THE PERIL OF WAR IS LESS MENACING TODAY

Armistice Conference is Definitely Fixed for Tuesday at Mudania, According to Advice Received Today.

ENGLAND'S RECESSION CAUSES SURPRISE

It is Generally Admitted That This Step is the Only Thing That Could Have Stayed Kemal Pasha's Hand.

Constantinople, Oct. 2 (By the Associated Press).—With an armistice conference definitely fixed for tomorrow at Mudania the peril of war between Great Britain and Turkey appeared less menacing today.

Great Britain's recession from the neutral zone controversy caused no little surprise and disappointment here, but it was generally admitted that this step was the only thing which could have stayed Mustafa Kemal Pasha's hand.

Up to the time of the issuance of Brigadier General Harrington's tempering note, Saturday night, the situation looked extremely critical.

It is now conceded that his tact and tolerance coupled with the timely arrival of reinforcements from England prevented the Turks from striking at Chanak.

Agreement Expected. Constantinople, Oct. 2 (By the Associated Press).—An immediate armistice agreement to suspend all movements of troops was expected here today to be the first outcome of the Mudania armistice conference, which is to meet tomorrow.

The conference will discuss the occupation of eastern Thrace by detachments of inter-allied troops during the Greek army's withdrawal.

It is expected here that the Greek evacuation will begin immediately after the conference, permitting the establishment of Turkish administrative control.

General Harrington, the British commander-in-chief, will leave for Mudania on a dreadnought tomorrow. The Italian and French generals who are on landings of their respective navies.

Soviet Russia Enters Vigorous Protest. Moscow, Oct. 2 (By the Associated Press).—The Soviet Russian government has sent a note to England, France and Italy protesting against the blockade of the Dardanelles, and insisting upon the removal of all restrictions to the free passage of trading ships through the Straits.

The note says the manner in which England is endeavoring to control foreign seas and territory shows indifference to the interests of Russia and the other Black Sea countries.

Constantinople, Oct. 2.—A band of 800 Turkish regulars crossed the border of Thrace at Sinekli to the northwest of Silivri (40 miles west of Constantinople) and attacked the Greek outposts. These were being forced to withdraw when reinforcements arrived, and the Turks were thrown back across the boundary.

Allied Policy to Be Decided on Today. Constantinople, Oct. 2 11:57 a. m. TALES OF HORROR COME IN FROM SMYRNA

The Half Has Not Been Told, Says Dr. Lovejoy.—Women and Girls Outraged.

Constantinople, Oct. 2.—(By the Associated Press).—The cries of the Christian refugees of Smyrna for water and food are met with a Turkish yash, said Dr. Esther Lovejoy, of New York, an ex-soldier of the Women's Hospital, who has just returned here from a week's survey in the stricken city.

Dr. Lovejoy declared the world has not even told the real story of fire and horror. There are still several hundred thousand Christians in Smyrna and interior whose lives are in peril for the time limit of their evacuation has expired, she said.

"Only providence knows what their fates will be. The crowds on the quays are so great that some of them are pushed into the sea. Women stand waist deep in the water, holding their babies aloft to save them from drowning."

"The Turkish soldiers are systematically robbing the men and wrenching rings from the women's fingers. The wretched sufferers are willing to be robbed if it saves lives."

"At night the Turkish soldiers commit excesses on women and girls. Only when a searchlight from ships in the harbor are turned on them do they desist. In terror of the Turks the refugees are packing in thousands in front of the American consulate."

"There are more than 100 women who have given birth to babies. Some were delivered while standing. I attended many. Some of the infants died within a few hours from exposure, but the mothers clung pitifully to the bodies of the little things."

Dr. Lovejoy said that a Turkish soldier, mistaking her for a Greek woman, struck her heavily with the butt end of his rifle and left a mark. This soldier was about to strike her again when the American officer intervened.

One of the doctors asserted Dr. Lovejoy, witnessed a Greek woman cut her throat and then hurled herself into the water and drowned.

MILDRED HARRIS HAD ONLY $6,800 LEFT FROM HER FORMER HUSBAND CHARLEY CHAPLIN, AFTER PAYING HER LAWFYERS.

(By the Associated Press.) Los Angeles, Oct. 2.—Mildred Harris, motion picture actress, now on vaudeville tour, declared she received only $6,800 from her former husband, Charles Spencer Chaplin, screen comedian, after the lawyers had paid him, and she was about to go into bankruptcy, according to a letter received from her which the Los Angeles Times printed today.

Miss Harris' financial condition was reported about by two long illnesses, she said.

"I have been hounded for many months by my creditors, and have been paying most of my salary out to them weekly," the letter quoted St. Paul, read.

"Besides this, an exprometer of mine is suing me for a large amount he has no right to do, as he is the one who two years ago sent me east to buy clothes for three pictures and then cancelled my contract on account of my divorce. Mr. Chaplin would not stand for me on the same program with him."

British Will Not Retire From Chanak. Paris, Oct. 2 (By the Associated Press).—The French representative at the Mudania conference is expected to support the Turkish proposal for the evacuation of the neutral zones in return for the immediate evacuation of eastern Thrace by the Greeks.

The fear is expressed, however, that Great Britain will not consent to such a plan, especially at a conference at which there is no provision for the Greek representation.

Further danger to the success of the conference is seen in the firm decision of the British not to retire from Chanak and should the Turks make this retirement one of their conditions, it is foreseen that an agreement might be impossible.

Approval of the Turkish proposals, as is pointed out, would be a substantial concession to the Kemalists as the allied powers in their note made the neutrality zones of the straits one of their chief conditions.

BISHOP CANNON FAVORS AMERICAN INTERVENTION

Even if Such Course Necessitates the Employment of Our Naval Forces in Turkish Waters.

(By the Associated Press.) Washington, Oct. 2.—The State Department had before it today a cablegram from Dr. Jas. Cannon, Jr., a bishop of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, who is in Europe as a member of the committee investigating conditions in the Near East for the American church and relief organization. The text of Dr. Cannon's message was not made public but it is known that he urged upon the Washington government a policy in the Near East involving American intervention for the protection of Christians there.

Even if such a course necessitated the employment of American naval forces now in Turkish waters.

In connection with Dr. Cannon's message an authorized statement was available, for was it known whether Secretary Hughes intends to reply. It is known that the policy of the government in regard to the Near East situation is fully opposed to any such intervention as Dr. Cannon suggested.

The American government has already indicated to all parties to the controversy revolving about the Turkish straits its fixed belief that the straits should be free to the ships of all nations; that racial and religious minorities should be protected, and its hope that there would be a cessation of hostilities in the Near East.

Beyond this there is no indication what the Washington government intends to do.

YOUNG ROWAN LAD DIES FROM GUN-SHOT WOUND

Accidentally Discharged in the Hands of Companion Returning from Hunting Trip.

(By the Associated Press.) Salisbury, Oct. 1.—William Misener, 14-year-old son of Charles Misener, of Rockwell, was accidentally killed Saturday afternoon while returning home from a hunting trip with two other boys about his own age.

A gun in the hands of Glen Miller, boy companion of William, was discharged accidentally and the entire load of shot entered the back of William's head, producing instant death.

The funeral was conducted from the Reformed church at Rockwell Sunday afternoon by Rev. H. A. M. Housholder, and was attended by the largest number of people that ever gathered in that community for a funeral service.

NEW CUSTOMS LAWS NOW GOVERN LIQUOR TRAFFIC

No Intoxicating Liquor Can Be Imported Without Proper License.

(By the Associated Press.) Washington, Oct. 2.—New customs regulations making effective the provisions of the tariff act of 1922 prohibiting the importation of intoxicating liquors without a permit were promulgated today by the Treasury.

The regulations provide for the seizure of liquor, the seizure of the vehicle in which the importation is attempted, and for the imposition of a liability equal to the value of the liquor upon the person in charge of the vehicle seized.

Prisoners Remembered.

Sunday, October 1st, will long be remembered by the prisoners and officials of Convict Camp No. 2, located on the Cold Springs road, east of the city in U. S. township. No. 2 Camp is made up of white prisoners exclusively in charge of Capt. Ira H. Best, and Mr. Dan Smith as guards.

The good people of No. 8 township spread a dinner which could hardly be equaled and not surpassed anywhere. The table was filled to overflowing with good things to eat. The prisoners lined up and listened to a few words of welcome which were spoken by one of the donors; which was responded to by one of the prisoners in a few brief words. Thanks was offered by one of the prisoners before the meal was begun. Good will and friendship reigned supreme all during the day. Every prisoner enjoyed the dinner immensely, and felt deeply grateful to the good people of No. 8 township and Capt. Best and Mr. Smith as well, and we assure these good people that their kindness and thoughtfulness will long be remembered.

PRINCEL SALARIES TO BE PAID MEMBERS

No Worker in the Club Will Go Without Adequate Pay For His or Her Time Spent During the Campaign.

VOTE COUPONS TO APPEAR TOMORROW

Get as Many of Them as You Can and Send or Bring Them in.—Now Is the Time to Get Busy.

There is a great deal of fun to be had by joining the "Salesmanship Club" and competing for the big automobiles and other prizes. Calling on old friends, renewing acquaintances and making new friends will afford a great amount of pleasure. One will find that after entering the race and signifying an intention to win, friends will rally to one's support amazingly.

Nothing is more human than to wish to be on the winning side. Do you ever notice how difficult it is to find a man who will acknowledge that he voted for the losing candidate in the election? They are scarce indeed, and the same spirit will manifest itself in the "Salesmanship Club."

But the first thing to do is to show your determination to succeed by sending in the nomination coupon and then getting on the job quickly and securing some votes to be credited on your name when the initial list appears.

The Campaign Is Short. Eight weeks is a mighty short time in which to earn such tremendous prizes as The Tribune and Times offer their friends who participate in the "Salesmanship Club." Some of the club members are going to earn princely salaries during the next eight weeks—salaries equal to the presidents of some of the biggest banks today. You can be one of these if you but realize it.

These are hundreds of persons who possess every qualification necessary to make a winner in the big "club." They would make splendid vote getters, or campaigners, we may say, but they don't realize it. They have never tried their hand at securing votes or at selling advertising and they themselves do not know their "speed." One will never know one's ability until it is tested. You who are reading about the splendid automobiles and other prizes would perhaps be driving the $20,000 Anderson automobile at the end of the eight weeks "club" if you would make the test now.

Doubtless everyone has heard the story of the young man who was asked if he could play the violin. "I don't know," said he, "I have never tried." No one will be able to play the violin, but as he had never tried he would not know he could not do it. You have never tried to get subscriptions, and there is no reason why you should think you would not succeed. You may develop into a "world-beater."

A New Angle. One of the "club" members stated that he had been thoroughly convinced that a person could earn a big salary during spare moments selling The Tribune and Times to their friends even though they did not win one of the prizes. This is a very reasonable and practical line of reckoning, as the liberal commission is paid those who comply with the rules and are not awarded one of the prizes. Again, as this is a spare-time proposition it should appeal to hundreds of people in the territory which The Tribune and Times serve. There is room for scores of workers and all compete for the big prizes upon an equal basis.

This is not a "handicap" race in any sense of the word, and the prizes awarded strictly upon the merits of one's ambition, energy and "stakeability." Truly, it is an easy matter to sell The Tribune and Times. The popular demand for these two papers at the present time proves this statement beyond the shadow of a doubt.

Some people may be of the impression that only new subscriptions apply in the "Club." This is wrong—entirely wrong. Your neighbors who have been taking the paper for years may aid you in winning one of the magnificent automobiles by paying their subscriptions in advance for a period of from six months up to two years. All subscriptions count in the "Club," new subscriptions and old subscriptions. Don't hesitate longer, but

(By the Associated Press.) THE COTTON MARKET

Opened at an Advance of 49 to 59 Points in Response to Higher Liverpool Cables.

(By the Associated Press.) New York, Oct. 2.—The cotton market opened firm at an advance of 49 to 59 points in response to higher Liverpool cables, the more hopeful view of the Near Eastern situation, and reports of a better tone in foreign exchange. There was active covering of recent sellers and fresh trade or commission house buying, but the South sold very freely and after selling at 20.00 at the opening, December ended off to about 20.75, with later fluctuations somewhat irregular.

Cotton futures opened firm: October 20.65; December 20.90; January 20.80; March 20.88; May 20.76.

NEW GIRLS' BUILDING TO BE DEDICATED SOON

(By the Associated Press.) Statesville, N. C., Oct. 2.—The new building for girls presented to the Presbyterian Orphan Home at Barium Springs near here by the women of the North Carolina Synod of the church will be formally dedicated October 6th. Plans are being formulated to make the dedication "one of the biggest events in the history of the institution," said Joseph B. Johnston, manager of the Home.

(By the Associated Press.) Lambert, Oct. 2.—After being a fugitive for 44 years, Joseph Kemp is today back in what he has described since his arrest as "God's own country" to face a charge of murder in connection with the killing of Samuel McNeil near Red Springs in 1878.

This Amount Has Been Pledged by Various Church Members and Alumni in This County.

(By the Associated Press.) Latest reports indicate that Cabarrus County is in the lead in raising per quota on the Greater Davidson Campaign, according to Dr. J. V. Davis, chairman of the county committee.

The quota for this county is 500, of which $12,235.25 has been pledged, leaving only $2,264.75 to be raised. The money is subscribed by the churches and alumni of the college, and subscriptions are still coming in, according to Dr. Davis.

If anyone wishes to make a contribution here early today to take up the matter with the Department of Justice officials after having conferred with leaders of the striking shopmen.

In announcing the amount that has already been subscribed, Dr. Davis declared that he wanted to "thank everyone for their hearty co-operation." He also stated that "we want to continue our canvass and get Cabarrus County over the top before the campaign closes, November 15th."

KEMAL STOPS ARMED ACTIVITIES IN CHANAK

Turkish National Authorities Agree to Armistice Conference.

(By the Associated Press.) Constantinople, Oct. 1.—Orders for a cessation of military movements in the Chanak region of Asiatic Turkey and for the suspension of the activities of the Turkish irregular forces in Thrace have been issued by Mustafa Pasha, the Turkish nationalist leader.

The Turkish nationalist authorities have agreed to an armistice conference in Mudania on Tuesday and have requested the allied high commissioners to appoint delegates. The nationalists will be represented by Ismet Pasha, and possibly by Huzmed Bey.

London, Oct. 1.—With the virtual acceptance by Mustafa Kemal Pasha of a conference at Mudania Tuesday, or as soon as possible thereafter, the whole near eastern situation is considered temporarily easier. However, the fact that Turkish troops are still concentrating in the Isbul zone, notwithstanding that they have retired slightly in the Chanak zone, would indicate, according to remarks made after the British cabinet's second meeting today, that "Kemal is still playing a game."

The Music Cabarrus Day at the Exposition

(By the Associated Press.) Charlotte, Oct. 2.—The music Cabarrus day at the exposition was musically set off by the rendition by the Russian orchestra of "Carolina Exposition March," composed by Conductor A. Schuler, and dedicated to Charlotte.

All Carolinians have a part in the holiday, so it was fitting that it should be played for Cabarrus day at the exposition.

The Cabarrus people caught step quickly. The orchestra put an extra amount of pep into it because Cabarrus is marching on so mightily in advancement along all lines, especially that of manufacture, that nothing less than a quick step would keep their pace.

The program rendered by the orchestra was meant to be only an introduction to the Cabarrus day program, so the numbers were few.

For the first time since his return from New York not so long since, Mr. Sam Goodman, Concord's noted singer, has been heard in Charlotte. He sang at the exposition on Cabarrus day—Friday—delighting all who heard him.

His selections were "O, Columbia," and "Mother Machree," and he captivated his audience. Mr. Goodman has studied in New York and has very richly developed his voice. He has a fine tenor, of exceptional volume, purity of tone, and style. He is fitting himself to sing in concert and opera, north. He is also an organist and pianist. During the summer, he played at the Second Presbyterian church.

FREIGHT RATE HEARING IN ASHEVILLE THIS WEEK

Interstate Commerce Committee Will Continue Their Hearings Begun in Atlanta.

(By the Associated Press.) Asheville, Oct. 2.—Evidence on the part of several Southern States will be introduced at the session of the Interstate Commerce Commission convening here Wednesday in the Southern freight rate hearing which was begun in Atlanta. Corporation Commissioner Maxwell, of Raleigh, is expected to lead North Carolina's fight which centers chiefly in alleged discriminatory rates favoring Virginia cities.

Members of the Commission who are expected to be present are Jos. B. Eastman, Washington; Jas. A. Perry, Georgia; Alexander Forward, Virginia; R. Hudson Burr, Florida; and A. P. Patterson, Alabama. H. G. Wagner, of Washington, will be the examiner.

The recent hearings in Atlanta, which Commissioner Maxwell, of North Carolina, quit because he felt the proposals of the railroads were so unjust to the state he could not fix any judicial capacity of the case, were devoted entirely to the railroad side of the case.
