

Y. M. C. A. CAMPAIGN HAS GOOD OPENING

All of the Teams Met at the Association Building Today For Luncheon and For Final Instructions.

FIRST REPORT TO BE MADE TOMORROW

Expected That Five Thousand Dollars Will Be Raised This Afternoon.—To Have Girl Teams.

The first active work of the raising of $10,000 for the local Y. M. C. A. began this afternoon, and the beginning was most encouraging.

No report will be made of the money subscribed until the luncheon tomorrow at noon. The reports will be made at that time each day, and will be published in this paper each afternoon.

Mrs. D. B. Morrison will be in charge of the luncheon tomorrow and Miss Elizabeth Gibson will be here in charge Wednesday.

Mr. C. S. Smart, chairman of the campaign committee, announced at the luncheon that the city seems ready for the campaign.

Mr. Hoy L. Vail, sent here by the State association to help with the campaign, also spoke at the luncheon, and he advised those present that his feeling of optimism will receive a severe shock if $5,000 is not reported as the result of this afternoon's work.
