NO. 102.

Negro Became Angry When Told to Wait for Pay Check and Fatally Shot the Clerk Who Handled Money.

TWO OTHER MEN FATALLY SHOT

Posse Dynamited House in Which Negro Barricated Himself.—Riot Calls Sent Out by Officers.

(By the Associated Press.)

(By the Associated Press.)
Helena. Ala., May 1.—Failure of a negro miner to receive his pay check resulted in three men, including the negro, being killed, and two others heing wounded here yesterday afternoon and night, after riot calls had been sent to the Sheihy County seat at Columbia, and to the sheriff's office in Birmingham, and a house in which the negro had barricaded himself had been dynamited and fired by a nose of near. negro and particated nimself had been dynamited and fired by a posse of near-ly a hundred officers and citizens. According to witnesses, John King, negro, came to the office of the coal

According to whitesses, some according to whitesses, some according to the coal company early in the afternoon and asked for his pay. After being told by Allen Abernethy, the time clerk, that he would have to wait for his check, he left without comment.

He returned in a few minutes, drew a pistol and shot Abernethy in the side, fatally wounding him. He then ran from the office.

King barricaded binnself in a house about 300 yards from the time office, with a rifle, shot gun, and the revolver with which he had killed Abernethy.

over the material aspects of the open fire, wounding Colley Roy in the arm and left side.

He continued firing with his shot gun and wounded J. W. Roy in the left side and the leg. The officers then retired and sent out a riot call.

When reinforcements came, it was decided to dynamite and fire to house in an effort to dislodge King from his barricaded position. The officers finally succeeded in setting fire to the place. King was slowly forced from the house toward the gate, fiting at random. His hast shot struck Phillips, who was unarmed, standing on an embankment and looking down at the negro crowled to the gate where a bullet from a high powered rifle took him above the right eye, killing him.

Over the material aspects of the state's forward march. Mrs. Saweezy and his scondition is the governor, Mr. and Mrs. Saweezy and the governor's is the flower the New York fared and setted the place was made familiar with the extension program under way there. Although the itinerary of the governor and banker has not been ament to Wilson from Scotland? Setterday by automobile accompanion. After the flower to state to return to new the result of the place of the place of the state stay in the place toward the gate, fiting at random. His hast shot struck Phillips, who was unarmed, standing on an embankment and looking down at the negro crowled to the gate where a bullet from a high powered rifle took him above the right eye, killing him.

Sugar Boycotts are

SUGAR BOYCOTTS ARE PRAISED BY HOOVER

Secretary of Commerce Thinks Less Use of Sugar Will Bring the Price Down.

President Approves Boycott Plan
Washington, May 1.—President
Harding feels it is wholly consistent for people who have a complaint about prices of a commodity to restrict their consumption of that commodity it was said at the white house in connection with the movestarted in varous parts of the to boycott consumption of

To Sell Stock to Employees.

To Sell Stock to Employees.

(By the Associated Press.)

Lawrence, Mass., May 1.—The Pacific Mills announced today that it would sell 5,000 shares of its stock to its employees at cost, on the installment plan. Any dividends declared before payment is completed will be credited to the subscriber. Five human the credited to the subscriber. Five human the credited to the subscriber. Five human the credited to the subscriber of the columbia, S. C., plant.

SCHEDULE OF VISITS FOR SPY ANNOUNCED.

The Fayssoux Tribune The Fryssoux Triome Spowill visit the places shown he-low at the approximate times in-dicated. Any persons who de-sire to apprehend the spy may be on the watch for him accord-

Today's Schedule. Efird's Dept. Store 10 a. m Brown's 11 a. m. J. H. Farley 12 m. Hoover's 1 p. m. Porter Drug Co. 2 p. m. Pearl Drug Co. 3 p. m. Piggly Wiggly 3:30 p. m. riggly Wiggly 5.50 p. m. Musette 4 p. m. W. A. Overcash's 4:30 p. m. Bell & Harris 5:00 p. m. Tomorrow's Schedule, Piggly Wiggly 10 a. m. W. A. Overcash's 10:45 a. m. Efird's Dept. Store 11:30 a. m. J. H. Farley 1 p. m. Musette 1:45 p. m. Bell & Harris 2:30 p. m. Brown's 3:15 p. m. Porter Drug Co., 4:00 p. m Hoover's 4:25 p. m. Pearl Drug Co. 5:30 p. m.

NEW YORK FINANCIER LOOKING OVER STATE that he would have to wait for his check, he left without comment.

He returned in a few minites, drew a pistol and shot Abernethy in the side, fatally wounding him. He then ran from the office.

King barricaded himself in a house about 300 yards from the time office, with a riffe, shot gun, and the revolver with which he had killed Abernethy.

Headed by the Helena chief of police a force of deputies and peace officers immediately went to King's home to arrest him. King's reply was to open fire, wounding Colley Roy in the arm and left side.

He continued firms with the variable of the state's forward march, Mrs. Saweezy of and some area as of the state's forward march, Mrs. Saweezy of and son are also making the tour.

Pinehurst, N. C., May 1.—Scientific lectures on dentistry were given here today at the joint convention of the North Carolina and Virginia Dental Associations by members of the two bodies and by experts from other states

Use of Sugar Will Bring the Price Down.

By the Associated Press.)

Washington, D. C., May 1—American women who are organizing boycotts against the use of sugar are "on the right track" in the opinion of Secretary Hoover.

"The way to control prices of food commodities," said Mr. Hoover today, "is to bring about the spontaneous control of consumption."

Automobile trips, golf and the races here were on the program for the afternoon, which was set aside for entertainment.

David Livingstone Anniversary,

David Livingstone Anniversary.
London, May 1.—IMany magn ficent floral offerings were piled over the last resting place of David Livingstone in Westminister Abbey today, this being the fiftieth anniversary of the death of the famous Scottish missionary exporer. Alrhough the pody of Livingstone rests in the Abbey, the heart of the great missionary is buried in the wilds of Africa, where he labored for so many years and where his death occurred on this date in 1873.

FEDERATION WOMEN'S CLUBS

FEDERATION WOMEN'S CLUBS

Everything in Readiness for Meeting at Winston-Salem, May I.—Everything is in rendances here for the opening of the North Carolina Federation of Women's chibs convention here tomorrow, a number of national officials to be in attendance. The convention will remain in session three days.

Mrs. Thomas G. Winter, of Minneapolis, president of the general federation; Mrs. D. S. Berry, California, chairman of the fine arts in the general federation, and Mrs. Mark Oberndorfer, chairman of music; Mrs. Lindsay Patterson, first president of the North Carolina organization, and others will deliver the principal addresses. The national officials will leave after the convention here to attend the General Federation Council meeting in Atlanta, May 7-11.

Mrs. Patterson will deliver the address of welcome on Wednesday night and Mrs. R. R. Cotten, the response, Mrs. Sidney Cooper, Henderson, president of the North Carolina Federation, then will deliver her annual address, followed by a speech by Mrs. Oberndorfer. Thursday night will be fine arts evening at which time poetry, music and short story loving cups will be awarded.

Friday evening will be known as "President's Night." Mrs. Winter will speeak and all past presidents of the stage. On Saturday the new executive board will elect a chairmen of departments and an election of a president will take place.

Breakfast conferences, in which several of the departments of the departments, will be features of the convention.

REP. KITCHIN IS NOW TAKING "REST CURE"

Physicians State His Condition Is Not Serious, But That He Needs to Rest. Wilson, N. C., May 1 (By the Asso-ciated Press).—Representative Claude Kitchin, former minority leader in the lower house of Congress, is a patient at a local hospital taking the "rest cure." Mr. Kitchin entered the hospital yesterday, and his condition is declared by his physicians to be not sertions.

Representative Kitchin recently suf-Representative Kitchm recently suffered an attack of influenza and his already run down condition was said arready workened. He already run down condition was said to have been greatly weakened. He came to Wilson from Scotland Neck yesterday by automobile accompanied by Mrs. Kitchin and his two sons-in-law. His physicians said today the

BOARD OF CHARITIES IS HOLDING MEETING

Meeting Is Being Held Behind Closed Doors, But Members Will Make a Statement Later. (By the Associated Press.)

(By the Associated Press.)
Greensboro, May 1.—The quarterly meeting of the State Board of Charities and Public Welfare here this afternoon at 3 o'clock will be behind closed doors, according to A. W. McAllister, of Greensboro, a member of the board. At the close of the meeting, however, a statement will be issued to the newspapers, he said.

The Board is expected to make plaus for the prison investigation which will be undertaken in accordance with plans made following the meeting last week with Governor Cameron Morrison in Raleigh.

eron Morrison in Raleigh.

Seek Solution of Trade Problems. New Orleans, La. Way

Seek Solution of Trade Problems.

New Orleans, La., May 1.—Means of promoting foreign commerce and of solving the rail and water transportation problems of the country will be the subjects of discussion at the tenth convention of the National Foreign Trade Council of the United States, which assembles here tomorrow for a session of four days; Many delegates from all sections of the

Withdraw From Injunction Case.
Chicago. May 1 (By the Associated Press).—Counsel for railway employees of the Department of the American Federation of Labor, representing the shop crafts in their defense against the injunction proceedings of Attorney General Dougherty, today withdrew from the case which was scheduled to come before Judge Wilkerson tomorrow.

Mayor Prevents Meeting by Neils Gron at Portland

The articles below, taken from the Press-Herald, of Portland, Maine, will # be of Interest to Concord people, inasmuch as Mrs. Gron is a Concord woman, and before marriage was Mrs. % Saidee Dusenbery.

The following article was published # April 25th:

GRON AND WIFE'S ATTORNEY CLASH IN BITTER ARGUMENT

CRON AND WIFE'S ATTORNEY
CLASH IN BITTER ARGUMENT
Shout Epithets of Liar, Traitor, Brute,
Pharisee at Pythian Temple Meeting Where Lawyer Is Unwelcome Guest.
Pankunonium brooly loose at Pythian Temple last night when Neils Gron adjourned a meeting of persons interested yin his plan to regain custody of his son, Joseph 7. F. Connolly, former judge of Superior Court and attorney for the former Mrs.
Gron during her divorce hearing last December, arose and insisted upon giving an address.
Shouting at the top of their voicesthe two men' each contradicted the other, called each other such names as "itar," "contemptible brute," "traitor"
and "Pharisee."
Warning that the 160 persons present were joining in what might be construed as an attack on the court system of this country was given by Mr.
Connolly, the uninvited guest, who Mr.
Gron repeatedly called a Pharisee.
Finally, Mr. Gron left the hall, after shouting an apology to those who had listened to his amusual debate, and went to his hotel with his bride,
formerly Mrs. Saidee Gowan Dusenlety.
"I cannot stand this any longer," notinced that he had something to say.

All stopped in astonishment. Mr.
Gron pointed out that this was a "parliament of public opinion," a designation he gave to the meeting during his address, and proposed the taking of a vote to determine whether or not those present wished to hear this unexpected speaker.

Mr. Connolly had continued to talk during this proposal, so that the roor

Mr. Connolly had continued to this during this proposal, so that the roar of two voices from two large and ablebedied men effectually confused what each wished to convey.

But the vote was taken while Mr. Connolly shouled that Mr. Gron was "the most contemptable thing I ever saw."

Excitement was too intense for a careful count of votes. Mr, Gron attempted it but failed.

Fifteen persons, approximately, arose in favor of an address from Mr. Consolius States.

may not an address from ar. Connolly, Sixty persons, more or less, arose to voice their opposition to any any address from the former judge of Superior Court.

This vote made not the slightest difference in the deportment of Mr. Connolly. He continued to falk and in an even louder voice than before tions today and the progress made during the last year.

2—The best ways and means to cheapen and perfect the movement of exports and imports between central United States and the seaboard.

The first of these, subjects will be the basis of a report from a special committee which has been working on the subject during the last year.

The financial aspects of foreign trade will be discussed by bankers, who will take up also the effect of the exchange situation and the state of credits.

Of special interest to shipping men will be the address of James A. Farrell, president of the United States Steel Corporation, on the shippi...; situation of the world.

Baltimore, April 30.—Five of the eight dancers who this morning equalled the endurance record set at Youngstown, Ohio, last Saturday, of 8 o'clock tonight passed the 144 nour mark, although in an extremely exhausted condition they are continuing to shuffle about the floor.

At the start of the dance last Tuesday they anounced their goal as 150 hours.

Withdraw From Injunction Case.

Withdraw From Injunction Case.

NON-STOP DANCE RECORDS BROKEN.

Motion Made at Conclusion of State's Motion Made at Conclusion of State's Evidences—Sentences Ambounced A By Judge Webb.

The case against Maurice C. Howie, Monroe man charged with the death of an 8-y-ar-old girl of this city, came to a sudden end Monday afternoon when a motion to non-suit was allowed by Judge James L. Webb, presiding at the present term of Cabarrus Superior Court.

The motion, to non-suit was made by attorneys for the defendant at the conclusion of the State's evidence, the court ruling that the evidence cith to the case.

and went to his horel with his bride, formerly Mrs. Saidee Gowan Dusenbery.

"I cannot stand this any longer," shouted Mr. Gron, as he left for the rear of the hall after ail but coming to blows with Mr. Cohnolly.

"If you want to stay, you can listen to him, that contemptible brute, than whom there is no greater," said Mr. Gron, his face rel with passion.

As he left, amidst applause, he was patted on the back and congratulated by many persons who stood in the doorway of the hall he had hired to give his address of protest against the retention of the custody of his nine year old son, Nells, Jr., by his former wife. Mrs. Madeline Masters Stone.

Connolly Opens Fire.

The meeting was adjourned at 9:55 o'c'cock, after Mr. Gron had talked for nearly two hours on his scheme for the appointment of a board of public guardianship for the child which Judge Lauren M. Sanborn of Superior Court gave the mother at the time he decreed a divorce.

If was without interruption up to that point, although Mr. Gron repeat edly made reference to Mr. Connolly, who sat in the midst of the adhence.

Mr. Gron waved his hand in an an anonuncement that the meeting would adjourn until next Thursday night. The 140 women and sixty men who at tended rose to go.

Mr. Connolly also rose before Mr. Gron left the stage which he had occupied alone, and in a loud voice an nounced that he had something to say. All stopped in astonishment. Mr. Gron pointed out that this was a "parliament of public opinion," a designar tion he gave to the meeting during and the gave to the meeting would and the costs and in the other case was nounced that he had something to say. All stopped in astonishment. Mr. Gron pointed out that this was a "parliament of public opinion," a designar tion he gave to the meeting during the court for two years.

Left Mr. Howie was arrested several at each October term of court for two years.

Mr. Howie was and purious decision of the continuance of the case.

Mr. Howie was arrested several weeks ago when he was charged with striki

Census Bureau Says This Much Was Held By Manufacturers and Dealers. Washington, April 30.—Leaf tobac wishington, April 30.—Leaf tobac-co held by manufacturers and deal-ers April 1 aggregated 1,846,555,045 pounds. compared with 1,491,300,988 on January 1 this year and 1,784,550,-762 on April 12 ast year, the census bureau announced today.

Chewing, smoking, snuff and ports types totaled 1,327.733 pounds, compared with 1,068, 784 op. Layuage 1 in violation of the decree of General de Goutte, the French military chief in the Rubr. This decree provides for imprisonment from 10 years up to life at hard labor or execution by lice Leggett, of Evanston, declared to-day.

THE COTTON MARKET

(By the Associated Presidence of Chicago, May 1.—Lieghton arount, Northwestern University student missing since the September, 1921, class rush, whose skeleton was found in the Evanston lake front last night, was killed in the class rush, Chief of Police Leggett, of Evanston, declared today.

"Mount's body was carried to the pler after his death and burled beneath heavy stones." Leggett said. "There could be no other explanation of the presence there of his skeleton. "It is likely that Mount was accidentally killed during the class war in September, 1921, and that his body was hidden by students who were frightnend as a result of their hazing."

Both arms and hands, one foot and one lower leg are missing, the chief said.

one lower leg are missing, the chief said.

Chief Leggett and President Walter Bill Scott of the University, met today, to arrange for the inquest tomorrow morning. Chief Leggett announced that the boys who testified at the hearing held soon after Mount's disappearance were to be among those summnoed to testify at the inquest.

Beside the skeleton identified by the boy's mother through a belt buckle and fragments of a coat, the chief exhibit for the inquest is a piece of rope about 3 feet long found by the body. Students engaged in the class rush of 1921 said today it was similar to the hopes given scores of under classmen for use in tying the hands and feet of members of the opposite class.

Announcement Made Just 24 Hours Before Case Was to Come up in Ordinary Locks in Cotton Boll.

(By the Associated Press.)

Lockhart, Texas, May 1.—Alexander

D. Mebane, famed cotton breeder, who indeed a fifth lock to the ordinary four locks in a boll of cotton, and thereby brought countless wealth to the South in the development of the seed, died
here last night.

Mebane cotton is known the world

Mebane cotton is known the world

of the men who made up the ride with

here last night.

Mebane cotton is known the world over. Mr. Mebane came from a family for which Mebane, N. C., is named, and all of whose members have been identified with cotton for generations. He originated the cotton about thirty ears ago.

troops.

The head of the Kru'n works will be charged with three others of the Krupp: directors, with endangering the safety of the troops of occupation in releasing of the safety of the troops of occupation in releasing of the safety of the troops of occupation in releasing of the safety of the troops of occupation in releasing of the safety of the troops of occupation in releasing of the safety of the troops of occupation in releasing of the safety of the troops of occupation in releasing of the safety of the safe turing Company, which has been ditions to the awarded the contract at $15,000,000. ing just close

CHARGES STUDENT WAS RULLED IN CLASS RUSH PERSON CATCHING'
This Theory Advanced by Officers Who Have Been Making Investigation
Case.
(By the Associated Pres. State Library
Case.)
(By the Associated Pres. State Library
Case.)

TO GET $25 CASH

The Spy Will Visit Different Business Houses Daily .-Fayssoux Astounds All With a Blindfold Drive.

VISIT SCHEDULE FOR TOMORROW

Report of Activities of Unknown Yesterday Supplied by Grapevine Wireless .-Great Interest Manifested.

The mysterious Fayssoux-Tribune spy, who will bring his discovered $25 in cash, today made his appearance in Concord, and began visiting various places of business, according to "grape vine wireless" information furnished. The Tribune. He made a number of purchases in different stores during the day and visited and inspected other establishments.

The person who finds the spy while holding a copy of the current issue of The Tribune and having a reserved seat ticket to the Fayssoux canvas theatre will be awarded $25 in cash. The finder must say "Fayssoux's Spy," with the blank properly filled in.

A schedule of visits which the spy will nearly today to the spy will be the search of the spy will be the search of the search Amnouncement Made Just 24 Hours Before Case Was to Come up in Court.

(By the Associated Press.)

Chicago, May 1.—Leaders of the strike of railroad shop men today abandoned their cause in defense against the Federal injunction obtained by Attorney General Daugherty hast. September, and announced that their possible contentions in the case had been upheld.

The announcement by counsel for the defendants, coming 24 hours in adjoining column of this paper. The spetember, and announced that their possible contentions in the case had been upheld.

The announcement by counsel for the defendants, coming 24 hours in adjoining column of this paper. The spetember, and announced that their possible contentions in the case had been upheld.

The announcement by counsel for the defendants, coming 24 hours in adjoining an automobile through her business section. Fayssoux, the hypototist, pulled the stunt, and her first experience with a blindfolded man driving an automobile through her business section. Fayssoux, the hypototist, pulled the stunt, and her first experience with a blindfolded man driving an automobile through her business section. Fayssoux, the hypototist, pulled the stunt, and her first experience with a blindfolded man driving an automobile through her business section. Fayssoux, the hypototist, pulled the stunt, and he her mentioned by G. Ed. Kestler, W. O. Allen and J. B. Yandle the hypnotist while tightly blindfolded, drove a forth defense had withdrawn at the request of the officers of the railway and that the government of the defense counsel, expressed that the slop men were satisfied with the situation of labor, possible with the situation of labor, possible with the situation and that the government of the defense counsel, expressed that the slop men were satisfied with the could find such satisfaction as they could and do as they wished with the situation of labor, possible with the conservation of labor, possible with the conservation of labor, possible possible possible possible possible possible po placed there unknown to film by some of the men who made up the ride with him. He took the key to the postoffice, went immediately to the box which it unlocks, secured the letter which his companions had placed there and carried it to the Ritchie Hardware Company, to which company it was addressed. His blindfold was not removed until he delivered the letter.

The demonstration of the hypnotist's

Chewing, smoking, sunif and exports types totaled 1,327.731.051 pounds, compared with 1.068.041, 784 on January 1 this year and 1.303.255.393 on April 1 last year.

Cigar types totaled 41,590.228 pounds compared with 346.603.961 on annary 1J this year and 40.632.676 on April 1 last year.

Imported types totaled 47,233.766 pounds, compared with 76.655.213 on January 1 this year and 79.662.693 on April 1 last year.

PRESIDENT OF KRUPP

WORKS IS ARRESTED

Being Held by French in Connection
With Shooting at Krupp Plant on March 31.

Essen, May 1—(By the Associated Press)—Dr. Gustave Krupp won Bohlemund Halbach, president of Krupp Works here, arrested today by the French military authorities in connection with the shooting at the Krupp plant on March 31 when Mourteen Germans were killed and thirty wounded in a clash with the French troops.

The head of the Kru-a works will

With Our Advertisers.

"Hot water like magic"—watch the adds of the Concord Gas Co.

Buy your next winter's coal now. A. B. Pounds will sell you jellice hump coal for $9.50.

Milk Maid bread—"quality first and quality last."

The Musette has secured the agency for the Remington portable typewriter, Awnings will make your home for comfortable and attractive. See new ad. of the Concord Furniture Company.

Hood, Kelly and Goodrich tires and tubes are still being sold by the lardware Co. at the same old price, though the prices on them have been advanced.

The Orchard Produce Co. (successors to L. E. Boger) specializes in country produce. See ad. on last page.

Will Electrify Part of Virginia Railway between Roanoke, Virginia and Mullins West Virginia, a distance of 215 mics at West Concord Baptist Church will baptive and the same site at West Concord Baptist Church will baptive and correction with the shooting at the Kru-a works will church during the mee PASTOR.

American Vessels for the Present at Least, Will Not Sell Liquor Aboard

THE COTTON MARKET

THE COTTON MARKET

Was Rather Irregular and Unsettled During Early Trading Today.

(By the Associated Press.)

Was Rather Irregular and Unsettled During Early Trading Today.

(By the Associated Press.)

Washington, May 1.—Definite indications were given by Chairman Lask.

Was rather irregular and unsettled during to Mr. Connolly, pointing to Mr. Gron, "and who was denied administion to this country during that war."

"That is a lie," shouted Mr. Gron, "and who was stendy at a decline of the opening wa

ing many months in extensive study of the Nation's coal troubles, recently, in an open statement to domestic consumers, advocated summer buying of winter requirements, stating that householders would benefit from the fact that they are likely to get cleaner and better prepared coal in warm weather, due to less breakage from handling, and a lower moisture content.

Do You Burn Coal? Read:

Federal Fuel Administrator, Mr. F. R. Wadleigh, after spend-

The experience of the past Winter seems to demonstrate clearly the expediency of domestic consumers obtaining next winter's requirements during the Spring and Summer months. If that is done, it will result in more steady work for the mines, and a more economical movement by the Railroad Companies, spreading the production of maximum requirements over a longer period. Those who take advantage of Fuel Administrator Wadleigh's suggestion will be assured of their Winter's cont, while others who do not, may again find it difficult to obtain a supply later on, except at much higher prices.

I have a few cars Best Double Screened Jellico Lump Coal that 4 beg to offer at the low price of $10.75 per ton. Best Virginia Lump Coal at $0.50. I thank you for your order. Terms, Cash.

A. B. POUNDS