WEDNESDAY, JULY 1, 1914.

President Wilson said recently that it takes a brave man to do his duty in the face of ridicule. A conspicuous example of this saying is found in the President's cabinet in Secretary of the Navy Daniels. Some weeks ago he issued an order banishing all intoxicating liquors from the United States navy, the order to go into effect July 1. Mr. Daniels has ever since been held up to ridicule in many quarters, and every effort has been made to have the order rescinded, but the Secretary was imperturbable and determined, and the order is now in full force. We believe it is safe to say that it will never be abolished. No step backward is likely to be taken in a reform of this kind. The Baltimore Sun says:

Although Secretary Daniels has been subjected to a great deal of ridicule for his attitude toward the wine mess in the navy, this country is by no means the first to have a "dry" navy. Both Japan and Russia have forbidden the consumption of liquor on their warships, and England has a provision by which sailors may receive a stipulated amount of money instead of their daily "grog," which is rapidly making her navy "dry." In most cases the men prefer the money to the liquor. A plan also is on foot to prohibit the use of liquor by officers. In providing for "grape-juice" navy Secretary Daniels had to face a great deal of criticism and ridicule. It is evident now that much of the adverse comment was based on either misinformation or ignorance.

President Wilson and members of his cabinet are daily receiving many letters that contradict in the loudest terms the pessimistic reports of the business situation which are being so assiduously and religiously circulated by the Republicans who are politicians only and care for nothing except those things that furnish water for their political wheel. These letters say that there is absolutely no foundation for this panic talk. All evidence points to the largest grain crop, including corn, in history. It therefore follows, the Democratic leaders say, that a business boom will quickly appear after the marketing of the bumper crop. The President is confident it will be a lasting boom because the existing doubts as to the meaning of the anti-trust laws will be removed and because a scientific currency system will then be in full operation. The letters most valued by the President come from the heads of large banking, manufacturing and jobbing houses. They express agreement that there is every reason for optimism. The banks have plenty of money and are not overloaded, and the manufacturing and merchant world is carrying a light debt load.

PARAGRAPHS.

The administration is soon to send a reply to Japan's last note on the California anti-alien land question. When the Japanese discover what it contains, they will probably wonder why it took ten months to prepare it and why they should have been in any hurry to receive it.

Queen Mary seems to construe it that she herself is that "divinity that doth hedge a king."

It is remarked that Huerta was once a nation boss. He is yet bossing a large section of Mexico.

Always doing something to attract tourists California is now trying to stop the tipping of train porters.

If the movement for white clothing for men succeeds, the street cleaners will qualify as leaders of fashion.

THIS DATE IN HISTORY.

The Diminution of Love.

Every Day Whoppers.

"So glad to have met you."

"Call and see us some time."

"Sorry, but I just lent Blank my last fiver."

"Send no money. This offer is absolutely free."

"We're just out of that."

"It's the principal of the thing not the money."

"Our side lost, but we won a Great Moral Victory."

"Money always burned a hole in my pocket."

"When I was young, children never did such things."

Warranted to Kill.

The poor tramp and the young cook form a combination that has afforded material for joke-writers the world over for generations. Here's one that is like all the others, and yet just a little different:

"Are you the same man who at my mineepee last week?" inquired the woman.

"No mum," mournfully responded the tramp; "th' doctor says I'll never be th' same man again!"

American tourists and agents abroad should also remember that they are "simple Americans," whether they intend it or not.

BASEBALL CHATTER.

Connie Mack's Athletics won nine of their sixteen games on the recent swing around the Western circuit. In a driving finish Perry Lipe's Savannah team copped first place in the first half of the South Atlantic league season.

Newark evidently misses the fine stick work of Jack Dalton, Jack, now with Brooklyn, is leading the National league batsmen.

"Clocking" fans at the entrance to all Federal league parks is one way the National Commission has of keeping tabs on the Feds' attendance figures.

Washington's recent invasion to the West came very near putting the team on the rocks. The Senators were successful in only five of their sixteen games.

Honus Wagner who has hit for more than 300 ever since he entered the big show, has fallen below the 300 mark this season. But everyone expects the old warrior to come back.

The Cleveland club has recalled Piteber Morton from the Waterbury team of the Eastern Association. On his last appearance with Waterbury Morton pitched a no-hit game and fanned fifteen men.

President Lannin of the Boston Red Sox is very anxious to sign up his men for next season. He has succeeded already in signing Lewis, Janvin, Scott, Rehg and Leonard to continue their services with the team in 1915.

Dave Robertson, the heavy-hitting Southern leaguer, is making good with the Giants. This is Dave's second trial with the McGraw crew and his clouting will probably land him a permanent berth this time.

Fred Lake's new Fitchburg team is finding the New England league race too speedy for comfort. The old big league manager's outfit has proved to be rather soft picking for the other New England league teams.

In Britton, the Muskegon Michigan State League team has a third baseman, who is proving to be a sensation. Along with other brilliant achievements this season he has accepted 118 chances without an error.

The Saskatoon team, which is leading the Western Canada League, is traveling some 300 points ahead of the second team in the standin.

Fans in the other cities of the circuit surely have a right to loss interest in such a top-heavy race.

Solicitous for Others.

A member of the Providence bar one day met an able and conscientious judge on the street and said to him:

"I see, Judge, that the Supreme Court has overruled you in the case of A versus Z, but you need feel no concern about your reputation."

"No indeed," answered the judge complacently; "I don't. I'm only concerned about the reputation of the Supreme Court."

Criticism of the President by his unscrupulous enemies knows no bounds. Again they are resurrecting the fact that his first name is "Thomas."

Foreign Sunday Schools Discussed.

Chicago, June 29.—Methods of training children in the Sunday school and advancement of Sunday school work in foreign countries were the two important subjects to be considered when the International Sunday School Association resumed its sessions in Medinah Temple today. Rev. Franklin McElfresh, superintendent of the teacher's training department of the association, outlined to the delegates a nation-wide system of religious training, beginning in the Sunday School and standardized, as far as possible, for use in schools of all denominations. Bishop James Atkins, of Waynesville, N. C., spoke on the relation of the Sunday School to the home and urged the necessity of home training to supplement the religious instruction in the Sunday School.

A series of conferences, on for Italian Sunday School workers, will be held tonight. The principal meeting in Medinah Temple, will be addressed by Booker T. Washington, who will speak on the Sunday School and the negro.

Rev. William A. Brown, superintendent of the mission department of the association will tell of the mission work in the Philippine Islands at a forenoon meeting tomorrow. Informal talks will be made at the afternoon session by Bishop J. C. Hartzell, of Africa; E. K. Warren, of Three Oaks, Mich.; H. J. Heinz, of Pittsburg; J. W. Kennear, of Pittsburg; Rev. N. Williams, of Portland, Ore., and Frank L. Brown, of New York.

The closing session of the seven days' convention will be held in Medinah Temple tomorrow night when Dr. J. A. MacDonald, editor of the Toronto Globe will speak on "Conquest of North America."

Serious Outbreak Against Servians.

Sarajevo, June 29.—A bomb thrown by a youth standing on the corner of the main street here was the signal this morning for a serious anti-Serbian outbreak which the troops found considerable difficulty in quelling. Martial law immediately was declared.

The only damage done by the bomb was a slight injury to a passing Mussulman. The rougher element, joined by a number of Croatian students, paraded along the streets stoning the windows of Servian shops, clubs, schools and houses and looting the interiors. The manifestants carried a portrait of the Emperor Francis Joseph at their head. They sang the Austrian National anthem and attacked everything Servian until they were confronted by an overwhelming force of soldiers.

Martial law was proclaimed by beat of drum and the posting of placards. All the chief points of the city were occupied by troops.

Men Beating Rides Are Fatally Hurt.

Statesville, June 29.—A bad freight wreck which occurred about six miles east of Statesville this afternoon resulted in the death of Thomas Brown, a young man from Dayton, Tenn., and the probable fatal injury of Fred Teasley, also from Dayton. Both were beating rides on the train, it is alleged. None of the trainmen were hurt.

GREAT MID-SUMMER BARGAINS AT PARKS-BELK COMPANY. Two of the buyers for the Belk combination of stores, one of which was our Mr. Parks, have just returned from mid-summer trip to clean up mid-summer merchandise at the time the manufacturers take stock in Philadelphia and New York. We have only space to mention a few of the great bargains that we are getting in every day, almost by the carload. Read on:
