LOCAL MENTION

Cotton on the local market today is quoted at 27 cents per pound; cotton seed at 66 cents per bushel.

Miss Maye Moose, who has been confined to her home for some time on account of sickness, is able to be out again.

Register of Deeds Elliott has issued marriage license to William R. Freeze and Miss Effie June Gatton, both of Kannapolis.

Eight cases were on docket for trial in recorder's court this morning. The cases were not of special importance, police officers stated.

Ida Louise, small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Cook, is critically ill at her home on West Depot street. The child is suffering with double pneumonia.

Four new cases of whooping cough and 18 new cases of measles were reported to the county health department Saturday and this morning, the department reports.

"Big Bill" Harris pitched part of the game for Cincinnati yesterday. Pittsburgh won easily. Harris went in after the game was already lost, and during his two innings on the mound allowed five hits.

The directors of the Merchants and Manufacturers Club, at a meeting last week, renewed their lease on the Cannon building, where the club rooms are located. A new lease, covering a two-year period, was signed by the club with the owner of the building.

The weekly meeting of the Concord Rotary Club will be held tomorrow (Tuesday) evening at 6:30 at the Y. New officers of the coming year will be installed at the meeting and Rev. T. N. Lawrence, who will leave the club soon, when he moves to Maryland, will preside at the meeting.

Mr. Henry Smith, who is visiting his parents, Rev. and Mrs. T. W. Smith, has just returned from Birmingham, where he served two weeks with the aviation corps of the United States Army. Mr. Smith was called into active service for two weeks and spent most of the time in the air.

The big leagues are in full swing now. In the National League the New York Giants are leading with Chicago in second place and in the American League Cleveland is leading with New York in second place. Home run hitting has been a feature of the season so far, more than 20 four-base clouts having been made in the two leagues.

The local High School baseball team will play twice this week. Tomorrow the Kannapolis Highs come here for a game and on Friday the Baden Highs will be played at the Gibson Mill Park and will begin at 3:30. The Highs have been going good this year and are confident of winning both games this week.

Next Saturday will be the last day persons can register for the municipal election. The election will be held on May 8th, and all persons who did not register in the school bond election must register if they would vote in the election. Absentee votes will not be allowed in the election, as the absentee voting law does not apply to municipal elections.

Trinity no wins a fine chance to win baseball honors among the colleges of the State this year. She defeated Wake Forest Saturday 5 to 3, while Carolina was winning from State 2 to 1. Trinity has already defeated Carolina, and State has defeated Wake Forest. A home run drive by Morris won for Carolina while a four base clout by Spikes won for Trinity.

While the Republicans have made no definite announcement yet about a ticket for the municipal election, they are expected to offer a full ticket. One Republican leader last week declared that it had not been definitely decided just who was to enter the race and that no announcement would be made until the full ticket had been chosen. The election will be held on May 8th.

Eddie Britz, popular and efficient editor of the Charlotte News sports page, has resigned his position with that paper and has gone to Baltimore, where he will be connected with one of the large afternoon dailies. While in Charlotte Eddie conducted one of the best sports pages in the South, and his friends and readers of The News here will regret to see him leave.

The funeral of Zim Black, negro, who was found dead in a field near this city Friday, was held yesterday afternoon. It was one of the largest colored funerals held here in months, and hundreds of relatives and friends of the deceased attended the services at the Church and grave. Black was a hard-working, industrious negro, and enjoyed a good reputation with both races.

Joe Bost, who went fishing last week, comes forth with the latest fish story, and he is waiting for some one to "venusize" it. Joe, according to his story, was fishing for perch. After waiting patiently for a bite for several hours he finally saw his cork go under. He played his bite well and when he finally pulled in, he had two fish, a small perch on his hook and a pound and a half jack holding to the perch.
