LOCAL MENTION

Cotton on the local market today is quoted at 27 cents per pound; cotton seed at 66 cents per bushel.

"Monte Cristo," a Fox super-special, will be the feature attraction at the Piedmont Theatre today and tomorrow.

Mrs. Smoot Dry is confined to her home on North Church street on account of an acute attack of appendicitis.

Thirteen new cases of measles and eight new cases of whooping cough were reported to the county health department Tuesday afternoon and night.

Mr. G. I. Ray Lentz has returned to Albemarle after spending a few days here with his family. Mr. Lentz has been made agent for the Texas Company at Albemarle. He will move his family to that town the first of May.

A forefoot hands is now at work on Houston Street, part of which will be paved. The excavation work in this street has about been completed, and the concrete base will be laid as soon as possible.

Five cases were on docket in recorder's court this morning. Three of the defendants were charged with intoxication and the other two with violating a city ordinance. There were three submissions and court was in session but a short while.

Carpenters are making good progress with the apartment house Mr. Tom Honeycutt is having erected on North Church street. The house is being planned to care for two families, and will be completed within another month.

The management of the Y. M. C. A. last week opened its "movie" program at No. 2 School. It is planned to show moving pictures in the new auditorium of the school each Friday evening. Last Friday a large audience witnessed the show, and a larger crowd is expected to be present this week.

It is certain now that Concord will not have a city baseball league this year. So far only the Gibson Mill has recruited a team for the season, and while this team and others to be organized later are expected to play a number of games during the summer, no organized league will be perfected this year.

The tennis courts of the Y. M. C. A. are in good shape now and devotees of the game are taking advantage of them. In the early afternoon the courts are open to children and later are for grown-ups. In the early morning hours the courts are being used also, and indications point to another successful tennis season here.

Several of the old buildings on the property which is to be used by the new home of the Cabarrus Savings Bank have been torn down, and the others are being destroyed now. As soon as the buildings have been torn down contractors will begin preparing the land for the five-story building which the bank will erect.

Brick masons and carpenters have started the work of erecting three brick store rooms for Messrs. W. W. and Z. A. Morris on Barbriek street. The buildings will be erected on the vacant lot in the rear of The Times-Tribune office, and it is planned to complete them as soon as possible. Permit for the structures has already been issued by Frank Mund, city building inspector.

Prof. J. B. Robertson, county superintendent of schools, is busy now making final plans for county commencement, which will be held here next Saturday. Prof. Robertson states that most of the important details for commencement have been completed, but a number of minor matters remain to be settled. The exercises this year will be held in the handsome new auditorium of No. 2 School.

Road forces of the county continue their work on the old Salisbury road, which is being used by the State Highway Commission as a detour to Salisbury. In addition to cleaning out the ditches the road in Cabarrus county is being dragged, and it has been greatly improved within the past week. The entire road to Salisbury is in good shape now, motorists who have used it this week declare.

Highs Annex Another Ball Game at the Expense of Kannapolis. The High School ball players continued their winning streak Tuesday afternoon by swamping Kannapolis 11 to 4, in a ragged and slow game.

Kannapolis never had a chance, and had Sullivan been given real support in the sixth inning they would have scored only one run. This big boy Sullivan just had the stuff and a total of four hits garnered off his delivery tell the story of the game. He was given good support during the greater part of the game, though there were seven errors chalked up against his teammates.

The locals were there with their big sticks in this game and hit Mauldin to all corners of the lot. Misenheimer led in the slugging with a triple and two singles. McInnis got two singles. Sullivan a double and a single, and Walker a double. Practically every man on the team got one or more hits, making a total of twelve. These hits, coupled with eight costly errors, accounted for the rampage of eleven runs.

The sixth was the big inning for both teams. In the first half Kannapolis scored three runs trying the score. Kelly was safe on Cleaver's error, Mauldin was safe on Ridenhour's error. Lee then proceeded to drive one against the fence for three bases scoring them both. Lee scored on Stonestreet's single. In the last half of the game lining the Concord boys went wild and scored five runs. Sullivan singled with one down. Lee was safe on Montgomery's error. Cleaver was safe on Fowler's error, filling the bases. Mauldin walked Ridenhour, and forced in a run. McInnis was safe on Montgomery's error and Lee scored. Misenheimer then parked one for three bases sending in three runs ahead of him. Goodman fanned and finished the game. Lee, for Concord, furnished the fielding features yesterday. He accepted five chances, many of them hard ones, without an error. Summary: R H E Kannapolis 4 4 8 Concord 11 12 7 Umpires, Bell and Basinger.
