. H. P. Guffy, an uncle of the young man, left for Walling. Mr. Guffy will arrive in Bell Buckle this afternoon at 5 o'clock and at Walling at 8. He will spare no effort or expense in recovering the body.

Mr. W. R. Noe, of Morristown, a close friend of Mr. Daywault's, telegraphed yesterday afternoon that he would leave at once for Walling and aid in the search. Mr. Noe was due to arrive there this morning about 10 o'clock. A message concerning the unfortunate accident will likely arrive here this atternoon. On account of the inadequate telephone and telegraph connection from Walling, coupled with the fact that the scene of the tragedy is several miles away, it is difficult to get messages through and to these reasons is at firshated the fact that the scene of the tragedy is several miles away, it is difficult to get messages through and to these reasons is at firshated the fact that a more detailed report of the death of the young man was not received this morning. Finds That the Partnership on Which Remphill and Gonzales Were Equal Owners With Tompkins, Stepl And Wood in the Entire As the Caldwell and Tompkins' Shares -Bank Enjoined From Collecting Notes.

Salisbury, May 22.-A. H. Price. standing master for the district, last night forwarded to Judge J. E. Boyd his report in the Charlotte Observer case, which was referred to him and by him heard fully.

Briefly the report finds that the complainants, A. E. Gonzales and J. C. Hemphill, are entitled to the fact that equity is with them, finding that the partnership, on which the con-tentions rests, existed in fact, and that Messrs. Gonzales, Hemphill, Tompkins, Stephens and Wood were equal partners in the ownership of the entire assets of the Observer Company, including the Tompkins shares of about 70 per cent., and the Caldwell shares bought by Tomp-

The First National Bank, of Char-The First National Bank, of Charlotte, holding the notes of the complainants, is enjoined from collecting them, and the master recommends that a receiver be named to collect the assets and adjust all matters between the five partners to the original agreement. This finding was presented to Judge Boyd's court this morning. This is a complete finding in favor of Mesers. Gonzales and Hemphill.

Washington, May 21.—Reassuring advices reached the state department from Japan late today indicating that the American reply to the protest the Californic land law was received in good spirit by the Tokio government and that the situation had taken on a much more favorable appearance than at any time since negotiations began. Officials here admitted their satisfaction over the turn of greents.

The dispatches related also that the difficulties under which the Washington administration had labored in handling this situation, understanding the dual system of government in the United States and the powers of legislation held by California.

Pleased With the Woodmen Minutes.

Head Clerk J. H. Dorton, of Head Camp Jurisdiction W. Woodmen of the World, recently issued the minutes of the meeting of the Camp, which was held in Asheville several weeks ago. The book was prepared by Head Clerk Dorton and was printed at The Times-Tribune office and 700 equies were mailed to Woodmen throughout this and other States. Speaking of the book Mr. T. A. Windley, Head Consul of the Camp, says in a letter to Mr. Dorton:

"I received a copy of the minutes yenterday. They are nicely yotten up and reflect credit upon the printers in sall as you, of course. Send me some more copies." ased With the Woodmen Minutes.
