

822 GALLONS LIQUOR SHIPPED IN OCTOBER

MONTH BROKE RECORDS FOR EXPRESS RECEIPTS.

This Does Not Include Amount Received by Freight.—This is Equal to 13,152 Pints, or More Than a Pint and a Half for Every Man, Woman and Child in Concord.—This Amount Includes Orders From All the County.—What Are You Going to Do About It?—2,184 Prescriptions Issued by Physicians.

October broke the record for liquor being shipped here by express. The last month far exceeded any previous months in the number of gallons received, 822 gallons of the intoxicating liquid being received at the local express office. This does not include the amount of liquor shipped here by freight and signed for at the depot. The 822 gallons is equal to 6,576 quarts and 13,152 pints, more than a pint and a half for every man, woman and child in Concord. However, the liquor includes the orders from the entire county, many of the signers on the books being from out of the city.

2,184 Prescriptions Issued. The number of prescriptions issued during the month of October maintained the general average, 2,184 being issued. Two drug stores filled over 900 each.

Is Judge Roan in Doubt as to Frank's Guilt?

Atlanta, Nov. 6.—Sharp controversial difference has arisen among leading Atlanta lawyers as to the status of the statement by Judge L. S. Roan that he personally was still in doubt as to the guilt or innocence of Leo M. Frank.

It will be recalled that Judge L. S. Roan, the trial judge in the Phagan murder case, when refusing the motion for new trial, said that his own mind was not absolutely made up as to the guilt or innocence of the condemned man. The question now involved is what legal effect that statement will have on the appeal pending before the State Supreme Court. Will it impel that body to grant a new trial, or will it be of no legal value whatever? Both views are taken by Atlantians learned in the law. The attorneys for Frank said that since Judge Roan made such a statement the Supreme Court could avoid giving Frank a new trial only by upsetting a well established precedent and by reversing former Supreme Court decisions which have borne on the trial judge's duty to set aside a verdict of guilty for which he was not convinced there was sufficient warrant.

ATTENTION VETERANS.

Now is the time for our annual camp dues to be paid, 15 cents per capita. Please pay the same to W. M. Weddington or the undersigned. H. B. PARKS, Com. Camp No. 212 U. C. V.

FOOTBALL DEMANDED BY TRINITY STUDENTS

Boys Last Night Paraded Streets of Durham Yelling For Football and Called on Duke.

Trinity College, Nov. 5.—Following a mass meeting in the interest of football tonight, 400 Trinity students paraded the streets of the uptown district in single file, led by torch bearers and yelled for football. More enthusiasm was shown than was ever exhibited here before.

Dean Cranford appeared before a bunch of students congregating for the parade and ordered the crowd to disperse. "Every man of you who does not wish to willingly disobey orders and who will be treated accordingly, go to your rooms," he commanded. The crowd dispersed but later practically every man in college got together and marched like madmen uptown. On the postoffice steps the cheering leaders took their stand and the city resounded with clamor.

Some one suggested an interview with Ben Duke. The students headed for his mansion and demanded his sentiments. Mr. Duke was in bed and would not come down stairs. Miss Mary Duke, however, came out with a personal message. "Everybody in this house," she said, "is for football all the time." The students stayed, calling for Mr. Duke. He sent a message, "I have nothing to do with the running of the college affairs, but personally I am not against football."

Resolutions have been drawn up and will be signed by all varsity men that there will be no more athletics at Trinity neither class nor inter-collegiate games until the authorities accede to the demand for class football.

Supreme Court Pulls Teeth of Search and Seizure Act.

Raleigh, Nov. 5.—The Supreme Court makes a ruling of special interest in the State against "Zip" Wilkerson from Vance county, as this is an to the application of the North Carolina search and seizure act.

Wilkerson was convicted at Henderson for having 11 1-2 gallons of whiskey in his possession. He showed that he had been to a point in Virginia and purchased a gallon each for 10 other people and an extra gallon for himself. His agreement with the other ten was that they gave him $2 each to buy the whiskey and an extra 50 cents for hauling it to Henderson. He kept a wagon and a buggy for hauling and had the whiskey in the buggy when it was seized near Henderson.

The trial judge charged the jury that Wilkerson was guilty under the search and seizure law. On appeal, the prosecution argued that if he was not guilty under the search and seizure he was guilty under the club act of 1911.

The Supreme Court holds that he was not guilty under the search and seizure, and that he was not on trial for any violation of the club act. A new trial is ordered.

Says Push Republicans Away From the Trough.

H. E. C. R., in Charlotte Observer. Washington, Nov. 5.—A Charlotte Democrat heartily approves of the idea of giving the fodder to the Democratic horse that pulled the plow. He has written as follows on the subject:

"All honor and praise to Senators Simmons and Overman for their masterly effort and demonstration to liberate North Carolina from the horde of Republicans who have had their noses in the swill trough so long that they have come to the conclusion that the jobs they occupy belong to them by long and uninterrupted possession. When you talk to one of them about going out he turns up his nose and either says that his time is not up or that he is under civil service. Where there is a will there is a way, and I am sure our worthy Senators know the route and will follow it."

Old Doc Cook Thaws Out.

New York World. Dr. Frederick E. Cook, who created a bit of a stir once upon a time by announcing he had discovered the North Pole, solemnly stated last night that the reason he is going to Theatre, Brooklyn, beginning this afternoon, is:

"That I rope by my lectures to arouse so much public sentiment that Congress will be forced to investigate one Robert E. Peary and his claim that it was he, not I, who discovered the Pole."

THE NORFOLK & CHARLOTTE

Trains to Begin Running by December 1, Says President Hix. Charlotte Observer.

Traveling on the first through train ever operated over the Norfolk Southern Railroad from the Virginia seaport to the Queen City, President C. H. Hix arrived here yesterday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock in his private car. He left on the return trip last night at 11 o'clock. Mr. E. C. Duncan and Mr. D. E. With freight traffic manager, are spending today in the city.

"The road from Mount Gilead to Charlotte is the best road over which I have ever traveled," said the versatile and resourceful railroad man, who was formerly general manager of the Seaboard. Questioned as to immediate plans, Mr. Hix said that it is the purpose of the company to begin operating trains into and out of Charlotte by December 1. For the present the freight depot on East Sixth street will be utilized as a passenger station also. The entire building a portion of which has been occupied by tenants, is now available and an addition is to be erected. The passenger arrangements will be complete by November 15.

Two passenger trains a day each way between Charlotte and Raleigh are contemplated; one to leave here about 6:30 in the morning, one to arrive here about 11, another to depart between 5 and 6 in the afternoon and another to arrive here at night. About two months later, when the new road has become adjusted so that uniform schedules can be maintained, a through train will be put on between Charlotte and Norfolk, leaving here in late afternoon, picking up a sleeper at Raleigh and arriving in Norfolk about 8 o'clock the next morning. The Norfolk Southern's entire force is already organized, trains are being operated as far as Mount Gilead and the extension of the service will be accomplished with expedition.

Complaint Against Gold Hill Mine.

Lexington Dispatch. Land owners along Lytle Buffalo creek in Rowan and Cabarrus counties have made complaint to the U. S. Department of Agriculture through Representative Dougherty that the Gold Hill Consolidated Mining Company has been for years emptying refuse into the creek that is injurious to the vegetation in the lands along the banks of that waterway.

The complaint states "that there is something in the water that has killed the land along the creek bottoms for 8 to 9 miles. The farmers along the creek to some extent have abandoned their lands because they are unable to cultivate them. We are anxious that we get some expert knowledge in regard to what it is that destroys his land, and also if this creek can be drained, and the substance coming from this mine kept in the channel, so that it would not kill the land."

Representative Dougherty took the matter up with the Agriculture Department today and the officials there stated that they will instruct Dr. Killgore, head of the Agriculture Experiment Station at Raleigh to make an investigation to determine what steps can be taken to prevent the loss, if the charge are well founded.

Many Apples Stripped.

Asheville Gazette News. Although there is a very marked scarcity in the western North Carolina apple crop this year, a visitor to Asheville from Black Mountain brings the news that the apple market in his town has been very active this week, approximately 1,000 bushels having been shipped to out-of-town purchasers. The bulk of these apples were Limbertwigs and went to E. F. White of Charlotte and Concord.

Of the 1,000 bushels shipped, 400 bushels were taken from the orchard of L. L. Dougherty, and about 500 bushels came from the orchard of Alfred Stevenson. It is stated that there are a number of large orchards that have not yet been touched and that the further shipments before the end of the season will be considerable.

Judge Long and Solicitor Hammer Work the Roads.

Asheboro, Nov. 5.—Practically everybody closed up shop and put in full day on the roads today. They met at the courthouse this morning at 7:30 and divided in squads. The large squad worked on the road to Randleman. Mr. Jansen, the United States road expert was in charge, assisted by H. H. Kennedy, E. Whately, Seth W. Laughlin. There were about 350 men and 30 teams. Judge B. F. Long adjourned Superior Court for the occasion. He was on the road ear and used a pick with great skill. Solicitor W. C. Hammer plowed with four big mules.

Ask Pardon for Dickerson.

The prisoner has served less than half a term of two years, having been sent to prison after a legal battle which lasted over 20 years.

INDIANA NATIONAL GUARD ORDERED

TO INDIANA FOR DUTY IN CAR STRIKE.

The Entire National Guard of the State is Ordered by the Governor to Report for Duty.—Merchants Declared That Trade Was Cut Two Thirds by Strike.—Martial Law Will Be Declared, and There May Be Further Bloodshed.

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 6.—The entire Indiana National Guard is coming here for duty in the carmen's strike. About three thousand are in the State militia forces. This move was decided on by Governor Ralston after extended conferences. Merchants who declared that the tie up of street car traffic is cutting trade two thirds from normal insisted on the troops. As soon as a sufficient number of men are here martial law will be declared.

Attempts will probably be made to man the cars under guard of troops and further bloodshed is possible. The difficulty of assembling the militia was postponed an hour when martial law will be declared in the car strike. National Guard headquarters is a scene of confusion. Organized labor protested to Governor Ralston against the militia call, but it had no effect.

Hallow'en at Sunderland.

The girls of Sunderland Hall entertained the faculty and a few friends Hallow'en night by giving them a spook party. The Brownies Fairies and Goblins all lent their aid in making the evening properly shivery and delightful.

The Brownies told how to insure one's future happiness by the use of Hallow'en charms. The fairies flitted about with vibrating wings, waving their magic wands, and singing dainty songs—and the goblins tried to "get" us, but couldn't because we watched out.

We saw what we never believed before—stately corn shocks taking an active part in a lively drill of the Fairies and Brownies. The little people were supposed to be tripping about in and out among the shocks, when suddenly they seemed to catch the spirit of the night and began moving, too. True, they were rather stiff from lack of practice, but considering what might be expected of corn shocks, they did wonderfully well.

We had hardly recovered from the surprise of the corn shock, when a party of ghosts came dashing in, eyes full of fire, and mouths agape. They pranced about, doing all sorts of fantastic stunts, finally chasing each other out—and we breathed again.

The seniors, who pride themselves on being equal to any occasion, gave a pantomime farce, as their part of the programme. Miss Popular disposed of one caller as another appears, by making of him an article of draped furniture. An old lady calls and is greatly disturbed by the mysterious movements of chairs and sofas. There is grand finale wherein the furniture and guests all suddenly disappear.

Apples and nuts appropriately end the happy evening.

Binder on Kannapolis Road.

Mr. Arnold, of the Texas Oil Company, is here today. Mr. Arnold has contributed ten barrels of his company's asphalt binder preparation to the county for repairing the Kannapolis road. Superintendent Burrage and Engineer Q. E. Smith are today making estimates on the work. The road will be repaired at once and the new binder product used.

The section of the road from Glass to Kannapolis which does not have the binder was put in great shape yesterday by the volunteer road workers. The road was improved to the Rowan line. County Chairman Weddington was numbered among the workers. Several others from Concord went out and labored on this highway, being numbered among the tender-handed volunteers.

Tea Drinking Yesterday.

Mrs. E. M. Gale, of Morganton, was the honoree at a delightful tea drinking given yesterday afternoon by Mrs. E. J. Braswell at her home on West Depot street. The home was attractively decorated for the occasion and the event was a most enjoyable one. The hour was 5 to 6 and 25 guests called.

School Children Free at the Main.

The convention will continue three days and already bids fair to be the most important in the history of the association.

In addition to the question of salaries, the convention will give its attention to the educational outlook in Missouri, betterment of the rural schools, vocational training and the subject of industrial education. Prominent educators to be heard at the subsequent sessions include President E. R. Bryan, of Colgate University, Dr. Earl Barnes, of Philadelphia, C. A. Prosser, secretary of the Society for the Promotion of Industrial Education, and Dr. P. P. Claxton, United States Commissioner of Education.

Let Other States Follow Suit.

Neosho, Mo., Nov. 6.—Governor Major, of Missouri, today urged other states to follow the example set by Missouri in specifying certain days of each year as "good roads days" when every citizen is to "get out and work" on the highways of the state. The plea was made at the annual meeting of the Four States Good Road Association. Delegates from Arkansas, Kansas, Oklahoma and Missouri attended. Governor Major declared that if every state in the Union emulated the Missouri example it would do more to make the roads of the nation better than any other out thing. A special program has been arranged for tonight when the delegates will be shown moving pictures of the work done throughout Missouri on "Good Roads Day," when the chief executive of Missouri donned overalls, and with the governor of Kansas (also in overalls) as his guest, put in a day or two digging on the roads with "other ordinary citizens."

Crown Prince and Wife Tottalors.

London, Nov. 6.—The crown prince of Sweden has become a teetotaler, through the influence of his wife, formerly Princess Margaret of Connaught, according to Herbert Stead, who today returned to London from a tour of the Scandinavian country. "The crown prince has greatly endeared himself to the people of Sweden," said Stead, "by the prominent part she has taken in forwarding the total abstinence movement. Her conversion of the crown prince to total abstinence is only one of the many things she has done for the cause of temperance. Although the royal pair continue to provide wine for their guests at formal dinners, neither one of them ever tastes anything stronger than plain water."

No Fire Crackers in Salisbury.

Salisbury Post. The board of aldermen at its last meeting voted to suspend the firecracker ordinance for one day—12 o'clock Christmas morning to 12 o'clock Christmas night, and the little folks and some grown folks too were happy, but there may be no fireworks or firecrackers after all. The city tax is $5 and the dealers were willing to pay, but now it is learned that the State tax is $10 and the county $10, making a total of $35 and the freight is about fifteen percent, and one prominent merchant who is always a large dealer in fireworks stated this morning that he had cancelled his orders, that it would not pay him to pay the three taxes for the privilege of handling firecrackers and fireworks.

Will Revolutionists Get Arms from This Country?

Washington, Nov. 6.—Congress is expected to decide whether the Carranza revolutionists are to get arms from this country. ### You Don't Believe This, Do You?

Paris, Nov. 6.—Don't be a teetotaler if you would avoid appendicitis. This is the advice given by Dr. Gagy and Professor Sabrazes, in an article on the subject, published today in the current issue of La Presse Medicale. They cite a family of sixteen persons, among whom six, who were total abstainers, had to be operated on for appendicitis. None of the others, all of whom were wine-drinkers, have ever shown any symptoms of the disease.
