BRITISH HAVE LAUNCHED A GENERAL OFFENSIVE

AGAINST GERMAN LINE ALONG A 20-MILE FRONT.

After Weeks of Intense Bombardment With Guns of Every Calibre, the British This Morning Began a General Offensive Against the Germans North of the River Somms. They Succeeded in Taking the German Front Line Trenches and Captured Many Men.-The Prench Co-Operate With the British Porces on the Right in the Attack.

(By The Apopelated Press)

London, July 1.-After weeks intense bombardment with guns launched a general offensive against the German line along a front of 20 miles, north of the River Somme. The British succeeded in taking the German front line of trenches, and captured many men.

The French on the British right co-operated in the attack. When last at 7 p. m.; Vespers at 8:00 p. m. dispatches were received at British headquarters the fighting was still progressing, and further advances were being reported.

The artillery fire was particularly intense on the stretch of front of Stromme and earlier dispatches told of the destruction of the towns Chiepval, of Thieval and Beucort, where the Germans had ammunitions.

Early this morning all guns were brought into action in the 20-mile sector, and for an hour and a half the Germans were subjected to a bombardment which is described as the fiercest experienced in this war of

News of the British offensive created the greatest enthusiasm and details of the battle were being anxiously awaited. Only this morning the correspondent at the front for the British newspapers, while writing of the Britih artillery and raiding successes warned the public that an advance must be made by infastry and not by artillery, and the British could not expect to pass out of the engagement scathless. The first ac count of the battle states that the British casualties were not heavy. The port on of line selected by the British for inauguration of their offensive runs from Stromme river, northward past Albert to a point about eight miles south of Arras. It is on the section of the western front | which runs roughly north and south Sea through Belgium and northern France before it swings sharply to the south and east, and to the Swiss border. Albert is 70 miles northeast of Par's.

The British offensive was preceded by a bombardment of a week, as compared with a bombardment of 31 days before the advance at Loos last September. Shorter duration of artillery preparations, however, was more than made up for by its intensity.

The terrible effect of the British fire was described from day to day by correspondents, all of whom agreed that nothing to equal it ever had occurred in this war on the British front. The curtain of fire was so effective that the Germans were unable to send food to the first line. Men in these trenches were starving for days.

REJECTED GUARDSMEN ARE SENT BACK HOME

Badly Disappointed Men Turned Down by Surgeons Leave Encamp-

Camp Glenn, N. C., June 29 .- Williamson Mansfield, company F, second infantry, of Fayetteville, Captain Lamb, commanding, came near losing his life this afternoon from drowning According to witnesses, young Mansfield in company with other soldiers, was bathing on the beach, when he was suddenly taken with cramp, Evans 3; Worth 3; Rowe 1. Struck and was rendered practically help-out, Evans 11; Rowe 5; Worth 4. less, and it was only through the prompt work of William Morgan that ne was pulled into shore and resuscitated. The boys, it was stated, had gone to the surf in a tug-boat, and it was while swimming some distance from the boat that the affair occurred. The work of resuscitating re quired only a short time. So far this is the only accident of its kind to happen to a soldier during the present encampment. This morning marked the return of the rejected boys who aspired to serve under the colors. An entire special left at an early hour with the first load. The remainder left a few hours later in two special coaches attached to a regular scheduled train. Disappointment was the marked attitude of the boys' a number being too full of feeling to say farewell. There can be no cold feet in company B, first infantry, Gastonia, as was made evident today when two law. members were expelled from camp by the captain for refusal to sign the muster roll, which is required in transferring soldiers from state to federal service. It was made clear by both the officers and enlisted men of the company, that no one with trembling knees was wanted in the ranks.

KANNAPOLIS LOST.

Morganton Won Ten Inning Go 3 to 2 at Kannapolis Yesterday. To beat any ball team in the twen ieth century-in the century of preparedness, is no easy jub. Yet it is a still harder matter to defeat a ball team and the umpire too. Morganton faced this difficult matter in the early innings of the game at Kannapolis the visitors in the tenth inning, 3 to 2. But had Stuart been able to see, o'clock. Children's Day service will or rather to call the plays as they apwould not have gone to the extra in-nings. In the fourth he tied up the game by calling Irby safe at the plate on a play that was not even close.

But to the people who went to Kannapolis to see a good game there the start, and the fact that twice the score was tied added a sense, of uncertainty as to the final outcome.

The team that represented Kannapolis yesterday is a vastly better and different team than the one which played there last week. This new blood injected a life and punch into the game that will help Kannapolis win many games.

"Bill" Evans did the twirling for Morganton, and he was sater of ceremonies at all times. Although Kannapolis secured nine hits, Evans kept them so well scattered that had it not been for the work of Mr. Umps in the fourth, and two errors by Billings in the eighth, he would not have been scored upon. Worth started pitching for Kannapolis, but was taken out in the fifth and Rowe took up the hurling burden. He pitched steady ball while in the game and an error paved the way for the last run scored off him.

In the fourth Martins doubled doubled and scored on Short's single to left for Morganton. In their half of the same inning Kannapolis tied Preaching at 7:45 p. m. All welcome the score. Irby singled, Trexler singled him to third, and the former scored when Mason hit to short. Morganton's second run came in the eighth, when Rowe made a wild pitch with three on. Kannapolis again tied it up on Billing's error of Irby's grounder, andother errory by Billings and Trexler's long single. Morganton won the game in the tenth when with stole second and scored on "Bill'

Holding's single to center. The game was featured by the work of both pitchers in the pinches and the hitting of Hodgins, Burke and Short, for Morganton, and Irby and Trexler, for Kannapolis. These two teams play again today, and

The Chautauqua, which began here one week ago, closed its sesions last night with the presentation of "The Mikado, 'the Japanese opera, with a full cast and chorus. The largest audience yet was present, and everybody thoroughly enjoyed it. The presentation of the opera was all that could possibly be expected, and except for the fact that it was presented on a small stage was count to the standard that obtains in any city. The work of all the characters, leading and minor, was excellent, and everybody went away realizing that but for the Chautauqua Concord would never have had such an opportunity.

Yesterday afternoon the Junior Chantanqua presented "Uncle Sam's Experiment." This showed the work done by this department during the week. There were numerous songs, marches, drills, games and athletic exhibitions by the boys, and all showed how well the children had been trained.

This was followed by Prof. Walter Rauschenbusch, who lectured on "Christianity and the Social Crisis. Those who failed to hear Dr. Rauschenbusch missed one of the best things of the Chautauqua.
