

PROFESSORS MAKE HOME BREW IN ROOMS

Resignations of Four Instructors in N. C. State College is Requested as Result of Charges to This Effect.

NO DETAILS OF MATTER GIVEN

Dr. Riddick States That His Action Followed an Investigation Made by the Students of the College.

(By the Associated Press.) Raleigh, Dec. 20.—The resignations of four instructors of North Carolina State College have been requested as a result of charges that they have been manufacturing "home brew" in their rooms, according to announcement today by Dr. W. E. Riddick, president.

CHARTERS GRANTED

Many New Business Enterprises Are Springing up in North Carolina.

(By the Associated Press.) Raleigh, N. C., Dec. 20.—The secretary of state has granted the following charters:

Angier Investment Company, Angier; real estate, general merchandise, manufacture of hosiery, meat and flour and deal in automobiles. Capital stock $5,000, paid in $2,000. S. Young, H. C. Strickland, Franklin T. Dupree, Angier, incorporators.

TO COMPEL SOUTHERN TO BUILD STATION AT SELMA

Court Action Will Be Taken in 10 Days if It Falls to Join With Coast Line.

(By the Associated Press.) Raleigh, Dec. 20.—Asserting that the Southern Railway Company had sought through its use of "all the arts of legal technique to further delay and defeat its obligation to the public" in the building of a union station at Selma, N. C., the state corporation commission today issued an order to the company that if it fails after 10 days to join with the Atlantic Coast Line in constructing the building, court action will be used to enforce action and penalties assessed.

Futile Efforts For Shipping Bill Made

(By the Associated Press.) Washington, Dec. 20.—Futile efforts were made again in the Senate today by supporters of the administration shipping bill to bring to a vote the question of whether that measure should remain before the senate, or be displaced by the Norris agricultural financing measure.

Three Survivors Testify

(By the Associated Press.) Marion, Ill., Dec. 20.—(By the Associated Press.)—With the scars of bullet and knife wounds on their bodies, three survivors of the Herrin riots testified today at the trial of five men in connection with the killing of 20 non-union men last June. They were Joseph O'Rourke, William Cairns and Robert O'Brien.

Daily Arbuckle May "Come Back"

(By the Associated Press.) Los Angeles, Dec. 20.—Will H. Hayes, chairman of the motion picture industry, said today that Roseco C. (Fatty) Arbuckle might have his chance to "come back" in motion pictures.

THIRTY SEVEN ADDITIONAL "OPPORTUNITIES" FOUND

If You Want to Adopt One You May Be Able to Find What You Want in This Second List.

Mrs. G. B. Lewis, who has charge of the charity work of the King's daughters for the Christmas period, today announced a list of 37 additional "opportunities" which have been located in this city. This list is in addition to the 41 announced several days ago.

IMPORTANT DECISION TO FARMING INTERESTS

Bankers' Acceptances of Six Months Maturity Agricultural Paper is Eligible for Purchase or Re-Discount.

(By the Associated Press.) Washington, Dec. 20.—Bankers' acceptances of six months maturity drawn by growers of staple agricultural products of co-operative marketing associations are eligible for purchase or re-discount by the Federal Reserve Banks under a ruling promulgated today by the Federal Reserve Board as a step in the direction of long-term credits for agriculture.

MATERIAL AID IN CROP MARKETING

Longer Period More Nearly Accords With the Turnover Period Required by Farmers to Market Crops.

(By the Associated Press.) Washington, Dec. 20.—Officials declared the decision which makes the agricultural paper eligible for re-discount for six months instead of three should be "of material assistance to co-operative marketing associations in financing the orderly marketing of crops."

THE COTTON MARKET

After Opening Advance, Prices Eased Off From 3 to 10 Points Lower.

(By the Associated Press.) New York, Dec. 20.—The circulation of a December notice representing about 2,000 bales had rather an unsettling influence in the cotton market at the opening today. First prices were steady at an advance of 2 to 15 points on relatively steady Liverpool cables and smaller ginning figures than expected, but December soon eased off to 25.90 and January to 25.80, or 3 to 10 points lower under scattering liquidation.

EMPLOYEES OF BROOKLYN NAVAL BASE ARRESTED

On Charge That Government Property Worth $1,000,000 Has Been Stolen.

(By the Associated Press.) New York, Dec. 20.—Twenty-two civilian employees at the naval base in Brooklyn were arrested today on indictments returnable several months ago by a Federal grand jury charging government property worth more than $1,000,000 has been stolen since the war.

Trinity President Mails Checks to Superannuates

(By the Associated Press.) Durham, N. C., Dec. 20.—Christmas cheer to the sum of $10,000, was yesterday mailed to superannuates, and widows and orphans of deceased preachers of the North Carolina and Western North Carolina conference of the Methodist church by Dr. W. P. Few, president of Trinity College, administering the Duke Fund. This is the eighth year that James B. Duke of New York has contributed through Trinity College the sum of $10,000 for this purpose.

WALLACE REED NEAR DEATH OF LIQUOR AND DRUGS

Star Was Lure For Young Girls, and Father Became Plaything. Edward Doherty in Washington Post. Los Angeles, Dec. 20.—The case of Wallace Reid, brilliant movie star, riddled by morphine and whiskey, may result in more exposure today of the moving picture industry than did the mystery in the murder of William D. Taylor, moving picture director.

GEORGES CLEMENCEAU ARRIVES AT HIS HOME

"The Tiger" Reaches Home Today in a Hilarious Mood, But is Apparently Suffering From Fatigue.

(By the Associated Press.) Paris, Dec. 20.—Georges Clemenceau arrived today in a hilarious mood but apparently suffering from fatigue. "The Tiger" received representatives of France in his cabin as the liner was entering the port. A large crowd of relatives and friends, as well as correspondents and photographers, greeted him also before the steamer docked.

LARGE CROWDS GREET HIM AT PORT

Says He Put His Thoughts Fully Before American People and They Have Sense Enough to Judge.

(By the Associated Press.) New York, Dec. 20.—(By the Associated Press.)—Georges Clemenceau arrived today in a hilarious mood but apparently suffering from fatigue. "The Tiger" received representatives of France in his cabin as the liner was entering the port.

DEAD MAN IDENTIFIED

Joe Stone, a Farmer, Identified Today. T. L. Neville Also Killed in Accident.

(By the Associated Press.) Raleigh, Dec. 20.—The body of a man who was instantly killed last night when the automobile in which he was riding overturned about 5 miles south of Raleigh, was identified early today as that of Joe Stone, a farmer, who lived near Cary in this county. T. L. Neville, a guard at the state prison farm, who was with Stone, received injuries which resulted in his death at a local hospital last night. From the terribly damaged condition of the automobile it is evident the car was traveling at high speed. Officers who went to the scene of the accident last night say a quantity of liquor was found on the scene.

MILLS PREPARE TO RESUME THEIR NORMAL SCHEDULES

As Result of Resumption of Full Facilities by the Southern Power Co.

(By the Associated Press.) Charlotte, Dec. 20.—Textile mills throughout the Piedmont section of North Carolina and South Carolina today prepared to resume a more normal schedule as a result of resumption of full power facilities by the Southern Power Company, following a curtailment since November 27, when one-eighth of the nation's spinners were forced to shut down one day each week because of a shortage of rainfall.

Conference For Social Service

(By the Associated Press.) Raleigh, N. C., Dec. 20.—The North Carolina conference for social service will meet in Raleigh January 24-25, when some of the most important legislative questions it has considered since its organization will be discussed here tonight.

Deadlock at Lausanne

(By the Associated Press.) Lausanne, Dec. 20.—(By the Associated Press.)—The sub commission on capitulations of the Near East conference reached a deadlock today on the question of trying foreigners in Turkish native courts. As a substitute for the present consular courts the allied suggested that a foreign judge appointed by The Hague court of justice should sit on the bench with the Turkish judge. The Turks refused this.

New President of Poland

(By the Associated Press.) Warsaw, Dec. 20.—(By the Associated Press.)—Stanislaus Wojciechowski was elected president of Poland today to succeed Dr. Gabriel Narutowicz, who was assassinated last Saturday.

HOME ECONOMICS

The Department Will Ask an Appropriation of $40,000 This Year.

(By the Associated Press.) Raleigh, N. C., Dec. 20.—(By the Associated Press.)—With a record of having seventy-two schools in the state teaching home economics this year, an increase of seventeen over 1921, and having turned down approximately fifty-one applications for the course, the state home economics department will endeavor to secure an increased appropriation to broaden its operations in 1923, according to an announcement today by Miss Katherine Moran, assistant director.

MORGAN REFUSED GERMAN LOAN PLEA

Told Ambassador That Reparations Question Must Be Settled First.

(By the Associated Press.) New York, Dec. 20.—J. P. Morgan & Co., declared yesterday in a formal statement that their attitude on the possibility of a loan to Germany had not changed since summer and that it was not possible for them to discuss or to consider a loan to Germany unless and until the reparations question was settled.

TO POSTPONE CONSIDERATION OF GREENE RESOLUTION

(By the Associated Press.) Washington, Dec. 20.—House republican leaders decided today to postpone further consideration of the Greene resolution for an amendment to the constitution prohibiting the issuance of tax-exempt securities urged by President Harding and Secretary Mellon of the Treasury.

TO COMPEL ALL HOLDERS OF STOCK TO PAY TAX AS INDIVIDUALS

(By the Associated Press.) Raleigh, Dec. 20.—The case of W. M. Persons vs. the State Tax Commission and A. D. Watts, revenue commissioner, to compel the latter to collect taxes on all stocks held by individuals was dismissed by the North Carolina Supreme Court, Chief Justice Walter Clark dissenting.

UNDVELOPED PEAT FIELD A GREAT RESOURCE

(By the Associated Press.) Washington, Dec. 20.—Coal of high quality is of such wide-spread occurrence in this country, and so accessible to most fuel consumers, that mention of the word "peat" means little in the United States other than memories of its use in Europe.

CONFERENCE FOR SOCIAL SERVICE

(By the Associated Press.) Raleigh, N. C., Dec. 20.—The North Carolina conference for social service will meet in Raleigh January 24-25, when some of the most important legislative questions it has considered since its organization will be discussed here tonight.

DEADLOCK AT LAUSANNE

(By the Associated Press.) Lausanne, Dec. 20.—(By the Associated Press.)—The sub commission on capitulations of the Near East conference reached a deadlock today on the question of trying foreigners in Turkish native courts.

NEW PRESIDENT OF POLAND

(By the Associated Press.) Warsaw, Dec. 20.—(By the Associated Press.)—Stanislaus Wojciechowski was elected president of Poland today to succeed Dr. Gabriel Narutowicz, who was assassinated last Saturday.

GEORGES CLEMENCEAU ARRIVES AT HIS HOME

"The Tiger" Reaches Home Today in a Hilarious Mood, But is Apparently Suffering From Fatigue.

(By the Associated Press.) Paris, Dec. 20.—Georges Clemenceau arrived today in a hilarious mood but apparently suffering from fatigue. "The Tiger" received representatives of France in his cabin as the liner was entering the port.

LARGE CROWDS GREET HIM AT PORT

Says He Put His Thoughts Fully Before American People and They Have Sense Enough to Judge.

(By the Associated Press.) New York, Dec. 20.—(By the Associated Press.)—Georges Clemenceau arrived today in a hilarious mood but apparently suffering from fatigue. "The Tiger" received representatives of France in his cabin as the liner was entering the port.

DEAD MAN IDENTIFIED

Joe Stone, a Farmer, Identified Today. T. L. Neville Also Killed in Accident.

(By the Associated Press.) Raleigh, Dec. 20.—The body of a man who was instantly killed last night when the automobile in which he was riding overturned about 5 miles south of Raleigh, was identified early today as that of Joe Stone, a farmer, who lived near Cary in this county.

MILLS PREPARE TO RESUME THEIR NORMAL SCHEDULES

As Result of Resumption of Full Facilities by the Southern Power Co.

(By the Associated Press.) Charlotte, Dec. 20.—Textile mills throughout the Piedmont section of North Carolina and South Carolina today prepared to resume a more normal schedule as a result of resumption of full power facilities by the Southern Power Company, following a curtailment since November 27, when one-eighth of the nation's spinners were forced to shut down one day each week because of a shortage of rainfall.

CONFERENCE FOR SOCIAL SERVICE

(By the Associated Press.) Raleigh, N. C., Dec. 20.—The North Carolina conference for social service will meet in Raleigh January 24-25, when some of the most important legislative questions it has considered since its organization will be discussed here tonight.

DEADLOCK AT LAUSANNE

(By the Associated Press.) Lausanne, Dec. 20.—(By the Associated Press.)—The sub commission on capitulations of the Near East conference reached a deadlock today on the question of trying foreigners in Turkish native courts.

NEW PRESIDENT OF POLAND

(By the Associated Press.) Warsaw, Dec. 20.—(By the Associated Press.)—Stanislaus Wojciechowski was elected president of Poland today to succeed Dr. Gabriel Narutowicz, who was assassinated last Saturday.

NO LOAN TO GERMANY SAYS THOMAS W. LAMONT

Because She is Not in a Position at the Present Time to Inspire Our People With Confidence to Buy Bonds.

MOST SIGNIFICANT STATEMENT YET MADE

Mr. Lamont Believes Loan May Be Floated in Future Large Enough to Get Germany "Over the Hill."

(By the Associated Press.) New York, Dec. 20.—An address by Thomas W. Lamont, of J. P. Morgan & Company, before the Council of Foreign Relations last night in which he discussed prospects of a loan to Germany was regarded today as one of the most significant statements yet made on the question.

BAKER APPEARS BEFORE SPECIAL GRAND JURY

Which is Taking Evidence Offered by Government in Alleged War Fraud Cases.

(By the Associated Press.) Washington, Dec. 20.—Newton D. Baker, who was Secretary of War in President Wilson's war time cabinet, appeared today before a special Federal grand jury which is in session here investigating war frauds.

MORGAN REFUSED GERMAN LOAN PLEA

Told Ambassador That Reparations Question Must Be Settled First.

(By the Associated Press.) New York, Dec. 20.—J. P. Morgan & Co., declared yesterday in a formal statement that their attitude on the possibility of a loan to Germany had not changed since summer and that it was not possible for them to discuss or to consider a loan to Germany unless and until the reparations question was settled.

TO COMPEL ALL HOLDERS OF STOCK TO PAY TAX AS INDIVIDUALS

(By the Associated Press.) Raleigh, Dec. 20.—The case of W. M. Persons vs. the State Tax Commission and A. D. Watts, revenue commissioner, to compel the latter to collect taxes on all stocks held by individuals was dismissed by the North Carolina Supreme Court, Chief Justice Walter Clark dissenting.

UNDVELOPED PEAT FIELD A GREAT RESOURCE

(By the Associated Press.) Washington, Dec. 20.—Coal of high quality is of such wide-spread occurrence in this country, and so accessible to most fuel consumers, that mention of the word "peat" means little in the United States other than memories of its use in Europe.

CONFERENCE FOR SOCIAL SERVICE

(By the Associated Press.) Raleigh, N. C., Dec. 20.—The North Carolina conference for social service will meet in Raleigh January 24-25, when some of the most important legislative questions it has considered since its organization will be discussed here tonight.

DEADLOCK AT LAUSANNE

(By the Associated Press.) Lausanne, Dec. 20.—(By the Associated Press.)—The sub commission on capitulations of the Near East conference reached a deadlock today on the question of trying foreigners in Turkish native courts.

NEW PRESIDENT OF POLAND

(By the Associated Press.) Warsaw, Dec. 20.—(By the Associated Press.)—Stanislaus Wojciechowski was elected president of Poland today to succeed Dr. Gabriel Narutowicz, who was assassinated last Saturday.

ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCHES

NO LOAN TO GERMANY SAYS THOMAS W. LAMONT

Because She is Not in a Position at the Present Time to Inspire Our People With Confidence to Buy Bonds.

MOST SIGNIFICANT STATEMENT YET MADE

Mr. Lamont Believes Loan May Be Floated in Future Large Enough to Get Germany "Over the Hill."

(By the Associated Press.) New York, Dec. 20.—An address by Thomas W. Lamont, of J. P. Morgan & Company, before the Council of Foreign Relations last night in which he discussed prospects of a loan to Germany was regarded today as one of the most significant statements yet made on the question.

BAKER APPEARS BEFORE SPECIAL GRAND JURY

Which is Taking Evidence Offered by Government in Alleged War Fraud Cases.

(By the Associated Press.) Washington, Dec. 20.—Newton D. Baker, who was Secretary of War in President Wilson's war time cabinet, appeared today before a special Federal grand jury which is in session here investigating war frauds.

MORGAN REFUSED GERMAN LOAN PLEA

Told Ambassador That Reparations Question Must Be Settled First.

(By the Associated Press.) New York, Dec. 20.—J. P. Morgan & Co., declared yesterday in a formal statement that their attitude on the possibility of a loan to Germany had not changed since summer and that it was not possible for them to discuss or to consider a loan to Germany unless and until the reparations question was settled.

TO COMPEL ALL HOLDERS OF STOCK TO PAY TAX AS INDIVIDUALS

(By the Associated Press.) Raleigh, Dec. 20.—The case of W. M. Persons vs. the State Tax Commission and A. D. Watts, revenue commissioner, to compel the latter to collect taxes on all stocks held by individuals was dismissed by the North Carolina Supreme Court, Chief Justice Walter Clark dissenting.

UNDVELOPED PEAT FIELD A GREAT RESOURCE

(By the Associated Press.) Washington, Dec. 20.—Coal of high quality is of such wide-spread occurrence in this country, and so accessible to most fuel consumers, that mention of the word "peat" means little in the United States other than memories of its use in Europe.

CONFERENCE FOR SOCIAL SERVICE

(By the Associated Press.) Raleigh, N. C., Dec. 20.—The North Carolina conference for social service will meet in Raleigh January 24-25, when some of the most important legislative questions it has considered since its organization will be discussed here tonight.

DEADLOCK AT LAUSANNE

(By the Associated Press.) Lausanne, Dec. 20.—(By the Associated Press.)—The sub commission on capitulations of the Near East conference reached a deadlock today on the question of trying foreigners in Turkish native courts.

NEW PRESIDENT OF POLAND

(By the Associated Press.) Warsaw, Dec. 20.—(By the Associated Press.)—Stanislaus Wojciechowski was elected president of Poland today to succeed Dr. Gabriel Narutowicz, who was assassinated last Saturday.

ONLY 3 MORE DAYS TO SHOP