

LIUENTS. KELLY AND M'READY FORCED DOWN

Men Trying to Make Non-Stop Flight From California to New York Forced to Make Landing in Indiana.

BELIEVE RECORD HAS BEEN MADE

For Men Flew More Than 3,000 Miles Before They Landed—A Leaking Gas Tank Caused Trouble.

(By the Associated Press.) Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 4.—Lieutenants Kelly and MacReady, attempting a trans-continental air flight, were forced down at Fort Benjamin Harrison near here at 9:15 today.

Believe Record Was Made. Washington, Nov. 4.—Although they did not succeed in their attempt to fly across the continent without a landing, Lieutenants MacReady and Kelly piloting the army airplane T-2 are believed by air officials to have set a new distance record by their non-stop flight from San Diego, Calif., to Indianapolis, Indiana.

Off Again. Indianapolis, Nov. 4.—Lieutenants MacReady and Kelly, who were forced to make a landing at Fort Benjamin Harrison near here this morning, left at 10:52 for Dayton, Ohio. The young officers made the trip in an airplane obtained at the fort.

Reach Dayton. Dayton, Ohio, Nov. 4.—Lieutenants J. A. MacReady and Oakley Kelly, army aviators, who were forced to land at Indianapolis this morning, arrived at McCook Field here at 12:15 o'clock.

RALEIGH POLICE SEARCH FOR AN EDUCATED GOOSE

Bird of Prominence and Sense Disappears Leaving Not a Single Trace Behind.

Raleigh, Nov. 3.—The police of Raleigh are continuing their search for some trace of Jacob, the educated and most prominent goose in this section of the state, who was kidnapped, while taking his morning stroll yesterday, but not one feather has been found.

Jacob's history is of the most romantic nature. He was purchased shortly before last Thanksgiving to grace the table of Mrs. T. E. Bruton. When Vincent Mass, Mrs. Bruton's grandson, was sent into the yard to kill Jacob, the goose walked up to the lad and started talking in goose language. The boy returned to the house to tell his grandmother of the peculiar conduct of the goose, and discovered that Jacob had followed him.

Thomas Nelson Page Buried. Washington, Nov. 4.—Thomas Nelson Page, author and diplomat, who died suddenly Wednesday at his home in Hanover county, Virginia, was buried today at Rock Creek cemetery beside the grave of his second wife, who died last year.

Lloyd George Elected to Parliament. London, Nov. 4.—Former Prime Minister David Lloyd George was returned unopposed as a member of parliament for the Carnarvon district today.

CHANGES IN SCHEDULES ON SOUTHERN RAILWAY

No. 43 Will Be Discontinued After Tonight—No. 44 Will Run From Atlanta to Washington.

No. 35, schedule also has been changed. Under the new schedule this train will arrive in Concord at 10:20 p. m.

No. 44, now due here at 5 a. m., beginning tomorrow under the new schedule will be due here at 5:12 a. m. This train under the new schedule will run from Atlanta to Washington instead of from Charlotte to Washington.

Autos Killed 10,168 in 34 States in 1921

Deaths Increased 1,065 Over 1920 and 3,444, or 28 Per Cent., Over 1917.

Washington, Nov. 3.—Motor vehicles, exclusive of motorcycles, caused 10,168 deaths in 1921 in the death registration of the United States, comprising thirty-four States.

This was an increase of 1,065 deaths over 1920. Returns compiled by the Census Bureau showed that in these States, embracing 2 per cent. of the nation's population, the death rate was 11.5 per 100,000 of population, as compared with 10.4 in 1920.

New York State registered the largest number of actual deaths in 1921, an increase of 222 over 1920. Total deaths in the state were 4,415 last year, and increase of 209 over 1920. The death rate per 100,000 of population in the state was 15.8, an increase of 0.8 over 1920.

The figures for fatal accidents also made comparisons for 1921 and 1917. In the latter year 6,724, in New York City in this five-year period the deaths from automobile accidents increased from 551 to 885.

NO DATE SET FOR NEW TRIAL OF CAPT. BUCKALEW

Was Acquitted on a Charge of Forging a Government Check.

Greenville, S. C., Nov. 4.—A date for a new trial of Capt. Samuel Buckalew, former U. S. Army officer who on October 11th was granted a rehearing of his case following conviction on October 7 of "uttering and publishing" a forged check, still is undecided.

The jury which heard the case of Capt. Buckalew in which he acted as his own attorney, acquitted him of every charge except the one. The report that he was found guilty of forgery resulted it was said here, from confusion of the charges of "uttering and publishing" a forged instrument, and "forgery."

Among the students at a Welsh school of mining is a nun from an Ayrshire convent; she speaks English, French, German, and Spanish fluently.

THE ELECTIONS TUESDAY

Regarded as a Test, Bearing on the Next Presidential Campaign.

Washington, Nov. 3.—America's barometer of political and public opinion will be read at the polls, Tuesday, November 7th, when another national House of Representatives, more than a third of the Senate membership, and 32 governors of states, together with state legislatures and local officials, will be chosen.

Nationally, the general election on Tuesday is the first of the Harding administration, thus it is regarded by many as a test, bearing upon the next Presidential campaign.

Excepting in Maine, where the elections were held last September, next Sixty-eighth Congress of 435 members will be chosen Tuesday from all States. Thirty-seven Senators in 34 states also will be elected.

The battle of ballots throughout the country largely is between the two dominant parties, Republican and Democratic. The election is marked by ritual passing of the Progressive, or Bull Moose, party, Socialist, Prohibitionist, Farmer-Labor, Single Tax and other organizations, however, continue on the ballots here and there, with some independent and other miscellaneous designations.

Congressional candidates mostly are for the Sixty-eighth Congress which will not assemble until December, 1923, unless a special session next summer should be called.

Philadelphia, Nov. 4.—Back home with her year-old baby after nine months in the county prison and passing through the ordeal of a long murder trial, Mrs. Catharine Roster, who later yesterday was acquitted on the charges of killing her husband and his stenographer, was happy today, but worn out.

THOMASVILLE SELECTED AS CONFERENCE CITY

Methodist Protestants Will Meet There Next Year.—Will Read Appointments Monday.

Henderson, N. C., Nov. 4.—Thomasville was today selected as the place, and Wednesday before the first Sunday in November as the time for the 1923 session of the Methodist Protestant Conference of North Carolina, now in session in this city.

Death of Mrs. D. A. Sears. Mrs. D. A. Sears, who recently underwent an operation for appendicitis, died at nine o'clock this morning at the Concord Hospital.

There are two women candidates for the Senate from Minnesota and Wisconsin and a score for the House, with many others for municipal and other local offices.

Insurrection on the Island of Samos. Paris, Nov. 4 (By the Associated Press).—An insurrection has broken out on the island of Samos, off the Smyrna coast of Asia Minor, according to advices received here, the rebels demanding an autonomous government for the island.

Conservatives Leading. London, Nov. 4 (By the Associated Press).—Candidates returned unopposed for seats in Parliament on the basis of the returns received up to 3 o'clock this afternoon included 37 conservatives, 7 national liberals, 5 liberals, 3 laborites and 1 nationalist.

Men and Older Boys

Sunday 3:30 P. M. at Y. M. C. A. A Message on "Christian Citizenship" Under Leadership of Men's Bible Class. Central M. E. Church

Working Hard to Win Big Prize

FRANKLIN ARMSTRONG, Concord.

Franklin Armstrong, one of the popular club members enjoys the acquaintance of a large circle of friends who are rallying to his support in an amazing manner and which is evidenced by his standing in the list.

MRS. CATHARINE ROSTER IS BACK HOME AGAIN

Was Acquitted Late Friday on Charge of Killing Her Husband and His Stenographer.

Philadelphia, Nov. 4.—Back home with her year-old baby after nine months in the county prison and passing through the ordeal of a long murder trial, Mrs. Catharine Roster, who later yesterday was acquitted on the charges of killing her husband and his stenographer, was happy today, but worn out.

THOMASVILLE SELECTED AS CONFERENCE CITY

Methodist Protestants Will Meet There Next Year.—Will Read Appointments Monday.

Death of Mrs. D. A. Sears. Mrs. D. A. Sears, who recently underwent an operation for appendicitis, died at nine o'clock this morning at the Concord Hospital.

There are two women candidates for the Senate from Minnesota and Wisconsin and a score for the House, with many others for municipal and other local offices.

Insurrection on the Island of Samos. Paris, Nov. 4 (By the Associated Press).—An insurrection has broken out on the island of Samos, off the Smyrna coast of Asia Minor, according to advices received here, the rebels demanding an autonomous government for the island.

Conservatives Leading. London, Nov. 4 (By the Associated Press).—Candidates returned unopposed for seats in Parliament on the basis of the returns received up to 3 o'clock this afternoon included 37 conservatives, 7 national liberals, 5 liberals, 3 laborites and 1 nationalist.

Men and Older Boys

Sunday 3:30 P. M. at Y. M. C. A. A Message on "Christian Citizenship" Under Leadership of Men's Bible Class. Central M. E. Church

CONCORD HIGH WINS GREAT GAME FROM GASTONIA

Cleaver Intercepts Pass and Runs Seventy Yards For Touchdown.

In one of the prettiest games of football ever seen on the local field, the Concord High Friday won from the strong Gastonia team by the score of 7 to 0.

Gastonia scored in the third quarter when Cleaver, after skirting the end for fifteen yards, lost the ball when he was tackled.

While Cleaver made the most spectacular play of the game, there were ten other players on the field who starred just as much.

THE COTTON MARKET

Showed Continued Strength and Activity.—Opening Firm at An Advance.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—The cotton market showed continued strength and activity early today.

To Unveil Statue of Pershing.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 3.—On Armistice Day, November 11, a heroic statue of General Pershing, picturing him as if watching troops in battle, will be unveiled in the Golden Gate Park here.

Travelers Desert American Vessels.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3.—Attorney General Daugherty's ban against liquor on American ships has hit the passenger traffic to Peru in American bottoms, the commerce department was advised today by Commercial Attache Dunn at Lima.

Astor Moves His Wealth.

LONDON, Nov. 3.—Major John Jacob Astor, brother of Viscount Astor, who is contesting Dover in the coming elections, replying to a heckling question today, said: "I am transferring my wealth from America to this country."

Rev. B. B. Shankle to Be at McKinnon.

Carolina and Tulane Ready.

CONSERVATIVES LEADING. London, Nov. 4 (By the Associated Press).—Candidates returned unopposed for seats in Parliament on the basis of the returns received up to 3 o'clock this afternoon included 37 conservatives, 7 national liberals, 5 liberals, 3 laborites and 1 nationalist.

KIWANIS MEETING

Only Routine Matters Were Discussed and Acted Upon at Weekly Meeting.

The meeting of the Kiwanis Club of Concord at the Y. M. C. A. on Friday evening was featured by the transaction of a number of business matters, the entire session being given over to routine matters.

THE COTTON MARKET

Showed Continued Strength and Activity.—Opening Firm at An Advance.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—The cotton market showed continued strength and activity early today.

To Unveil Statue of Pershing.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 3.—On Armistice Day, November 11, a heroic statue of General Pershing, picturing him as if watching troops in battle, will be unveiled in the Golden Gate Park here.

Travelers Desert American Vessels.

Astor Moves His Wealth.

Rev. B. B. Shankle to Be at McKinnon.

Carolina and Tulane Ready.

CONSERVATIVES LEADING. London, Nov. 4 (By the Associated Press).—Candidates returned unopposed for seats in Parliament on the basis of the returns received up to 3 o'clock this afternoon included 37 conservatives, 7 national liberals, 5 liberals, 3 laborites and 1 nationalist.

POSTPONE ACTION IN DOUBLE MURDER CASE

Off Has Action That No Action Will Be Taken Until After Election Next Tuesday.

GRAND JURY WILL GET EVIDENCE THEN

Only a Few More Witnesses Are to Be Examined Before Evidence Will Be Ready for the Jury.

New Brunswick, N. J., Nov. 4.—Action will be delayed in the Hall-Mills murder case until after the election next Tuesday, according to reports today. Then it will be presented to the grand jury.

Working at a secret place, Mr. Mott is said to have persuaded several persons, reported to have knowledge of the crime to talk thus ironing out the weak links in the eye-witness story of Mrs. Jane Gibson.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE THERE MAKES FINAL PLANS FOR MID-WINTER GATHERING

HIGH POINT, Nov. 3.—The executive committee of the North Carolina Press Association in meeting there this afternoon made final plans for the mid-winter meeting of the association which will open in this city early in January 11 and last through the 12th.

With Our Advertisers.

The half year mark has been reached in the Ten Day Sale at the Concord Furniture Company.

Monday Night Drill Important One.

Want Dyer Bill Passed.

Man Wins Breach of Promise Suit.

Own Your Home

Life in a rented house is not one of perfect contentment and happiness. To enjoy life thoroughly you need the freedom and feeling of security enjoyed only in a HOME OF YOUR OWN.

Our 34th series is now open and we will be glad to have you subscribe to some BUILDING AND LOAN STOCK with us and pay for your home the easy way.

Citizens Building & Loan Association (Office in Citizens Bank)

Today Today Today

And the last opportunity to get 215,000 Extra Votes upon each $30 worth of subscriptions is gone—gone forever. The Big Extra Vote Offer is one sure way to victory. Just a little more hustle means the difference between an automobile and a lesser prize. Better grasp it now. A record-breaking week is predicted and the big decline in votes is not very far off.

Get Them In Today

Cotton on the local market is quoted at 24 1/2 cents per pound; cotton seed at 60 cents per bushel.