BROODED OVER HIS
WAR EXPERIENCES

His Intimate Friends Had No Idea He Was Taking an Ocean Voyage.—Took His Life Last Sunday.

New York, Nov. 29.—Secret brooding over the memory of his experiences during the war, from which he emerged one of the greatest American individual heroes, was ascribed today by friends and relatives of Lieut. Col.
Chas. W. Whittlesley as the cause of his taking his life Sunday while on the way to Havana.

Second Lyceum Number Last Night
Proves a Big Success.

The second number on the Y. M. C.
A. Lyceum Course last night given at the Y. M. C. A. proved another success so far as the audience is concerned. The number was a humorous address by Paul "Sunshine" Dietrich, one of the star speakers on the Piedmont Lyceum Bureau. Mr. Dietrich is a community builder and his entire address last night was built around the one idea—serving the community.
From the very start the speaker told many humorous incidents such as a lyceum speaker alone gathers and tells.
Every one of his stories had a point and made direct application to the audience. He was trying to drive home the message, "The Sacrifice" was built around the famous baseball play. The speaker affirmed that no one can succeed in life without somewhere along the line making a sacrifice to advance that for the time being seems the interest of another party or cause. However sooner or later will come his turn to score and then the applause of the audience will be his. One of his best illustrations consisted of a story taken out of the life of the lecturer. He told how when a boy there was born on the home farm a small undersized calf.
After considerable effort young Paul succeeded in getting father to let him keep the calf as his own. Later another calf appeared and this became the property of an older sister. Later the calf's owner died and Paul retained the profit of his calf, then a crisis came in to the old lady's life. His sister married and part of the father's dowry to his daughter was Paul's cow.
This broke Paul's heart but no matter how much he bewailed the treatment he was made to understand that this was his sacrifice for the success of the home or family team. It was a hard one for the young man to swallow but his turn came later when he also married and then Dad gave him another cow. Paul told how his only enjoyment came when his newly-made brother-in-law had to milk the cow which he proved to be an exceptionally hard milk.

THE LONDON PAPERS
ON HARDING'S PLAN
NATURE DID ITS BIT
FOR COUNTRY CLUB

Increasing Attention Is Given by the London Press to the President's Suggestion of "Association of Nations."

HAS "TONIC EFFECT,"
SAYS LONDON TIMES

Morning Post Says "President's Aspirations Demand Serious and Respectful Attention."

(By the Associated Press.)
London, Nov. 29.—Increasing attention is given by the London press to President Harding's suggestion of an "association of nations" through a series of international conferences, the conclusions of which would be observed under a "gentlemanly agreement" rather than by treaty.
The Times today says that Mr. Harding's suggestion of the principles underlying such an association has in it self a "tonic effect." The newspaper adds:
"It is heartening to know that the President, inspired by the results of the Washington conference, is already looking forward to a future from which the possibility of active cooperation by America in the solution of acute international problems is not excluded."
The Morning Post says:
"The President's aspiration demands serious and respectful consideration. Any method whereby America can bring to bear her vast influence for the restoration of civilization is most welcome. We have always maintained that, had the United States found itself able to enter the proposed inclusive alliance with France and Great Britain, the peace of the world might have been assured for 50 years."
"As for the existing League of Nations, in default of the admission of America, it is impossible for it to fulfill the purpose of its existence."
