PRACTICABLE WAY TO BREAK UP A RIOT.

Tear Gas Bombs Used Successfully in Demonstration at New York. New York, July 25.—Tear gas bombs broke up a "riot" at Fort Totten yesterday, staged by two companies of the New York police department's riot battalions in a demonstration to prove the ease with which a mob may be dispersed without revolvers or night sticks. After 18 bombs had been thrown, the policemen, with tears rolling down their cheeks and gasping for breath, beat a hasty retreat.

Salisbury, July 25.—Mrs. J. E. Trotter, of this city, has received word of the death by drowning of a brother, J. A. Hughes, who was crossing the Columbia river near Corfu, Wash., July 15. During the last few years the number of women who were carried in the United States has increased fifty per cent.

CHARLOTTE REPORTS ARE CONTRADICTORY

ward; that the section between Fourteenth and Twenty-eighth street is not actually considered as a part of North Charlotte. With this designation, it was stated last night that there has been no disorder of any kind in North Charlotte, that those reported were in the other section. In this section, also, it was stated that there has probably been some suffering from lack of proper provisions, that this is the case, whether the people are at work or not, and that it is likely that the period of inactivity has made the condition more acute.

In North Charlotte proper, there has been no actual suffering up to this time, it was stated, although numbers of families have been inconvenienced by being out of work. The union looks out for needy cases, it was said. Many of the families still have balances in the Bank of North Charlotte, although these accounts are being reduced, it was disclosed.

As to whether the men are ready to go back to work now, men associated with the workers freely say they feel little inclination in that direction, that they are expecting help from the different unions in this and other states, and that they seem very well contented at present.

An overseer in one of the mills, authorized to take applications from the mill workers desiring to return to work, is quoted as saying late yesterday afternoon that so far he had received no applications.

One man said that he had talked with a number of the workers as a friend and had advised them to return to their work, but added that none of them had said they would return to the mills.

Efforts were being made yesterday by citizens of North Charlotte to start a movement with a view of getting the workers and owners together, the reports being that the promoters are disinterested, except for their interest in the community.

The conferences held last week between employees and their employers are said to have been very pleasant and that the situation in general was talked over. Although nothing of a definite nature was announced as a result of the meetings, the way is said to be open for further conferences, the owners announcing that they are willing to see and talk over the situation with their own employees at any time.

For this reason, people interested in seeing the strike situation cleared up are hopeful that it will not be long before the workers and mill owners will be able to come to something definite and again start the wheels of humbling in the idle plants.

Effective Friday, July 23, the Southern railway inaugurated a dining-car service on trains 11 and 12, Asheville and Knoxville, according to L. A. Peacock, city ticket agent of Greensboro, who received this information yesterday from H. F. Cary, general passenger agent, Washington.

These two trains convey hundreds of people to the mountains of western North Carolina. The company's passengers traveling on these trains.

Music Increases Output.

Transplanting rice in the Philippines costs about 40 centavos a day, with two meals, cigarettes and betel nut, but when music is provided the output of work is increased 80 per cent, says the New York Medical Journal. It is often a blind man who plays. He sits on the low dyke and sings the old folk songs to his guitar, and frequently the workers join in the chorus. Some of the large stores in the States also tried the effect of music with good results.

TWO DROWNED IN SURF AT SWANSDORO BEACH

Walter Mattocks, of Mayville, and a Son of W. C. Gerrock, of Belgrade.

New Bern, July 25.—A pall of gloom has been thrown over this entire community, following the drowning off Swansboro beach, Sunday afternoon at 6:30 of Walter B. Mattocks, 21-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Mattocks, of Mayville, and the 13-year-old son of W. C. Gerrock, a well known citizen of Belgrade.

Several young people from Mayville and Belgrade had motored over to the beach for the afternoon and went in bathing in the surf, which was very rough and had a strong undertow. A group of five or six stepped into a trough and were carried under. Every attempt to resuscitate the two young men was of no avail.
