

MOTT GETTING MUCH EVIDENCE FOR JURY

All Persons Connected With Hall-Mills Murder Except Mrs. Hall Will Be Given Another Examination.

THINK MRS. HALL HAS TOLD FACTS

As She Knows Them, and She Will Not Be Called—James Mills Believes Story of Mrs. Jane Gibson.

New Brunswick, N. J., Nov. 3. (By the Associated Press.)—All persons connected with the Hall-Mills murder case with the exception of the slain rector's widow, Mrs. Frances Noel Stevens Hall, were summoned to the court house today by Special Deputy Attorney General Mott for a checking. It was reported, of evidence to be submitted to the grand jury. The investigators, it was learned, intended to question these persons in the order in which they appeared in the case, beginning with the two New Brunswick witnesses who discovered the bodies of the Rev. Edward Wheeler Hall and his choir leader, Mrs. Eleanor R. Mills, under the crab apple tree on the Phillips Farm.

The statement made by Mrs. Hall Wednesday when she answered a long questionnaire propounded by newspaper men, probably will be taken as her story for the grand jury. It was said, and it was for this reason that she was not called today.

Mr. Mott has discovered another eyewitness of the murder, according to reports here.

James Mills, husband of the slain singer, visited the scene of the crime for the first time last night. He declared that he thought the authorities had made a mistake in their failure to arrest all members of both families immediately, and said "it is too late now."

Mills added that he believes the "eye-witness story" told by Mrs. Jane Gibson, the farmer woman.

Mott Has Nothing to Say.

Newark, N. J., Nov. 3.—Wilbur A. Mott, special deputy attorney general investigating the Hall-Mills murder case, refused here today to either affirm or deny that warrants had been sworn out for anyone in connection with the crime.

FUNERAL SERVICES FOR THOMAS NELSON PAGE

Services Were Held in "Old Fork" Church, Attended by Hundreds of Persons.

Richmond, Nov. 3.—Every bit of available space in the little "Old Fork" Church near his late home in Hanover county was occupied this morning at the funeral services for Thomas Nelson Page, author, diplomat, and lawyer, who died suddenly Tuesday, while walking in the garden of his ancestral plantation "Oakland." Many of the country folk unable to gain admission, stood outside with lined heads as the Rev. E. L. Goodwin, rector, emeritus of St. James Episcopal Church, Ashland, conducted the last rites in the presence of a group of notables, relatives and friends. Tenants on the Page farm served as active pall bearers at the services, after which the body was put aboard the noon train for Washington, where another funeral will be held tomorrow morning.

NOTED TRAIN ROBBER AND HIS COMPANION KILLED

Jack Kennedy Fatally Shot Soon After Hobbing Mail Car—Registered Mail Recovered.

Wittenberg, Mo., Nov. 3. (By the Associated Press.)—Jack Kennedy, veteran Missouri train robber, and a companion whose name is believed to have been Logan, were shot and killed early today by postoffice inspectors after they had robbed a mail car on a south-bound passenger train of the St. Louis and San Francisco Railroad. The stolen mail, about 100 registered letters, were recovered.

Six postoffice inspectors, three railroad special agents and two deputy sheriffs were waiting near the scene of the robbery, which had been anticipated through knowledge of Kennedy's previous movements. Kennedy and Logan were making for their automobile with the stolen mail when the officers ordered them to halt.

Clock Worked by Radium

New York, Nov. 3.—One of the most wonderful clocks the world has ever known is designed to run for a thousand years without winding. It is worked by radium-power. At the bottom of the clock is a tube, at the foot of which is a tiny grain of radium. The rays from the radium strike on two thin strips of metal, which hang down parallel with each other until they begin to get charged with electricity through the influence of the radium rays.

As the strips become charged they gradually separate until they stand out in opposite directions. When this happens they come in contact with two metal electrodes, through which they discharge their current. Then they drop back into their former positions and the charging process starts all over again.

Woman Beaten to Death With Sticks and Stones

Columbia, S. C., Nov. 2.—George and J. C. Boyd, negroes, brothers, aged 15 and 13, respectively, were lodged in the county jail here today charged with beating Anna Boyce, a negro woman, to death with sticks and stones. The woman, familiarly known as "Aunt Ann," attempted to whip one of the boys, it was testified at a coroner's inquest, when a wheel he was rolling brushed some bundles in her hand, and he and his brother attacked her. After the first blow she realized the woman was seriously injured, and they summoned aid.

WANT EXPRESS OFFICE HERE MOVED TO SOUTHERN DEPOT

Local Merchants Submit Petition Asking Southern to Make the Change at Once.

A large number of local business men have forwarded to W. P. Terrell, Superintendent of the Southeastern Express Company, Charlotte, a petition asking that the office of the express company in Concord be changed from its present location to a point near the passenger station of the railway company. In the petition the merchants and other business men point out that under the present arrangement all express has to be handled twice, causing delay; that frequently the delivery wagons of the company are detained and stand idle at the railway station waiting for a train when they could be delivering express matter, and that present means of delivery, viz.: by horse and wagon is slow and unsatisfactory.

To relieve these conditions the Concord men ask that the company erect a new home just south of the passenger station and get motor trucks to deliver the packages. By erecting its own home near the tracks of the railway company it is pointed out that the delivery trucks could devote all of their time to the delivery and collection of packages, and employees of the company instead of waiting for trains could remain in the building at work until the train actually reached the station.

WORK OF METHODIST PROTESTANT CONFERENCE

Committee on Social Reform Makes a Report—Select 1923 Meeting Place Tomorrow.

(By the Associated Press.) Henderson, N. C., Nov. 3.—A committee on social reform of the North Carolina Methodist Protestant Conference in session here, today presented its report to the conference, going on record as being "opposed to any and all organizations or efforts to enforcement of the law, or upholding society under cover of secrecy, darkness or disguise."

It recommended that the state enact a law making the purchaser of intoxicating liquors equally guilty before the law with the seller. It deplored what it described as the laxity of morals in the wake of the world war and resolved to "attack prevailing vice with renewed vigor and effort" urging parents to keep their children under proper restraint, that "they may grow up in the way of the Lord."

The place for the 1923 conference will be selected at tomorrow's session. Thomasville appears to be the general favorite at this time.

ROOSEVELT MEMORIAL TREE HAS DISAPPEARED

Tree Was Planted by Montgomery, Ala. Boy Scouts Last Friday.

Montgomery, Ala., Nov. 3.—The Roosevelt Memorial Tree, which has been the subject of a controversy since it was planted on the Alabama capital lawn by Montgomery Boy Scouts last Friday, mysteriously disappeared last night, and today officials still were without the identity of the miscreants.

A note discovered where the tree had stood by the capitol night-watchman read:

"Montgomery, Ala.—Get this, Alabama. To all concerned: The Daughters of the Confederacy are our mothers (war mothers) and this is the South. There are no trees in honor of Southern gentlemen in the capital yards at Washington, and our War Mothers do not want this one here."

The Daughters of the Confederacy and other organizations contended it was improper for the memorial to stand on the capital grounds within earshot of the place where Davis became President of the Confederacy.

SULTAN OF TURKEY HAS BEEN DEPOSED, SAYS REPORT

Action Deposing Sultan Was Taken by the Nationalist Assembly at Angora.

London, Nov. 3. (By the Associated Press.)—A report that the Turkish nationalist assembly at Angora has passed a law suppressing the Sultanate of Turkey, and the law of succession to the throne, is contained in a dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph from its Constantinople correspondent which quotes dispatches from Angora.

Such action by the nationalist assembly would mean, of course, that the Sultan is deposed. In the future, according to the dispatches, the only call in Turkey would be periodically elected without government protection, all power being in the hands of the nationalist assembly.

NOVEMBER MEETING OF BOARD OF ALDERMEN

City Fathers Confronted With a Number of Important Matters, Many of Which Were Acted Upon.

At their November meeting held at the city hall Thursday night the members of the Board of Aldermen were confronted with a number of important matters, and they acted upon several of the more important ones.

The extension of the city limits north and west of the cemetery brought on a spirited fight. Attorneys Hartsell, Williams, and Oglesby were heard on the matter and oratory flowed very freely while this subject was under discussion. The board finally decided to make a personal survey of the field, and this will be done this afternoon.

The houses on the Kannapolis road which were included in the first survey probably will be left out of the new one.

The widening of Church street between Depot and Corbin streets, also brought forth much comment. It was at first proposed to widen the street on one side only, but after much discussion the aldermen passed an ordinance forbidding any one to build a permanent structure of any kind closer than 17 feet to the curbing on each side of the street. This will widen the street ten feet on each side. The street will not be widened now, but this action was taken to provide for the future, when the street probably will have to be widened.

The board will meet again on the 13th at which time the City Engineer will submit figures showing what the streets under construction, already paved and ordered to be paved will cost. This information is desired by the board members who probably will order other streets paved after they get the estimate of what already has been spent.

The members of the board passed a resolution authorizing the City Clerk to advertise for bids for paving the western approach of the bridge over the Southern Railway tracks near the company's passenger station here. The bids will be opened November 17th and the contract will be let to the lowest bidder. The resolution authorizes the clerk to draw up a contract for the paving of the road to the city limits, and also authorizes the City Engineer to get up a cost of the work. The railroad company will be notified of the cost of the work and if it fails to provide funds to pay for the paving, the City Treasurer will pay it and the charges will be assessed against the railroad company.

Queer Occupations Listed.

London, Nov. 3.—Have you ever met a maggot breeder? Probably not, but that is one of the queer trades and professions that will be found in volumes containing the results of the last British census. Another occupation discovered by the census is that of a "rat charmer." Animals, indeed, seem to fill up the time of a large number of people. The quaintest confession comes from a "beeble and cockroach manipulator and bed bug wrestler."

A woman was responsible for the entry: "Forelady gravy thick." When light dawned upon the census officers it was found that the person in question was superintendent of a soap factory, evidently in the "thick" department.

Motor Accident Rate High in This State

Washington, Nov. 2.—One hundred and thirty-nine people were killed during 1921 in North Carolina by automobiles, motor trucks or commercial motor vehicles, the census bureau reports. Of these 135 were residents of the state. This was a ratio of 5.2 for each 100,000 people, which is high, compared with other years, but low compared with other States. In 1917 the total killed was 66; 1918, 79; 1919, 104; and 1920, 133.

The theme for the November meetings will be "Christian Citizenship." This is the general plan for the Sunday afternoon meetings throughout the year. A detailed program will be made out in the near future and furnished to all the churches.

The Religious Work Committee of the Y. M. C. A. is fortunate in securing the services of the Concord Orchestra to furnish music at all of the meetings. This orchestra has just recently been organized and is making rapid progress. Some excellent talent is found in its members.

BIG NEW VOTE OFFER STIMULATES INTEREST

Candidates Are Showing More Pep as the Big Salesmanship Club Nears Second Lap of the Race.

EXTRA VOTE ENDS TOMORROW NIGHT

Tomorrow Night Marks the Close of 215,000 Extra Votes For $30 Clubs.—Less Votes to Be Given Next Week.

November 4th, December 2nd. These are the two big dates in the big Salesmanship Club in which three automobiles are included in the $6,000 prize list.

On the first named date the very biggest Extra Vote Offer for $30.00 clubs expires.

The other date is the end of the club. Reference to the calendar will show that both will be here shortly. The club members who expect to own the classy new automobile know it too. That is why they are showing speed and hustle as never before. Every effort is now being centered on the big offer which ends Saturday night, as everyone on the big offer realizes the urgency of getting votes now to further enhance their winning possibilities at the end of the drive.

The special offer is this: 215,000 EXTRA VOTES will be credited on each and every club of $30 worth of subscriptions turned in by members this week. The offer is very brief and only two more days are allowed in which to get such great vote value for their subscriptions. All subscriptions apply on the big offer, and more than one club can be secured and turned in by a member. In fact the more clubs one secures the better his or her chance of driving one of the very best automobiles becomes.

Great Interest.

This week's offer has caused such a struggle for subscriptions, such a turmoil of excitement, and such rivalry in the three sections that one wonders how it will all end. There may have been exciting times before this but they now suffer mightily in comparison.

All Mean Business.

It is quite evident that the members mean business. One can read it between the lines of letters that are received daily by the campaign department. There has been a remarkable speeding up during the past week and the majority of the members are just now "bitting their stride," and from now on the club will go forth with great enthusiasm.

Towns Active.

Out of town members are working beyond the limits of their towns and seeking new fields to conquer. Neighboring towns and rural districts offer unlimited opportunities for getting subscriptions.

City members are finding, too, that it is a big mistake to take it for granted that the field has been worked. There are hundreds upon hundreds of folks who have not even been approached for their subscriptions right here in Concord and Cabarrus county. "Live prospects" for yearly and two year subscriptions are being passed up daily and have not even been approached by the members up to this date. Hundreds who should subscribe in advance to The Tribune and Times can be landed if approached. In the majority of instances they would prefer paying their subscriptions in advance instead of getting their papers otherwise. They would be glad to assist a member to win a beautiful touring car. This week is the week to take fresh stock in one's prospects and get their subscriptions.

Y. M. C. A. Board to Meet Sunday Afternoon.

There will be a meeting of the Board of Directors Sunday afternoon at the Y. M. C. A. at 2 o'clock. All members are requested to be present.

Any time is a good time to start carrying out a good idea.

Mr., Mrs., or Miss Club Member

Do you realize the importance of getting your Promised Subscriptions collected up and turned in this week? Do you appreciate the fact that it is the number of votes you secure and not the actual number of dollars you collect for subscriptions that will decide the winners of the prizes? Do you know that you must do your best work now while the Biggest Extra Vote Offers are on in order to get the Winning Votes? Better wise up if you are expecting to drive a prize car this season. Tomorrow night ends the 215,000 Extra Vote Offer. GET BUSY.
